President of Oregon UN Unit Booked Here; Council Elects

Dr. Karl M. Capper-Johnson, president of the Oregon United Nations' association, will speak in Medford Thursday, November 11, under the sponsorship of Medford Council of Church Women and the YMCA. The talk is set for 7:30 p.m. at the Y, and the public is invited to attend.

Dr. Johnson, on the faculty of Lewis and Clark college in Portland, will discuss how the average citizen can support the United Nations. A question period will follow.

Mrs. Claude Sparks was elected president of the women's council during the annual World Community day celebration and annual business meeting of the council Thursday afternoon at Zion Lutheran church.

She succeeds Mrs. Harlan P. Bosworth Jr., who has served as president of the council for the past two terms.

Education Week To Be Observed

National Education Week will be the theme of the November meeting of Lincoln School Parent-Teacher association to be held Wednesday, November 10, at 8 p.m.

The program of the evening will include visitation of the various rooms, with each parent being urged to visit all the rooms, not just those of their own children. During the business meeting a treasurer will be elected to replace Mrs. James Duncan who has moved. A regular feature of Lincoln PTA is the question and answer period at each session.

Refreshments will be served by parents of children in the fourth grade.

Women's Golf Association Dinner Ends Year; New Officers Elected

Women's Golf association of Rogue Valley Country club climaxed its golfing year with a banquet held at the club Thursday, November 4. Nearly 70 members and guests attended the cocktail hour and dinner. A brief business meeting, with Mrs. Richard Finch, outgoing general chairman presiding, was held and officers for the coming year were elected and installed by receiving their respective books from the retiring officers.

New officers are Mrs. Warren G. Lesseg, general chairman; Mrs. Ray Frisbie, vice-chairman; Mrs. H. D. McClure, secretary; Mrs. Dick Knight, treasurer; Mrs. Frank Tamney, tournament chairman and Mrs. W. W. Davies, Willamette Valley-Southern Oregon representative.

A skit portraying several women golfers in play on the course proved to be most entertaining. Authors of this production were Mrs. Finch and Mrs. Tamney. Taking part were Mrs. Robert Temple, Mrs. L. C. Burt, Mrs. Fred Conrad and Mrs. Tamney. Mrs. Ray Larson presented a scrap book and 12 handmade aprons to the group to be used by those serving at the annual open house held by the women's organization early in January.

Trophies and prizes were awarded to the winners of tournaments held the latter part of the year. Miss Sue DeVoe was the women's club champion with Mrs. W. W. Davies as runner-up. First flight winner was Mrs. Finch, with Mrs. William Schei as runner-up; second flight was won by Mrs. Belle Schenck, with Mrs. Thomas Culbertson Jr., as runner-up; third flight winner was Mrs. Paul Walker with Mrs. Tamney as runner-up; fourth flight was won by Mrs. Frisbie with Mrs. H. L. Bush as runner-up; fifth flight winner was Mrs. McClure with Mrs. Ward Samuelson as runner-up.

Mrs. William J. Miller won the fall handicap trophy, with Mrs. C. B. Collins as runner-up. First flight winner, Mrs. Roger Clark, runner-up Mrs. William Schei; second flight winner, Mrs. Schenck, Mrs. Finch runner-up.

Other members of the company are Walter Murphy, Charles Schneider, Helen Bierman and Karla Olsen.

Mr. Riley, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Riley, formerly lived in Medford with his family. The Rileys left here about 15 years ago while young Riley was attending Washington school and since then have lived in Sacramento.

The Riley family lived in the valley many years, and Mr. Riley's mother is the former Winona McKinnis. His uncle is Charles McKinnis, 502 Pearl street.

The troop gave a performance of the Irish folk play, "The Giant of Knockmany" to a packed house. Friday the players appeared in Roseburg.

Their appearance here was under the sponsorship of American Association of University Women.

The research chairman for the unit, Mrs. Fred West, gave a report on the findings of the Oregon Home Extension Council meeting June 2. Under consideration by this Council are clothing problems of girls in the 7-14 year age group; baby care at the home management houses; dental care in relation to climate and locality; the cooking of turkey and salmon; vitamin content, including work on ascorbic acid, thiamine, and riboflavin; effect on finished products baked from soft, as compared to, hard wheat flour; fabrics made from Oregon flax on Oregon looms.

Mrs. Rex Davis and Mrs. George Sample were appointed to represent the unit, when necessary, at the Jackson County Council for youth and children.

After lunch, the remaining time was spent on the days' project, "Embossing Thin Metals," with Mrs. Mike Loftus and Mrs. Harry Davis as leaders.

Guests for the days' activities were Mrs. Clifton Childers, Mrs. Chester Jones, Mrs. Clarence Williams and daughter, Janeen, Mrs. George Redhead, Mrs. Otis Buck, and Mrs. Edith Ritchey, a former resident of the area visiting from Gardner, Mont.

The unit's chairman for the 1953-54 season, Mrs. Gail Buffington, was presented a pin for her work last year. The presentation was made by Mrs. Loren Cooper.
