

Mathews One Homer Off Ruth's 1927 Pace; Braves Crack Mark With 12 Round Trippers

By CARL LUNDQUIST
New York — (U.P.) — Fans who still think the Braves have a chance to win the pennant are harder to find than a Phi Beta Kappa key in a hock shop, but the Milwaukee madcaps may come up with a consolation prize if Ed Mathews wins the home run championship.

Mathews, who would be a cinch to be baseball's "sophomore of the year" if there were such an award, might even win the most valuable player trophy if he keeps slugging the way he has been doing lately.

Once again today he was only one homer behind Babe Ruth's record of 1927 after pating the Braves to 19-4 and 11-5 triumphs at Pittsburgh. Mathews hit three homers in the two games to give him a total of 43 for the season.

Six On Top

That put him six ahead of his closest competitor in the Majors, Ted Kluszewski of Cincinnati, who has 37.

When the Braves also came through with four more homers in the second game, for 12 in the two frays, they cracked another National League mark of 10 homers in two consecutive games set by the Pirates of 1925.

The Braves picked up a half game over the Dodgers and now trail them by 10 games even though Brooklyn poured across 12 runs in a hilarious seventh inning and went on to beat the Cardinals 20-4, with 19 hits and eight walks.

The Yankees stayed eight games ahead of the White Sox, beating them 10-6 as Gil McDougald, Joe Collins, and Yogi Berra hit homers, but lost the second game 1-0 when Billy Pierce pitched a four-hitter for his 17th victory and his seventh shutout.

Other Games

The Indians, who are coming on nicely now when it really doesn't matter any more, topped the Red Sox 6-5 and 8-4. Ted Williams hit a towering 400-foot Boston homer in the first game and Sammy White also got one in a losing cause.

Don Larson shut out Washington with two hits to win 3-0 but the Senators came back to beat the Browns 9-3.

Phil Cavaretta's three-run pinch double gave the Cubs a 6-2 second game victory after the Giants won the opener 10-1 on homers by Al Dark, Wes Westrum, Bobby Thomson and Daryl Spencer and steady pitching by Jim Hearn. Karl Drews pitched six-hit ball for the Phils to beat Cincinnati 4-2 and Smokey Burgess hit a ninth inning second game homer to make it a sweep 4-3 as Jim Konstanty gained his 14th.

END OF THE LINE—Brad Myers, Los Angeles Rams halfback, is hauled down after 15 yard gain by Fred Bruney (44) and Tommy Thompson (54) of the Cleveland Browns in game at Los Angeles. The Rams outpowered the Browns to win by a score of 27-8.

Collinsworth Paces East To Win in Shrine Tussle

Pendleton — (U.P.) — The East and the West were even today after the East gained a 19-0 triumph in the second annual state Class B Shrine All-Star football game here Saturday night.

West won the first game last year by a score of 12-0.

It was East's game most of the way. Paced by Ward Collinsworth of Echo, the victors ripped through the West line for touchdowns in the second, third and fourth quarters.

Closest the West came to crossing the goal line was late in the second quarter when the Westerners carried the ball to the East 25, only to lose the ball on downs.

Clay Injured

First downs favored East, 15 to 5.

West lost the services of Quarterback Don Clay of Jacksonville early in the second quarter and from there on seemed unable to produce an effective attack. Clay's leg was hurt when he was tackled on a punt return.

Collinsworth, who scored one touchdown, kicked an extra point and was a big yardage maker, was voted the game's outstanding player. Others honored were Dick Joslyn, Drain, best offensive lineman; Lyle Flettwood, Mill City, best blocking back, and Rex Lockett, Elgin, best defensive lineman. Joslyn and Flettwood played with the West and Lockett with the East.

Portlanders May Have Don Restelli Back Soon

Portland — (U.P.) — The Portland Beavers may have Don Restelli, slugging outfielder, back on the active list by the end of the season.

Restelli retired from active play with the Beavers July 3, suffering from an inflammation of the heart lining. His improvement, however, has been so steady that doctors have recommended exercise.

