

Show and Dinner Set This Month By Lady Lions

Further plans for the holiday fashion show and dinner which Crater Lions' auxiliary will sponsor November 16 were made at a meeting of the group last Wednesday. The show and dinner will be given in the Pioneer room of the Jackson hotel, with Mann's store cooperating. Proceeds will go to the project carried on by Oregon Lady Lions in connection with the state school for the blind, and local charity work.

Christmas gifts will be the theme of the show, and both adults and children will model.

Mrs. Jack Ingram, general chairman for the benefit event, displayed prizes which have been donated for the dinner and show.

Reservations for the show may be made by calling Mrs. Lloyd Evans, 2-9881, and the deadline is November 14.

Hostesses for last week's meeting were Mrs. Dan Dwyer, Mrs. Clayton George and Mrs. Wendell Vaughn.

18th Anniversary Is Observed by Medford Zontians

The annual anniversary dinner of Medford Zonta club was held Thursday night at the home of the president, Mrs. Elsie Butler, Barneburg road. This marked the eighteenth year since the Medford club received its charter and also the thirty-fifth anniversary for Zonta International. Guests at the dinner were Mrs. Jean Fish, Mrs. Eva Marsh and Mrs. Effie Kurtz.

Members vote to again dress dolls for the Christmas party, the dolls to be distributed to local children who would not otherwise receive gifts. Final plans for the rummage sale to be held Nov. 19 and 20 were made. The hostess was assisted by members of the board; Mrs. Ethel Tennant, Mrs. Sammie Harris, Miss Jo Kirtley, Mrs. Aileen Maddox and Miss Eula Wintermote.

To Meet

Mistletoe club members will meet for a dessert luncheon, Wednesday, November 10, at 12:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Robert Gilmore, Mrs. Randy Huggahl and Mrs. Arthur Johnson are the committee members.

Ernest Gruening, former governor of Alaska and an editor and author of note, and Mrs. Gruening were guests in Medford last weekend. Their hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Tony Schwamm, 6 South Groveland avenue, and shown (left to right) are Mrs. Schwamm, Mr. Gruening, Mrs. Gruening and Mr. Schwamm. The Schwamms gave a small dinner for the Gruenings, who were en route from Alaska to Washington, D.C. by motor. (Brainerd photo)

Ceremony Weds Miss Betty Vance, Buckley Morgan

Miss Betty Vance became the bride of Buckley W. Morgan during an afternoon ceremony October 12. The Rev. F. Wildon Colbaugh performed the rites at 4 o'clock.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Juanita Reigel, route 1, box 347, and W. R. Vance, 3014 Lone Pine road.

The bridegroom is a private first class in the Marine corps and is the son of Mrs. Clara Fryrear, 75 Dewey street, Ashland, and A. W. Morgan, Yakima, Wash.

John R. Alexandro and Miss Anna Marie Sufarly were the attendants.

The bridegroom has left for El Toro, Calif., where he is stationed. Mrs. Morgan will join him there later.

Health Unit

Gold Hill—Gold Hill Health unit will meet Tuesday, November 9, at the home of Mrs. Norman Gail, Highway 99 North. Mrs. Harry Quinn and Mrs. Edward Knapp will be co-hostess for this meeting.

Miss Bertha Allen Honored at Party

Mrs. Hugh Huntley, 2179 Crater Lake avenue, entertained November 3 honoring Miss Bertha Allen, in observance of her birthday. The event was a surprise to the guest of honor.

Guests included Roger Poutre, Monte Smith, Dale Copley, Don Copely, and the Misses Ruth Hunter, Betty Arnold, and Gayle Sweeney.

Autumn colors were used for decorations and games were played.

Miss Allen was presented gifts and refreshments were served by Mrs. Huntley and Mrs. Ruth Hunter, cohostess. Miss Allen makes her home with Mrs. Ruth Hunter, an aunt.

