

Couple Married In August Rites; Now in Medford

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Biggs, married in August in Guthrie, Okla., have arrived in Medford and for the time being are with Mrs. Biggs' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Delmar B. Gillispie, route 1, Medford. The bride is the former Alverna Gillispie.

The bridegroom is awaiting orders to report for duty with the Army, and Mrs. Biggs expects to enroll at Southern Oregon college September 21, for her junior year.

The wedding took place August 20 in Guthrie First Baptist church, with the Rev. Lester Patterson reading the service.

For the ceremony the bride wore a street-length frock of navy blue marquisette over blue and white striped taffeta, with red and white accessories. Her corsage was of red rosebuds and she carried a white Bible.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Biggs attended the couple. Mrs. Biggs was attired in a navy blue nylon dress with red accessories and her corsage was of white carnations.

A reception followed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Biggs, the bridegroom's parents. Assisting were Mrs. Ralph Biggs, Mrs. Clarence Williams, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Helen Ford, cousin of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Alonzo Ford, aunt of the bridegroom.

From Portland

Mrs. Itha Johnson and her youngest son, Douglas, Portland, were guests at the home of Mrs. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heard during the Labor day week end. They also visited the Roy Howe and Cecil Heard families. Mrs. Howe is a sister and Cecil Heard a brother of Mrs. Johnson.

REDUCE THE HEALTH WAY

Less inches while you relax! Our scientific reducing method slims you... smooths away bulges... and assures you of a trim, lovely figure. Call for an appointment today!

Lillies Health and Slenderizing Salon
1176 1/2 Court St., Medford
For Appointment, Ph. 2-5305
Women Only

NOTHING WE CAN SAY ABOUT A DIAMOND RING that, wearing 'TRU-FIT' doesn't say BETTER!

Columbia "tru-fit" DIAMOND RINGS

HERE IS THE "tru-fit" SECRET—

CHECK THESE EXCLUSIVE "Tru-Fit" FEATURES:

- Prevents turning on your finger.
- Keeps your diamond upright at all times.
- Top quality, selected diamonds.
- Greatest security against loss!

No Carrying Charge
No Interest
Easy Credit Terms

Larry Schade
FINE DIAMONDS SINCE 1918

9 SOUTH CENTRAL

FLUHRER BLDG.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Biggs, married August 20 in Guthrie, Okla., are currently in Medford with Mrs. Biggs' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Delmar B. Gillispie, Route 1, Medford. The bride is the former Alverna Gillispie. Mr. Biggs is awaiting orders to report for duty with the Army, and Mrs. Biggs will re-enter Southern Oregon college for the fall term.

Many Medford Students Leave For Oregon, OSC, Willamette

Oregon colleges and universities are beginning fall term activities this week. Freshmen, as a rule, leave earlier than returning students because of special freshmen events and rushing for sororities and fraternities.

Freshman students leaving here this week end for Oregon State college included Miss Mary Ann Stansell who left this morning accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Don Stansell. Miss Stansell plans to major in secretarial science and her minor is home economics.

Miss Sharon Hogan left yesterday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Hogan. She plans to major in elementary education.

Miss Nancy McKinstry, who also plans an elementary education major, left today for OSC with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. McKinstry. Miss Carol Bates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bates, will enroll as a freshman in secretarial science.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Padgham have three sons going away to school. Dick will be a freshman at Oregon state and he and his brother Bill left yesterday. Bill is a junior there and is studying forest products while Dick will enroll in a general course for the present. The other son, Henry Padgham Jr., left Monday for University of California, Davis, Calif., to continue irrigation engineering. He is a senior.

Miss Sally Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Harris, is another freshman leaving for Oregon state and her sister, Miss Sue Harris, is returning to continue her schooling at the same college.

Miss Bonnie Graves, who plans to major in home economics at OSC, left yesterday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Graves.

Miss Loretta Kelley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Kelley, left Thursday for OSC where she will major in science. Miss Kelley, honor student and co-valedictorian of her graduating class last spring, will major in science.

Returning sophomores to Oregon State include Alex Hamilton and Bill Davis, who plan to leave Wednesday; Hal Vrooman and Wilson Moeller.

University of Oregon freshmen also leaving this week end include Rosalie Mole, daughter of Mrs. Enda Mole; Elizabeth Reinhart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Towne; Bob Christian, a pre-dental major, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Christian; Ed Bingham, son of Mrs. E. F. Bingham; Jack Moad Jr., Ned and Ted Landers, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Landers; Don Jacobs; Darrell Brittan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Granville Brittan; Blake Maddox, Art Ekerson, Dennis Davis, James Holloway and many more.

Miss Cella Clogston left yesterday for the university where she will enroll as a freshman in home economics and art. She made the trip north by motor with relatives. Miss Clogston will attend the university on a tuition scholarship awarded by the university. She is a daughter of Frank Clogston and makes her home with her grandmother, Mrs. Cecelia Clogston.

