A churchmanship class for new and prospective members will be conducted by Dr. West on Sundays at 4 p.m. beginning on Sept. 6.

William M. Neal To Tell of Trip

William M. Neal, first lieutenant in the Medford squadron of the Civil Air Patrol and one of the local Methodist youth, will speak and show pictures of his recent trip to the Netherlands at the regular meeting of the senior high Methodist Youth fellowship Sunday evening in the social rooms of the First Methodist church, the pastor, the Rev. Hardwick W. Harshman, reported.

Lt. Neal will tell of his experiences in London, Rhine Marne, Germany and The Hague and of the four days he lived with the Van Dorp family.

The Junior high MYF will meet at the church at 6 p.m. Sunday for transportation to Military bridge for the regular Sunday evening fellowship.

Church school of the First Methodist Church begins promptly at 9:30 a.m. with classes for age groups under the leadership of Charles R. Adamson, superintendent.

Two identical preaching services at 9:30 and 11 a.m. are scheduled. Mr. Harshman will bring to a close the sermon series on Kipling's "If," preaching on "Everything Is Yours." The Sanctuary Singers will present "God So Loved the World," by Stainer. Soloist for both services will be Mrs. Archie Pierce. She will sing "As He Who Walks," arranged by Jean Kuhn.

Lyle Starkey Speaks Here Sunday Night

The Rev. Lyle Starkey, senior ministerial student at Northwest Nazarene college, will be the preacher at the Medford Church of the Nazarene Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

Starkey is a native of Medford, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Starkey. After holding a local preacher's license for two years, he was licensed by the Oregon Pacific District assembly, which met here in May. He supplied the pulpit of a Congregational church near Nampa for several months during the college year.

The Rev. Walter C. Morris, pastor at Prospect, and former missionary to India, will preach at the 11 a.m. service, according to the pastor, the Rev. Vernon Wilcox.

Hartford, Conn.—(U.P.)—Connecticut's highway department takes the sting out of poison ivy as far as its workers are concerned. The employees, frequently exposed to the itch-producing vine while clearing rights-of-way, are inoculated with ivy extract. Last year only seven out of 240 were poisoned.

Medford Pastor Conclave Speaker

The Rev. Shelby Anglemeyer, pastor of First Christian church, will give the sermon Saturday evening, September 5, at the Oregon state missionary convention of the denomination at Turner.

The conclave will open on September 2 and conclude on September 6. Mr. Anglemeyer is chairman of the convention nominating committee.

Youth of the Medford church will have charge of the Sunday evening service. They will bring special music and the message. A regular youth meeting will precede the service.

Mr. Anglemeyer will speak on "I Heard the Voice" at the 10:55 a.m. worship of the church on Sunday.

Both fall and summer clothing may be turned in for the church rummage sale which is scheduled Friday and Saturday, September 4 and 5 from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. in the Fellowship hall.

St. Peter's Has Evening Meeting

St. Peter's Lutheran church has begun evening services on Sunday at 7:30 o'clock.

The Rev. Kenneth F. Korby, pastor, announced that this Sunday evening, the third in a series of sermons on worship will be preached. Title of the sermon is "Consecrated to the Lord."

Devotion, it will be pointed out, is not only the setting aside of part of one's time, energy, and money to the Lord. Devotion is a devoted life and existence.

In the morning service Pastor Korby will preach on "Walking in the Pattern Cut by God." Members of the community, especially those who have no church connections, are invited to attend these services.

Armadillos can run with surprising speed when frightened.

Church Plans Class, Building Fund Drive

Gold Hill—Gold Hill Christian church will start a weekly class at 8 p.m. next Thursday at the church.

The study has been popular at other churches in Oregon. Courses of study will be distributed at the Sunday morning service to those who wish to enroll.

Church planning committees are discussing a "buy a block" campaign in a drive to erect a new church. The building, under the plan, would be made of pumice blocks, costing 38 cents each. Persons would be given an opportunity to purchase one or more blocks for the church.

Ada Andrews has painted a thermometer poster showing funds on hand in the building and lot fund. The thermometer will rise as funds come in.

It is hoped to make a decision soon on a lot for the church.

Norwalk, Conn.—(U.P.)—Police were unprepared for the amount of business they got when they put in new parking meters in some sections of the city. Before noon the first day the traffic department reported it had run out of tickets tagging overtime parkers.

ALL IN THE FAMILY
Ellensburg, Wash.—(U.P.)—Mr. and Mrs. Roger Martin of Seattle were having an argument as they drove through here. She got out of the car and signed an assault complaint against him. His $100 fine was paid—by Mrs. Martin.
