

At the Granges

Shady Cove Grange

Shady Cove Grange met August 26 with fair attendance. The program for Booster night to be held Saturday, September 26, was discussed.

The committee to which the Hells Canyon Dam matter had been assigned recommended that the Grange go on record as backing the State Grange in its stand on the matter.

Grange voted to pay for 20 new chairs to be used at the school gym, if other organizations in the community will order enough to make 100 or more, thereby getting cheaper rates.

Visitors Mr. and Mrs. Reed McKay extended an invitation to the Gold Hill Grange picnic to be held at Tou Velle Park Sunday, Aug. 30. They also announced third and fourth degrees would be exemplified by their drill team at Gold Hill Grange on Thursday, September 3, and invited us to bring our candidates.

Another visitor, Mrs. Alberta Hughes of Upper Rogue Grange, gave a recitation.

Lecturer Edgar Vanderlip arranged an unrehearsed mock wedding with Master Phil Molschenbacher as the minister, Gertrude Lewin and Edward O'Neal as bride and groom, Sadie Vanderlip, ring bearer; Cecil Kee gave the bride away, Betty Dusenberry was the jilted girl friend, Anna Beryl Kee played the wedding march.

There was also a dress making contest in which Cecil Kee, Claude Close and Edward O'Neal fashioned dresses for their wives, using newspapers and pins. This contest was voted a tie.

H.E.C. Chairman Alyce Cross announced next H.E.C. meeting Tuesday, September 8, will be a pot-luck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Claude Close. Roll call will be answered by telling "How I Fixed It."

Treasurer Agnes Brown reported Mr. and Mrs. Athel Dudley unable to attend Grange because of illness.

Members were asked to save coffee bands. We are helping the P.T.A. obtain a drip-lator.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Clark served refreshments.

Gold Hill Grange
Regular meeting of Gold Hill Grange H.E.C. was held August 26 at the hall with 15 sisters present.

Business meeting was conducted by Mary Shaw, Chairman. A few good suggestions were brought up for improving both H.E.C. and Grange work.

On Lucy Edington's suggestion the ladies will meet next Wednesday to clean the Grange hall prior to the meeting Thursday night when Gold Hill will put on the third and fourth degrees for other Grange candidates. Central Point being invited that night, especially. All Gold Hill ladies are requested to bring cookies and sandwiches to the meeting.

Members are reminded again of the Grange picnic at Tou Velle park, August 30 at 1 p.m. Ladies please do not overlook the meat dish, chicken, if you can.

Get well cards were sent to Mrs. Viola Moore and little Reva Taylor, daughter of Gold Hill's Marshall, who is very ill.

Myrtle Reel won the prize. After the business session the ladies were still quilting when they were honored by a visit from Mrs. Edna Foote and her daughter, Mrs. Edgerton of Kuna, Idaho.

Mrs. Edgerton's son Lee who is master of the Juvenile Grange of Kuna, and his sister, Sharon visited with the Gold Hill Juveniles.