Beaver General Manager Bill Garbarino said that "if everything works out all right, Restelli may play by the end of the season, probably as a pinch-hitter."

ABC Diamond Tourney Enters Home Stretch

Portland — (U.P.) — Norgan's Beavers were scheduled to play the Longshoremen in ABC tournament action tonight as the event entered the home stretch.

Oregon City copped a pair of wins yesterday, beating Heales Babes 4-1 and Molalla 4-2. In other games Archer Blower downed Forest Grove 5-0 and Longshoremen took Molalla 2-0.

Tom Jacobs May Enter Meet Here

A former national junior champion may enter the Southern Oregon Golf tournament, which opens here this week, Rogue Valley Country club has reported.

The linksman is Tom Jacobs, Montebello, Calif., who has claimed both the United States Golf association and U.S. Junior Chamber of Commerce crowns.

Jacobs will attempt to qualify for the national amateur tourney Tuesday. If he fails, he may come to the tourney here it was stated.

Qualifying for Rogue Valley men seeking championship flight berths and for all out-of-town entries is scheduled for Thursday with match play to open on Friday for both men and women and to run through Monday, Labor day.

Local high handicappers are qualifying before Thursday with women having through Tuesday and men through Wednesday to complete their rounds. Rogue Valley women with handicaps of 12 and under are to qualify Wednesday morning.

The club reported this morning that 30 men high handicappers and seven women have made the 18-hole jaunt. A number of women were expected to make the rounds today.

Brown, Coleman Fire Top Scores

Art Brown headed Skeet shooters with 46 out of 50 and Ray Coleman shattered 47 in 16-yard trapshooting in activity at Medford Gun club yesterday.

Bert Peck in skeet and Coleman and Martin Clogston in 16-yard rivalry each broke 25 straight.

Thirty shooters were on hand for the first action in several weeks at the Medford traps. The club will be closed next Sunday, September 6. There is a possibility of local gunmen taking part in shoots at Pendleton and LaGrande over Labor day week end.

Skeet and 16-yard events are planned at the Medford club on September 13.