Two Women Give Bridge Luncheons

Mrs. John C. Mann and Mrs. Burdette Dodge were hostesses for a luncheon and bridge party yesterday afternoon. The event was at the former's home on Hillcrest road.

Twenty-two guests attended. The party was the second such event given by the two women, the first having been held the previous Saturday.

Luncheon Meeting Planned by Women

Mrs. J. A. Cunningham, 119 Highland drive, will entertain Chapter AA members of the PEO, at a 12:30 p. m., luncheon Wednesday, November 10. Mrs. R. D. Dames and Mrs. Donald B. Whalin will assist the hostess. A business meeting and social hour will be held after the luncheon.

Organ Concert Set for Monday At Church Here

The public is invited to an organ concert to be presented by Ralph Stitts of San Francisco at the Medford Christian Science avenue, Monday, November 8, at 7 p. m.

The concert is being sponsored without charge to the public by the J. H. Lusk Piano company in cooperation with the organ division of the Baldwin Piano company.

Mr. Stitts is said to be one of the finest young organists on the west coast. He also is recognized for his playing of representative music from all faiths as well as secular selections by the masters of organ literature.

The concert is planned as an informal event and anyone desiring a special selection played may request the selection. After the program refreshments will be served in the social room of the First Methodist church where Mr. Stitts will demonstrate techniques on the Baldwin spinet organ.

Medford Couple Hosts For Party at Home

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Davis were hosts for a party at their home, 247 Winema way, October 30.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Pawlowski, Vicki Tweedy, Norman Pawlowski, Lois Kelly, Mrs. C. A. Swearingen, Marie and Allen Swearingen, Ruth Gillespie, Mrs. Martha Wilson, Mrs. Della Davis, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Chausse, Arlene and Delbert Chausse, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Ashton and David, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert, Mr. and Mrs. Ware and Richard, DeLores, Deanna and Delia Ross, Don Grissom, Marilyn Davis, Lyle Doty, Mr. and Mrs. Kohler and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lowe and Barbara and Sharon Davis.

Group Initiates Women Students

Ashland — Five women students at Southern Oregon college have been initiated into Sigma Epsilon Pi, women's scholastic honorary.

Those initiated were Miss Gaynell Krambeal, Ashland; Miss Janice Davis, Ashland; Miss Opal Dean, Ashland; Miss Mary Ellen Holbrook, Roseburg; and Miss Jean Jeldness, Medford. Members of the honorary are required to have a "B" or better scholastic record, President Lois Brooks said.

In charge of the candlelight ceremony were Miss Joan Pence, Medford, and Miss Ann Rentchler, Medford. Mrs. Mabel Winston, SOC registrar, spoke to the group.

Fall Term Play Cast in Ashland

Ashland — Casting was underway this week at Southern Oregon college for the fall term play, "The Member of the Wedding," under the director Miss Mildred Peck.

The cast, Miss Peck said, calls for six men and seven women. The play, written by Carson McCullers, won the 1950 Critics' Circle award as the best play of the year.

Medical Auxiliary Hears Speakers Explain Program

A luncheon honoring Mrs. Hal Davis, Portland, president of the Oregon Medical auxiliary, and the president-elect, Mrs. Leonard Jacobsen, Eugene, was held at Rogue Valley Country club Tuesday. Twenty-five members of the Jackson County Medical auxiliary attended.

Mrs. L. D. Inskeep was chairman of luncheon arrangements, man of luncheon arrangements, and was assisted by Mrs. Fred T. Burich.

Mrs. Ralph Thompson, chairman pro-tem, introduced Mrs. Davis who spoke on the important role members of the auxiliary have as ambassadors of good will and the opportunity of each to bring health education materials to the public. A nationwide effort is made to get wider circulation of the magazine, "Today's Health," published by the American Medical Association, she said.

