

Cutting their wedding cake are Mr. and Mrs. James Richard Welty, married in a fall ceremony September 6 at First Methodist church. Before the wedding the bride was Janet Opal Hise, daughter of Mr. Harold H. Hise, 532 North Grape street, and the late Mr. Hise, to James Richard Welty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne R. Welty, 237 Girard drive. The double-ring ceremony was performed at four o'clock in the afternoon at the First Methodist Church with the Rev. Hardwick W. Harshman officiating. About 200 guests attended.

Welty-Hise Ceremony Held At First Methodist Church

An early fall wedding Sunday, September 6, married Miss Janet Opal Hise, daughter of Mr. Harold H. Hise, 532 North Grape street, and the late Mr. Hise, to James Richard Welty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne R. Welty, 237 Girard drive. The double-ring ceremony was performed at four o'clock in the afternoon at the First Methodist Church with the Rev. Hardwick W. Harshman officiating. About 200 guests attended.

The church was decorated with baskets of large white chrysanthemums and pom-pom mums. The aisle baskets were of pom-pom mums and white satin ribbons. At either side of the altar were candelabras with tapers of white and baskets of mums.

Nuptial music was played by Mrs. Jerry Sherman at the organ. William Wilson sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Roy V. Hise, was attired in a gown fashioned of white nylon net over taffeta. The fitted bodice and the billowing double-tiered skirt were both trimmed with a leaf embroidery. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a halo headpiece of pleated nylon trimmed with seed pearls. She wore matching mitts and carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and tiny white roses centered with a white orchid.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Raoul Maddox, Eugene, wore a ballerina length frock in maize net over taffeta of the same color, styled to match that of the bride. She wore matching halo headpiece and mitts and carried a bouquet of dark bronze pom-pom mums.

The other attendants were Miss Renae Seger and Mrs. Robert Rentschler, Medford, and Miss Kathleen Paulson, Portland. They also wore matching gowns of green net over maize taffeta and green headpieces and mitts. Their bouquets were varying shades of yellow and bronze mums.

William O. Walker of Medford attended Mr. Welty as best man. Seating the guests were Larry Larson, Stockton, Calif., Steven McCabe, and Robert Rentschler. Diane Taylor, wearing a frock of maize net over taffeta, was flower girl, and ringbearer was Vance Welty, brother of the bridegroom. Candelights were John Linton and Jeffery Heathcorington.

The bride's mother chose a suit of pink and gray worn with a pink feather cloche and pink gloves with black accessories. Her corsage was of purple orchids. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a charcoal grey dress with light grey hat and dark accessories. Her flowers were purple orchids.

A reception in the church parlor followed the wedding with about 150 friends and relatives attending. Decorations were baskets of yellow mums and the table from which the cake was served was decorated with yellow carnations circling yellow tapers. Pouring was Mrs. Fred C. Stamm, and Mrs. Roy V. Hise, aunt of the bride. Mrs. William L. White, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Jack Bailey cut and served the cake. Mrs. Donald L. Harper, sister of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. Out-of-town guests were Brent Cameron, Oregon City, Jim Grimm, Roseburg, Milo Grubb, Ashland, and Dan Horstkotte, McCloud, Calif., all fraternity brothers of the groom.

The newlyweds will live at 1416 A street, Apt. 6, Corvallis, where the bridegroom is attending Oregon State college. Both were graduated from Medford High school and attended OSC where the bride is affiliated with Delta Gamma sorority. Mr. Welty is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon, social fraternity and numerous scholastic and professional honoraries including Tau Beta Pi, Pi Tau Sigma, Pi Mu Alpha and Scabbard and Blade.
