

Session Planned By Garden Club; Announce Events

Central Point—Central Point Garden club will hold the next meeting at the home of Mrs. Warren Patterson, Upton road. It is set for Wednesday, September 2, at 1:30 p.m., with Mrs. Leonard Freeman and Mrs. Scott Hamilton assisting the hostess.

Roll call will be answered with material of interest about the country-of-the-month, Mexico or its flower, the dahlia. Mrs. J. E. Vincent will speak on "That Compost Pile" and Mrs. Clarence Melbye will present a few "Tricks for Corsages."

At the August meeting of the club, Delmar Smith demonstrated rose budding, using the wild multiflora rose as root stock and the bud from any desired rose.

Guests at the meeting, at the home of Mrs. M. J. Swing, included Mrs. Claire Douglas and Mrs. Henry L. Bonney of Laurel Garden club, Rogue River, who are director and secretary of Siskiyou district, Oregon Federation of Garden clubs. They announced a picnic for the presidents and secretaries of all garden clubs in Siskiyou district, at Touville Park August 20, also the fall district meeting at Jerome Prairie October 14. Other guests were Miss Mildred Patterson, Seattle; Mrs. Floyd Jenkins and Mrs. Ella Russell, Medford; Miss Linda Douglas, Rogue River and Mrs. Avis Weisel.

Roll call was answered by stories and souvenirs of Hawaii and the hibiscus. Mrs. James Cornutt and Mrs. John Holmer presented two arrangements. Prizes were received by Mrs. Cornutt and Mrs. Lloyd Seymour while Mrs. Seymour presented the corsage of gladioli she received to Mrs. Douglas. Mrs. B. M. Smith, horticulture chairman, displayed specimens of seedling dahlias. Dessert was served by Mrs. Swing, Mrs. W. C. Bower, Mrs. Luther Day and Mrs. Vincent.

During the business session, Mrs. Don Patterson, president, used the traveling gavel presented her by the Crater Garden club. It was decided to invite members of Howard Garden club to receive the gavel at the next meeting. Mrs. W. B. Kincaid, Mrs. Vincent and Mrs. W. I. Sutherland were appointed as a committee to revise the club constitution.

Mrs. Hamilton, wild flower chairman, asked all to help make a collection of Jackson county wild flowers. Mrs. O. T. Wilson of the civic and memorial committee was appointed to select a shrub to plant in the park as a memorial for local boys serving in Korea.

Concluding the program was a discussion led by Mrs. Swing on the growing of geraniums and fuchsias, and members toured Mrs. Swing's yard. Mrs. John Wisely read a letter from a floral pen pal in Tasmania, telling of the plants in that country.

New! For Flowers!

Give your home an elegant look with this easy-to-crochet flower basket! In white or pastel colors, it's so very pretty! It's treble crochet—easy to do.

Starched crochet looks like porcelain. About 7 1/2 inches in diameter. Pattern 7289; directions.

Send TWENTY-FIVE CENTS in coins for this pattern—add 5 cents for each pattern for 1st-class mailing. Send to Medford Mail Tribune, Household Arts Dept., P. O. Box 5640, Chicago 80, Ill. Print plainly NAME, ADDRESS with PATTERN NUMBER.

TEN COMPLETE PATTERNS to sew, embroider, crochet—printer right in the Alice Brooks Needlecraft Book! Plus many more patterns to send for—including ideas for gifts, home accessories, toys, fashions! Send 20 cents now!

Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. Walker were married August 8 in Piedmont Presbyterian church, Portland, with more than 200 guests attending the ceremony. The bride is the former Phyllis Stauffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Stauffer, 961 Lozier lane, Medford, and the bridegroom is a son of Mrs. William Walker, Portland. The newlyweds are at home in Portland.

Walker-Stauffer Service Held in Portland Church

Of interest here is news of the wedding of Miss Phyllis Stauffer daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Stauffer, 916 Lozier lane, to Richard F. Walker, son of Mrs. William Walker, Portland, at Piedmont Presbyterian church in Portland, August 8.

About 225 guests were present at the evening ceremony and for the reception which followed at the church.

The bride, who wore a dress of white nylon tulle over satin accented with lace applique, was given in marriage by her father. Her cap of seed pearls held a fingertip French illusion veil, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations, stephanotis and bouvardia centered with an orchid.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Elman Rieck, Ashland, and additional attendants were Mrs. Herbert Wing, Medford; Miss Betty Loren, Kellogg, Ida., and Mrs. Marden Pillette, Ashland, cousin of the bride. They wore yellow net gowns with yellow lace jackets. The matron of honor carried deep orchid colored gladioli while the bridesmaids carried lighter orchid ones.

The flower girl, Patricia Pillette, wore a yellow dress with a net overskirt. The candlelighters, Miss Barbara Newton, and Mrs. William Hoggard, wore blue net dresses.

The church was decorated with white bows arranged at the sides of the center aisle. Edward Hargreaves was organist and Mrs. Helen Rogers sang.

Robert Elliott, Portland, was the best man. Ushers were Richard Nelson, Portland; Les Siebenthaler, Portland, and Charles Harris, Vancouver, Wash.

Following a wedding trip to Vancouver, B. C., and Idaho, the

IT'S A SARA Style 9954 7 to 16

DOVE DOWN SUEDE 1 pc. sheath dress in Dove Down Suede, with widow's peak scoop neckline. Matching pencil-slim cardigan jacket has 3/4 sleeves. Peg-top skirt has 2 side pockets.