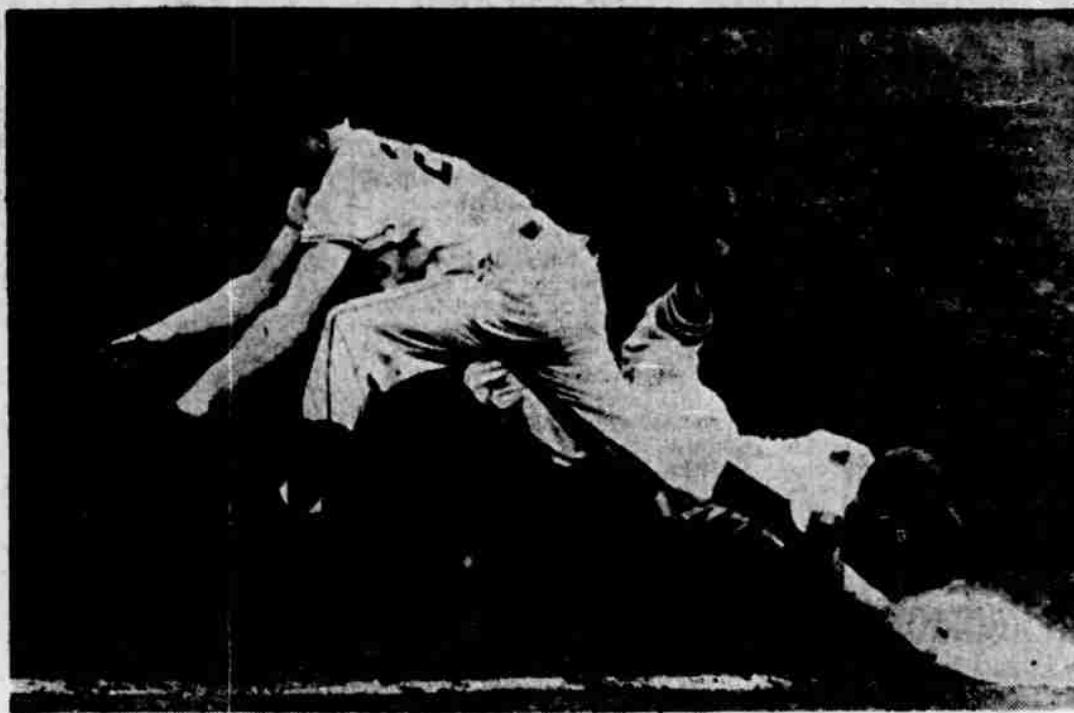

Yesterday's skeet scores included Peck 44, Clogston and Ed Pease 42, Floyd Young 41, and Ed Henselman 40. G. H. Wignall, Mell Mitchell and John Lilly 39. In 16-yard shooting the marks were Charles Bendell 45, Harry Cawker (Grants Pass) and Percy Beardon 44, and Jake Steiger 40.

Yankee Netters Oppose Aussies

Forest Hills, N.Y. — (U.P.) — Art Larsen, Billy Talbert and Sidney Schwartz made the first major stand against the invading Australians today in the second round of the U.S. Tennis Singles championship.

The top Aussie favorites, Ken Rosewall and Lew Hoad, gained the third round with ease yesterday.

Larsen, tantalizing southpaw from San Leandro Calif., and the last American to win the U.S. crown in 1950, tackled young Clive Wilderspin; Talbert took on erratic Rex Hartwig, and Schwartz, an underdog, upset southpaw Mervyn Rose.

IT'S A STRETCH OUT—Solly Hemus of the Cardinals dives head first back into first, but too late. Giants' first sacker Whitey Lockman had just taken throw from Hank Thompson to double up Hemus in game at New York. Thompson had pulled down Red Schoendienst's line drive to start the double play. Giants won, 3-0.

Stars' Long Hits 32nd Homer; Portland Splits With Padres

San Francisco — (U.P.) — Dale Long, whose slugging power is masked behind a shy .275 batting average, virtually had the coast league home run title wrapped up today as he and his Hollywood Stars zoomed closer to the pennant.

Dangerous Dale slammed his 30th, 31st and 32nd round trippers yesterday while the Twinks were splitting a doubleheader with Los Angeles and Seattle just about fell out of the race as it took a double drubbing from lowly Sacramento by scores of 12-8 and 8-1. The Suds now trail Hollywood by 10 games.

The Angels won the first game from Hollywood 5-4 when Gene Baker singled in Bob Talbot in the 12th inning. Hollywood won the finale 5-0 on Jim Walsh's two-hitter over the seven inning route.

Cal McLish got his 16th win in the lengthy opener while Bill McDonald, last of five Twink pitchers to work, took his second loss.

The Sacs won the opener on the strength of two home runs by Jones. One, with the bags packed, came in the fourth and helped drop Art Delduce to his 14th defeat and notch win number six for lefty Al Yaylian, Senator relief artist.

Don Egger's 10th inning home run gave the Portland Beavers a 2-1 edge over San Diego in the first game of their afternoon standoff. The blow carried Royce Lint to his 18th win of the year and cost Lloyd Dickey his fifth loss. The Padres won the finale 5-4 as Herm Reich vainly homered for Portland with a man on in the last inning.

Oakland and San Francisco split their twin bill with the Seals rallying for three runs to win the opener in the ninth inning, 7-6. The Oaks snagged the second, 6-2, behind Don Ferrarese's seven-inning three hitter.

Oakland held a 6-4 lead going into the last of the ninth in the first game. Then the Seals scored three runs against reliever George Bamberger. The two which tied the game and won it came on Bill McCawley's bad-hop double over first baseman Jim Marshall's head.

Portland — (U.P.) — Portland and San Diego meet tonight in the final game of their rain-hampered series with the Beavers needing a victory to stay out of sixth place.

Portland will pitch Jehosie Heard against San Diego's Theolic Smith tonight. The Beavers, in fifth place, elad San Diego by half a game, while they trail fourth-place San Francisco by the same margin.