Jerry Lambo is another SOC freshman, while James Shinn is entering Lewis and Clark college, Portland. Frank McKeown is leaving for the University of Washington.

Marlene Kayser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kayser left Tuesday for Chico State college. She was graduated from Medford Senior High school in 1952 and for the past 14 months has been employed as a bookkeeper at First National bank.

Willamette university students also are leaving and include Paul Schaffer Jr., Keith Mirick, Margaret Huson, Nancy Newton, Marcia Houghton, Anne Denman, Barbara Cook, Renae Segar, Carla McKeen, Jeanene Findley, Lynn Stafford, Sally Cooney, and Laura Mae Huson.

Phil Sweet has left for Spokane, Wash., where he will enroll at Whitworth college for his sophomore year.

News from Portland states that Jacquelyn and Joanne Jolley will attend the University of Oregon this fall. The Jolley twins attended Medford Senior high school for two years before leaving to live at Portland with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Jolley.

Pledged

Miss Robene Starcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bren H. Starcher, 1870 Stage Road south, was pledged to Kappa Delta sorority at the close of rushing at Washington State college Friday. Miss Starcher's mother was a member of the same chapter when she attended WSC.

Miss Starcher is to enroll in liberal arts.

Narcotic Film To Be Shown Here Thursday

"The Terrible Truth," film which depicts "the shocking consequences of the use of narcotics" will be presented in Medford Thursday, September 17, through the sponsorship of Altrusa club here. The film will be shown at Medford Junior High school beginning at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Gertrude E. Salisbury, director of the Narcotic Educational Foundation of America, will show the film and will lecture. Mrs. Salisbury will also bring other films to be shown only to juvenile authorities, police officers, teachers and other adults.

It is pointed out that the use of narcotics by younger people has increased enormously in recent years, the danger calling for an all-out effort of citizens to meet the danger. Altrusa members urge parents, young people and the general public to see the film.

Final preparations for the showing of the film were made at a meeting of Altrusa club Thursday night. Mrs. Marjorie Butler, president, conducted the session and outlined the objectives of the year for the group. Mrs. Bertha Haskin, program chairman outlined for the year using the theme, "Four Dimensions."

Medford Student Attends Wedding

Miss Mary Anne Birdseye returned Wednesday from Colfax, Wash., where she attended the wedding of Miss Shirley Weitz to William Jayne in that city. Miss Birdseye was one of the candle lighters for the ceremony.

Miss Birdseye will leave the middle of this week for Washington State college where she will enroll for her sophomore year as a major in recreation studies. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Birdseye.

Mrs. Gertrude E. Salisbury, director of the Narcotic Educational Foundation of America and national chairman of the narcotic investigation and information committee of Women's Relief corps, will visit Medford Thursday, September 17. She will show the film, "The Terrible Truth" at Medford Junior High school at 8 p. m. under the sponsorship of Medford Altrusa club.

Auxiliary To Join In Camp Reception

Members of the auxiliary to Veterans of World War I will join veterans' groups in a reception Friday, September 18 at 8 p.m. at Camp White, which will honor new staff officers at the domiciliary. The auxiliary will meet at 8 p.m. previous to the reception for a brief business session.

A full membership is requested by Mrs. Hazel Kincaid, president.

A dance September 28 at the domiciliary theater will observe the first anniversary of the organization of the auxiliary. All women interested are invited and are asked to take cakes for refreshments.

Sunday, September 18, 1955

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—FIVE

Auxiliary to Hold Social Meeting
The auxiliary to Veterans of Foreign Wars will meet for a social evening Tuesday, September 15 at Veterans hall, 42 North Front street.

Special Program Planned for Guild
Members of Ruth Esther Wesleyan Service guild of First Methodist church plan a special program for their Tuesday, September 15 meeting to be held at 7:30 p.m. at the church rooms. Any gainfully employed woman interested in Christian service and fellowship is invited to attend.

Imagine soap-n-water

washing without soap!

A new, completely non-alkaline

way to "wash" your face

without the dry and irritating effects of soap-n-water. It's

Velvet Foam—the newest

Charles of the Ritz

beauty preparation. About

4 1/2 months supply.

1.50 the tube.

(plus tax)

Main and Bartlett Streets
PHONE 2-6428

you'll be a credit to the campus in these dresses by

Carlye

featured exclusively at Bureau's

Carlye dresses in sizes 7 to 15

Carlye scores high in velveteen A sweater top with standaway collar and wool knit fill-in over a skirt of the new broadcloth jersey, all worsted.

$39.95

A dress of Glen Hunt Plaid, exclusively Carlye's.

$39.95

Suave Suedes by DE LISO

debs...

A suave and widely varied collection of elegant little shoes authoritatively keyed in shape and decor, to the mode of elegance that provides fall and winter fashions.

$16.95

You saw Carlye dresses at your favorite movie theatre, see them now at Bureau's!

USE OUR CONVENIENT LAY-AWAY PLAN

MAIN and BARTLETT STREETS

PHONE 2-6428