Price 17.98

"Sale of California"

greta's MEDFORD

The Best Is Not Expensive

24 N. Bartlett

Honor Couple On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dodson, route 1, Central Point, observed their golden wedding anniversary with a family reunion at their home Sunday, August 23.

The Dodsons were married in 1903 in Kentucky, and have lived in Southern Oregon for the past 30 years. Mr. Dodson retired from the ministry in 1934, his last pastorate having been at First Baptist church in Grants Pass.

Members of the family at the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Dodson and children Janice, James and Judy, Ashland; Mrs. John C. Haney and children, Johnny and Anne, Bend; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Arnold and daughter, Donna, San Francisco. Donna had spent the summer with her grandparents and is returning home with her parents.

Also present at the gathering were Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Evans, Portland, and children Bobby and Marilyn.

Miss Mabel Dodson, a daughter who teaches at Central Point, planned the occasion for her parents. Two daughters and their families were unable to attend, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pruess and children Judy and Bobby, Grand Junction, Colorado, and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cochran and children Elwyn and Laverne, Grants Pass.

Extension Groups Resume Sessions; Luncheon Planned

County extension groups are planning to resume their schedule of meetings after the summer recess. A few extension units plan meetings for this week.

Butte Falls—Organization will be the purpose of a regular meeting of Butte Falls Home extension unit Thursday, Sept. 3, at 1:30 p.m. in the City Hall. Anyone interested may attend, and child care will be provided.

Reese Creek—Luncheon will be served at the meeting of the Reese Creek Extension unit planned for September 1, at 10:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. D. L. Crandell, Ball road. A nominal fee will be charged and everyone is asked to bring their own table service.

Lake Creek—A potluck luncheon will be a feature of the Lake Creek Extension unit meeting at the home of Mrs. J. L. Davidson, Wednesday, September 2, at 10:30 a.m. Members are asked to bring table service and their final Pollyanna gifts. All members are asked to attend this meeting and all newcomers to the community are welcome.

The first aerial bombing raid in history took place in 1849 during Austria's siege of Venice. Austrians released hot-air balloons, each carrying a bomb equipped with automatic release.

Attending the party in Mrs. Burbank's honor, were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harnish, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Harnish and daughter Linda, Mrs. Ethel Coy, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Boun and daughter Aloha, all of Eagle Point; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Throckmorton, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Clifford and two sons Mike and Pat, of Medford.

The Taylor clan is planning a celebration of the anniversary of its one hundredth year in Oregon. The celebration is to be held Sept. 20 in Tou Velle park.

Women's Groups Announce First Meetings for Fall Season

With the first week in September women's clubs of the valley will be beginning their fall schedule of activities after the summer vacation period.

Brand new is the printed coat. Stanley Wyllins of Beacon Hill designed the raincoat modeled here of printed corduroy in all-over paisley figure. Coats like this double in style, and are right for rain or shine.

Camp Fire Girls Finance Committee Approves Crusade

A motion to apply for membership in the United Medford Crusade was passed by members of the finance committee of Camp Fire Girls, Inc., when the group met recently at the home of Mr. John Laden, East Jackson street.

The vote came after a discussion of the budget. Members also accepted plans and outlines for next year's budget. It is anticipated that membership in the Medford area Camp Fire Girls may be doubled by the end of this year.

Those attending the finance committee meeting were Mrs. Elmo Stevenson, president; John Laden, Mrs. Jack Suksdorf, Frank Davis, Henry Enders, Fred Nichols, and Mrs. Jeanne Gang, new executive director.

The last of the 36 girls who attended Camp Fire Girl camp at Lake O'Woods this summer has just returned. The camp program was carried on under the guidance of trained supervisors aided by college students whose training is specifically tuned to the interest of the girls.

Guild Group Plans Coming Activities

The executive group of Ruth and Esther Wesleyan Service guild, assistant director of Gum Moon met Tuesday, August 18, to plan work for the year. The meeting followed a potluck supper at the home of Mrs. Wallace Peabody, 922 Murray street.

Nineteen people attended. Guests were Mrs. George Parker, Topeka, Kan., sister of Mrs. L. A. White, 443 Haven street, and Miss Abby Sturtevant, assistant director of Gum Moon residence hall for Oriental girls, San Francisco. Gum Moon is a national project of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church. Miss Sturtevant, formerly of Medford, has been vacationing with Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Clark, Calhoun road, Phoenix.

Expecting?

Larry Schade says...
If you are expecting him to POP the question, make sure he sees a Columbia tru-fit DIAMOND RINGS

It's The Only Ring Made That Adjusts Automatically To The Shape Of Your Finger

Reg. U.S. Pat. Off. 2615314

Illustration shows "TRU-FIT"—self-adjusting ring built-in 14 Kt. gold spring unit—prevents turning—ensures perfect fit.

feel the difference

ORDINARY RINGS twist and turn on the finger because they are over-sized to pass over the wide knuckle.

"TRU-FIT" RINGS contract and expand automatically to conform to the normal contours of your finger.

EASY PAYMENTS Arranged

Larry Schade
FINE DIAMONDS SINCE 1918
9 SOUTH CENTRAL FLUHRER BLDG.

BURELSON'S

flyrights by DE LISO soft as shoes can be!

So soft, so flexible, so light
...and so wonderfully easy-going that once you try them you'll want to live in them.

Come see if you don't agree!

Black Suede, Black Leather, Blue Leather, Cinzanna in Hi-Heel and Mid Hi-Heel.

16.95

BURELSON'S The House of Finer Shoes
Main and Bartlett Streets Phone 2-6428