Grange

Phoenix Grange
About 75 members, their families and friends attended the covered-dish dinner and social evening October 26 at the Phoenix Grange hall.

Lecturer Mrs. Lester Carr planned the annual Booster Night program which included a seating drill of the officers and presentation of the flag.

Guest speaker was state officer, Roscoe Roberts, who told of the many accomplishments of the Grange since it was organized in 1887. Also the advantages of being a Granger and the insurance field that covered every need.

Recreational chairman Mrs. A. O. Floyd led in mixer games and Mrs. Bert Standcliffe was commentator for a masquerade show of personalities.

Children contributing to the entertainment were Penny Simmonds with a tap dance and Cheryl and Karen Bolz with a song.

During a short business session Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jackson were obligated in the third and fourth degrees by State Steward Roscoe Roberts.

Master Dee Hendrickson reminded members that election of officers for next year will be held November 9 and urged a good attendance. He also announced there will be initiation in the fifth degree by Pomona officers Saturday, November 6, at Central Point Grange hall at 8 p. m.

Displayed were jellies made by Olin Poe, Mervin Hixson, Harold Densmore, Dee Hendrickson and Roy Le Vander who are participating in the state canning contest for men.

Serving committee for the evening included Mr. and Mrs. Mark Norton, Mrs. Harold White and Mrs. Walter Grochokki. Halloween theme was used for decorating the tables.

Home Economics club met October 20 at the Grange hall with a covered dish luncheon. Guests of the club for lunch were Mervin Hixson, Harry Reams, Mrs. Alice Pearson, mother of Mrs. Grochokki, and Miss Streed who later presented a style showing of ready-to-wear clothing.