National stress is placed on participation in local civil defense programs and especially the move for offering nurse's scholarships. She concluded with the two slogans of the year for the national auxiliary—"Leadership in community health" and "A family doctor for every doctor's family."

Mrs. Jacobsen, president-elect, is also state chairman of the nurse recruitment program and has been active for several years. A nurse herself, she radiates enthusiasm for the program. Mrs. Jacobsen mentioned the work being done throughout the nation and stressed the fact that Nurses' clubs as they are functioning in Michigan. In Oregon some groups are carrying on an education program for boys and girls of high school age who are interested in all phases of the medical field, nursing, X-ray and medical technicians' work, therapy, etc. Klamath Falls has a very active group, she said.

At present 14 scholarships are available to nurses in Oregon and the local group was pleased to be told it is one of only two auxiliaries in the state promoting scholarships of $200. Two films are available to any groups interested. It was announced they are "The Girl with the Lamp" in technicolor and sound and "When You Choose Nursing." These may be obtained by contacting any of the local auxiliary officers who will arrange for their showing. More of the specific plans of the local committee for the nurses scholarship will be announced at a later date.

There will be no November evening meeting for the local auxiliary, it was said.

Reception Planned At Griffin Creek

Griffin Creek — A reception for teachers of the Griffin Creek school is planned for Monday, November 8, from 7:30 to 8:30 p. m., at the school. The purpose of the reception is to provide an opportunity for parents of students at the school to meet and confer with their children's teachers when the children are not present.

Refreshments will be served at 8:30 p. m., at the school cafeteria followed by a social hour and musical program.

Sorority Names College Student

As 1954 Lynne Terry Honor Girl

Miss Charolotte Curtis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Curtis, 712 Oak street, has been selected by members of the local chapter of Nu Phi Mu sorority to be the Nu Phi Mu Lynne Terry honor girl for 1954.

Miss Curtis, a native of Canon City, Colo., attended grade school in Elko, Nev., and high school in Medford. She was graduated from Medford Senior High school in 1954 and was a commercial student and a member of the Future Business Leaders of America. At graduation she received a scholarship from the National Secretaries association as an outstanding commercial student. She now is attending Southern Oregon college where she is a secretarial science major.

Miss Curtis is a member of the Zion Evangelistic Lutheran church.

Her hobbies include stamp collecting, painting and music.

This is the third year a Lynne Terry honor girl has been selected by the sorority members. Miss Patricia Vail, 28 Geneva street, was the honor girl for 1952. She is now the president of the local chapter. Mrs. David Segur, the former Miss Marie Laird, was the 1953 honor girl.

A formal Founders' day banquet for the sorority members and guests was held at Mon Desir dining inn October 18.

A formal ceremony was conducted during the evening by the chapter advisor, Mrs. Mel Goguey, when three young women were pledged to the group. The pledges are Miss Betty Hawkins, Mrs. Tomie McKinney and Miss Curtis.

Miss Marilyn Myhre, Miss Joan Pence, and Mrs. Jack Bailey received their sorority pins in a ceremony conducted by Mrs. Goguey. Miss Carole Pence who was not at the meeting also will receive a pin.

Assisting Mrs. Goguey with the ceremonies were Miss Jacqueline Walker and Miss Patricia Vail.

The ceremonies were conducted by candlelight before a table decorated in silver and blue and centered with a bouquet of pink rosebuds, the sorority flower.

Nile to Observe Founder's Day

Medford members of Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile, have been requested to provide the hot dishes for a covered dish luncheon on Saturday, November 13, at Medford Masonic temple, 12:30 p. m. Founder's day will be observed at the luncheon and during the stated meeting which will follow at 2 o'clock.

Myrtle Creek Nile club is in charge of arrangements with Mrs. Geraldine O'Brien as chairman. Mrs. Glenn L. Linn, Medford, will assist.

Local members who plan to attend are asked to notify Mrs. Z. W. Laurine, 3-2930, before noon Wednesday, November 10.

