

Miss Chapman, Robert Bates Wed in Talent

Talent — Miss Joyce Lee Chapman and Robert Dean Bates were married October 7 in rites at the Talent Methodist church and after a brief trip to Brookings on the coast, they left for Spokane, Wash. He is stationed there with the Air Force.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Ione Chapman, Talent, and Arnold Chapman, Riley, Kans. Mr. and Mrs. Loyal M. Bates, Talent, are parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. Alice Mae Woolley, pastor of the church, read the double-ring ceremony. About 100 guests attended the ceremony at the reception held later at the church annex.

Mrs. Delores Sanders, Grants Pass, a sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Cathy Sanders, also of Grants Pass, a niece, was flower girl.

Bob Hunter was ring bearer. L. W. Bates, a brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Kenny Reynolds and Byron Dixon.

Alvin Chapman, an uncle of the bride, gave her in marriage. For her wedding the bride wore a brown suit trimmed with white and her accessories were brown. She wore a corsage of pink carnations.

The flower girl's dress was of blue nylon organza and she wore a band of blue carnations in her hair.

The church was decorated with baskets of mixed flowers. Mrs. Genevieve Holdridge sang accompanied by Mrs. Jack Suksdorf.

The bride attended Talent schools where she was a senior and the bridegroom also attended Talent schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dean Bates are shown cutting their wedding cake at the reception which followed their wedding October 7 in Talent Methodist church. The bride is the former Miss Joyce Lee Chapman of Talent.

Rector and Wife Entertain At Annual Open House Sunday

An event of last Sunday, October 17, was the annual "at home" of the Rev. and Mrs. George R. V. Bolster. The Rev. Mr. Bolster, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church, and Mrs. Bolster invited members and friends of the church to their home on North Oakdale avenue between three and five-thirty o'clock.

An arrangement of flame-colored dahlias and five candles centered the refreshment table. The decorations included gifts of flowers from Mrs. T. E. Whiteford, Mrs. Ward V. Hammond, Mrs. Fred J. Carr and the Rev. and Mrs. Robert L. Greene.

Pouring and assisting Mrs. Bolster were women who are officials of the church, and wives of church officials. These were Miss Anna Livingston and Mrs. John C. Mann, sister and wife of two late wardens emeritus of St. Mark's church; Mrs. Hugh H. Coleman and Mrs. Charles W. Crary, wives of the present wardens; Mrs. William Isaacs of St. Mark's auxiliary guild; Mrs. John G. Crawford, St. Mark's Evening guild; Mrs. Bayard Getchell of the Altar guild; Mrs. Paul Selby, junior church school; Mrs. Stanley E. Phillips, counselor for religious education in the church; and Miss Olive Curry, St. Mark's choir.

Assistant hostesses were Mrs. Fred J. Carr, wife of the church treasurer; Mrs. J. A. McDougall, acolyte mother; Mrs. C. Elwood Hedberg, Mrs. Jerome McDougall and Mrs. Colburn H. Barrell, wives of three of the church's lay readers.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Greene and their three children were special guests for the party. The Rev. Mr. Greene is vicar of St. Martin's Episcopal church, Shady Cove, and Church of the Good Shepherd, Prospect.

Parents and teachers of children in the two sixth grades of Howard school met in the cafeteria Tuesday evening. Coffee and Halloween cakes were served by Mrs. Jerome Maehren, Mrs. William Charley, Mrs. Lee Stever and Mrs. N. J. Chausse. Following refreshments the groups went to the respective rooms where they discussed the year's work and the objectives of the sixth grade.
