Club to Play for Master Points; Tournament Set

Camp White — Play will be for master points when Camp White Veterans Bridge club holds the weekly session Friday, October 2, at camp.

The club is also making plans for an open pairs tournament to be held November 13 and 14 at camp.

Mrs. T. J. Fuson and Mrs. Al Gilbousen topped north-south players for the last club session, scoring 117 points. Other winners for that position were Mrs. C. E. Kunz and John Peterson, second, 114½; Mrs. Frank Baker and Virgil Temple, third, 107½; Howard Boyd and Jack Love, fourth, 105 points; Mrs. Fred Rehling and Tom Munde, fifth, 98½ points.

Mrs. Mary Sander and Bill Hickey held high score for east-west players, earning 105 points. Mrs. George B. Dean and Mrs. Alice Swanson were in second place with 100½ points and third went to Mrs. H. E. Schoenberg and Mrs. L. S. Johnson for 99½ points. Mr. Fuson and G. B. Kirk were fourth with 89½ points, and Dr. and Mrs. C. K. Todd fifth with 89.

Farewell Party Honors Carltons; Leave for North

Trail — Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carlton and daughter, Jacque, Trail, left September 25 for Three Hills, Alberta, Canada, where they will attend Bible school.

The family was honored at a farewell party before their departure, the event having been given September 21 with 46 friends attending. The Carltons were presented many gifts, and refreshments were served.

Clubhouse Scene Of Farewell Party

Robert Rickman, who is to report for Army service in the near future, was honored at a farewell party last Friday evening. The party was given by a group of employees of Pacific Telephone company, where Mr. Rickman works, at the Community clubhouse in Phoenix.

Dance and cards provided diversion, and refreshments were served. The honored guest was presented a farewell gift.

Mr. Rickman has been on the staff of the telephone company for six years. He and Mrs. Rickman make their home at 1150 Chestnut street.

Colombian Nurse Aided by Altrusa; Project Reviewed

Mrs. Marjorie Butler, president of Medford Altrusa club, announced at the last meeting at the home of Mrs. Enid Rankin that a nurse from Colombia, South America, has been awarded a grants-in-aid from the fund of Altrusa International and tenth district. It is for advanced study at the University of Washington. This is one of the projects in which the Medford club participates, Mrs. Butler pointed out.

Of much interest was the report, given by Miss Lotus Eaton, chairman, on the narcotic film which was recently presented by Mrs. Gertrude Salisbury of the Narcotic Educational Foundation of America. The film was well received by the many parents and young people in attendance and a donation was made for this work by gifts from those in the audience and the club.

Mrs. Kay Crowell spoke on the child guidance clinic and the detention home for Jackson county, outlining the needs. Mrs. Bertha Haskins reviewed the book "Wake up or Blow Up" by Frank Laubach, particularly stressing the point, "let's try Christianity."

Year books were presented to the members, the theme being "Service in 4 Dimensions," a program being directed toward a "better understanding of the needs and problems of today and methods of their solution which will add fullness to the quality of living for tomorrow."

Hostesses for the meeting were Mesdames Virginia Sherwood and Edith Baker.

The next meeting October 8, will be in charge of the international relations committee, with Mrs. Maude Coddling as chairman.

Department Store In Insurance Business

Chicago — (U.P.) — A department store today opened a counter where a girl can insure her legs, or any other part of her anatomy.

In fact, the new department at Carson, Pirie Scott & Co. will sell just about any type of insurance, in any amount, on any item of risk.

A home owner can stop at the counter on his lunch hour and insure his home against fire, theft, wind damage and all other possibilities.

The counter is operated under a long term lease by Childs and Wood, general insurance agents, who thought they could expand their business by making their services more easily available to the public.

ACTING POSTMASTER Washington — (U.P.) — Mrs. Bernice L. Crain has been named acting postmaster at Paulina, Ore., on recommendation of Rep. Sam Coon, it was learned today.

Members of Faculty Introduced at Session Of Oak Grove Group

Oak Grove — Bruce Metzger, principal of Oak Grove school, introduced new members of the faculty at a meeting of Oak Grove Parent-Teacher association held Sept. 21. The meeting followed a dinner.

New Teachers are Mrs. Fred Connors, who teaches the fifth grade and Max Killingsworth, who will act as "floating" teacher.

Mr. Metzger also spoke on modern methods of teaching arithmetic. The association presented the school with new draperies for the cafeteria.

During the session children were entertained with movies.

Jackson PTA Unit Opens New Year; Staff Presented

A large group of parents and other interested persons attended the first meeting of Jackson Parent-Teacher association for the new school year held in the school auditorium last Friday afternoon.

After a brief business meeting, H. W. Gustin, principal, presented a program designed to acquaint the parents with the teachers, as well as with the various rules, regulations and opportunities afforded by the school.

Teachers taking part in the discussion were Mrs. Muriel Harvey, Paul Gandt, Robert Baccus, Duane Mitchell, Mrs. Precia Medley, Miss Eunice Gray, Mrs. Della Weber, Mrs. Ruth Hawkins and Miss Kay Sheldon. Miss Olive Curry school nurse and Mr. Gustin also spoke.

Duane Mitchell, teacher of the fifth grade at Jackson school, sang several musical selections.

Mr. Gustin introduced the teachers new at Jackson school this year. Those presented were Mrs. Helen Gandt, first grade teacher; Mrs. Esther Keen, third grade teacher; Mrs. Angela Thompson, and Mrs. Shirley Hercher, fourth grade teachers, and Mrs. Letha Backes, fifth and sixth grade teacher.

Refreshments were served in the cafeteria by executive board members of the unit following the program. The tables were attractively decorated with fall flowers.

The Grange

Shady Cove Grange Shady Cove Grange members enjoyed a potluck supper September 23. Those having had birthdays during the quarter sat at a specially decorated table. A large birthday cake baked by Mrs. Arthur Engle was served to all.

The regular meeting was called to order at 8:30 p.m. by Master Phil Motschenbacher and third and fourth degrees were conferred on Noreen Conway. Mr. and Mrs. Reed McKay became members by demit.

Anna Beryl Keen read an article on "correcting stage fright."

A standing vote of thanks was given Master Motschenbacher and Steward Barney Lewis for the new stations which they had made and were in use for the first time.

Henry Rogers, our "one-man band" played several selections.

September 26, Shady Cove Grange put on the annual "Booster Night" program, which had been arranged by Lecturer Edgar Vanderlip, assisted by Anna Beryl Keen and Betty Dusenberry. Following the program refreshments were served in the school cafeteria to about 90 people.

Next Grange meeting will be on October 14 at 8:30 p.m.

BIG TUMMY ACNE

Opelika, Ala. — (U.P.) — Doctors removed two pounds of broken glass, old razor blades and carpet tacks from the stomach of Robert E. Reed when he complained of a tummy ache.

Reed, "The Man with the Iron Stomach," in a carnival, said he will look for a new job when he gets out of the hospital.