Elected

Leon McDougall, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McDougall, 315 Perrydale avenue, has been named president of the sophomore class at Southern Oregon college. The young man, a graduate of Medford Senior High school, is a member of Sigma Alpha Sigma and Alpha Phi Omega fraternities at the college.

Miss Charolotte Curtis, student at Southern Oregon college and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Curtis, 712 Oak street, has been named 1954 Lynne Terry Honor Girl by Medford chapter of Nu Phi Mu sorority.

Rosebud Council Sets Installation

Installation of officers will be held during a meeting of the Talisman Rosebud council of the Pythian Sunshine Girls Thursday, November 11, at 7 p. m., in the Pythian building.

Mrs. LeRoy Cline will be installing officer assisted by Mrs. Harry Bryant, royal prelate; Mrs. Mildred Tolle, royal guide; and Mrs. Carl Fichtner, grand mystic one.

Refreshments will be served and Knights and Pythian Sisters lodge members and honorary mothers are invited.

At a previous meeting of the council applications for Delores White, Joyce Youngberg, Kathleen Smith and Diane Taylor were accepted and with the exception of Delores White, all were initiated during the meeting. Mrs. Cline was elected installing officer for the council.

Couple to Mark 50th Anniversary

Jacksonville — Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Wilson, 406 South Oregon street, Jacksonville, will observe their 50th wedding anniversary, Sunday, November 14, at an open house for friends and relatives between the hours of 1 to 5 p. m., at their home. Friends of the couple are invited to call.

The couple was married November 16, 1904, at the old Methodist church parsonage which still stands on 504 North Riverside avenue in Medford.

They lived for a time in a log cabin on the old Stewart place on the Upper Rogue. All but two years they have lived in the Rogue valley and they have been in Jacksonville for the past 24 years.

They have two daughters, Mrs. Joe McKnight, 890 Lozier lane, and Mrs. Hubert DeHaas, Valdez, Alaska, who is now visiting her parents. The Wilsons also have three grandsons and one great grandson.

Roberts Return

Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts have returned to their home on Crown avenue after spending the past two weeks in Carmel and San Francisco, Calif.

LOOK Lovely FOR THE HOLIDAY

Look Lovely With a New HAIR STYLE and Permanent from

MEDFORD BEAUTY SCHOOL

30 Students To Serve You

A Permanent for Any Purse. A Hair Style for Any Occasion.

FOR APPOINTMENT Phone 2-6536

For Your Wedding INVITATIONS ANNOUNCEMENTS

Swem's BOOK & GIFT SHOP

217 EAST MAIN MEDFORD, OREGON

Lovely Centerpieces For Rent

life stride
the young point of view in shoes

BEAUTY IN GENUINE BABY LIZARD

Finely marked lizard skins in fall's newest pumps. Choose your favorite heel, your favorite style... Perfect with tweeds and wools. Luxury fashion at a welcome price.

$11.95

Bags to match $10.95 plus tax

Featured in GLAMOUR

Buster Brown
SHOE STORE

15 So. Central

Fluhrer Bldg.

COMPLETE YOUR Sterling for Thanksgiving

Your Thanksgiving table deserves the best. Let us show you how easy it is to add to your Towle collection. We'll quote prices and terms, and our expert staff will gladly help and advise.

You'll be delighted at the modest prices: six-piece place settings from $29.75, teaspoons from $3.70, serving pieces from $4.00.

Convenient Terms If Desired

Lawrence's
YOUR SILVER STORE

Specializing in Fine Diamonds and Watches, Too!

130 EAST MAIN EST. 1908

Adrienne's 29th Anniversary Special

ON... easy-going Coats

Raincoats

Exciting for Rain or Shine

Corduroy Fleece Faille

SAVE! $25.00

TRENCH COATS

All wonderfully wearable for year 'round comfort.

All Milium lined for warmth without weight.

Adrienne's

214 East Main Phone 2-7169