

DAV Auxiliary District Session To Be Held Today

During a business meeting November 9 in DAV hall, the Disabled American Veterans Auxiliary to Jackson county unit 8, announced three events to take place next week. A district meeting will be held today at 10 a.m., at the Veterans Hall, Grants Pass. Dinner will be served at noon and those attending are requested to take a covered dish.

The sewing club will meet with Mrs. Lynn Elliott, 513 Oregon Terrace, Thursday, November 18, at 11 a.m., with a potluck dinner served at noon. The third event will be a meeting of the junior auxiliary Saturday, November 20, at 2 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Harvey Cassman, Seventh and Cherry streets, Central Point. The girls are to meet at the Sun Ray Venetian Blind company, 1617 North Riverside avenue, and Mrs. Clifton Heeter will take them to Mrs. Cassman's home. Each junior is to take a sack lunch.

Mrs. William Badurina was initiated by the commander, Mrs. Ivan Hatfield. Mrs. Ray Ahart was advanced from junior vice-commander to senior vice-commander and Mrs. Everett Grissom was elected to fill the office of junior vice-commander.

Mrs. Ed Neff reported on the rummage sale held during the day. Mrs. Neff also said she attended the VAVS meeting and they are now planning the Christmas party for Camp White. The auxiliary will help with this party.

Mrs. Elliott and Mrs. John Crocker went to Camp White October 27 to help entertain some of the veterans. Auxiliary members help at Camp White the fourth Wednesday of every month as part of their hospital program. The chapter will meet November 23, at Camp White and auxiliary members are to furnish and help serve pies. The committee will be Mrs. Effie Reynolds, Mrs. Neff, and Mrs. Heeter.

Year's Work Reviewed By Past Noble Grands; Plan Christmas Party

Reports of the year's work were made at a meeting of Olive Rebekah Past Noble Grands club when they met Thursday at the Girls Community club, and a gift of money was given for the Odd Fellows lodge.

Mrs. A. H. Gregory, president, presided for the business meeting. A Thanksgiving day program was conducted.

During the year various types of entertainments have been sponsored to raise money to give toward a new stove for the IOOF hall kitchen. Some of the members gave breakfasts while others entertained at card or "come as you are" parties and other means.

The November committee was Mrs. E. W. Pease, chairman of refreshments, and Mesdames Taylor, Kight and Stover. Entertainment was furnished by Mrs. Orpha Wendell.

An annual Christmas party and turkey dinner are planned at the IOOF hall. The program is being prepared by Mrs. W. H. Dyer, and Mrs. Carl Pearson is dinner chairman with Mrs. E. D. Scripser, Mrs. Floyd Murray, Mrs. James Fleming and Mrs. A. H. Gregory assisting.

BPWC to Hear Dr. Paul Olsen

Dr. Paul Olsen, Shady Cove, will speak for the November business meeting of Medford Business and Professional Women's club to be held at Tally Ho Thursday, November 18, at 6:15 p.m. The membership committee is in charge of the program.

Dr. Olsen, owner of the "Enchanted Grotto" and a member of Roxy Ann Gem and Mineral club, will speak to the group.

Initiation of new members will take place with the emblem committee conducting the initiation ceremony.

Returned Traveler Speaks for Club; Luncheon Planned

Mrs. Iva Murray who visited the British Isles last summer, spoke informally at a social meeting of Altrusa club held Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Maizie Daily.

Introduced by Mrs. Edith Baker, Altrusa's international relations chairman, Mrs. Murray praised the friendliness and courtesy of the people she met in England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales, and she was enthusiastic over the beautiful and well cared for gardens which seemed to thrive in the constant rain better than the tourists.

Instead of the usual trophies of wool and china, Mrs. Murray showed the group bits of heather and rock, a fragrant chunk of peat from Ireland, a sort of sea moss food used to thicken soup, and a feather shed by one of the black ravens that strut about the execution corner in the court yard within the Tower of London.

In the meeting following, Mrs. Bertha Haskins, president, appointed a project committee. Mrs. Enid Rankin is chairman and she will be assisted by Mrs. Bereth Hopkin, Mrs. Judy Stoll, Mrs. Kay Crowell, Miss Grace Smith, Mrs. Maude Coddling, Mrs. Virginia Sherwood and Miss Lotus Eaton.

Miss Eaton, program chairman, presented year books just completed and announced an informal luncheon to be held at the Elks club, Saturday noon, November 27, during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mrs. Maizie Daily and Mrs. Adrienne Dippel were hostesses for the evening and served refreshments.

Gardeners Hear Dr. Higdon Talk On 'Good Earth'

Dr. John Higdon of the Southern Oregon Experiment station was main speaker for Medford Garden club Thursday. His topic was "Good Earth" and he spoke on soil structure and effects of moisture, natural rainfall and irrigation. He compared Eastern coast soil with younger western soil.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. E. H. DeGamma, Mrs. Chris Wolff, Mrs. Mabel Quackenbush, Mrs. Mabel Penland and Mrs. Thomas W. Carter.

Prizes were won by Mrs. C. L. Goff and Mrs. H. J. Ticknor. Mrs. O. H. Tice and her committee were in charge of the tea and social hour.

Bethel to Meet

Medford Bethel of Job's Daughters will meet Wednesday, November 17, at the Masonic Temple at 7:30 p.m. All members of Medford DeMolay are invited as special guests.

Mrs. Earl Bigalow

Legion Auxiliary Plan Conference In Ashland Friday

The annual district conference of the American Legion and auxiliary will be held at the Elks' building in Ashland Friday, November 19. The afternoon will be devoted to round table discussions and instruction in the service activities of the organizations. A dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. and reservations should be made with Mrs. Ross Menneci. The evening meetings will continue the information sessions.

Mrs. Earl Bigalow, Medford auxiliary president of district 13, and will preside at the auxiliary sessions. Emil Krieger, district commander for the Legion, will be in charge of the American Legion meetings.

In addition to the district officers, a number of officials of the Oregon department will be present as guests, and to take part in the program. Legion dignitaries will include Oregon's commander Carl Moser and state adjutant Joe McDonald, as well as George Shaw who is the service officer. Auxiliary officers expected to attend are Mrs. Guy Wilcox, Oregon president; Mrs. Harold Leach, vice-president; and Mrs. Mae Whitcomb, secretary.

A number of Medford members of the American Legion and auxiliary will attend the afternoon and evening sessions.

Medford American Legion auxiliary met November 9 at the Legion home, with the vice-president, Mrs. H. W. Gifford, presiding.

Mrs. Merle Jarmin reported on the success of the rummage sale held November 4 and 5. She expressed appreciation to the members who helped with the sale, and for the patronage of the public. It was announced that the annual bazaar and bake sale will be held Saturday November 20, at the Home Appliance company. Members with donations to be collected may call Mrs. Gifford.

Plans were completed for the Veterans' Day breakfast which was served at the Legion club by members of the auxiliary.

Mrs. Bigalow reported on the services of the child welfare committee. Three coats have been given to school children and three pairs of shoes purchased since the last report.

Veterans in hospitals have begun work on the memorial poppies, and the Medford unit has ordered 6,500 for the annual Poppy Day which is held in May. Plans were made for attending the district conference which will be held in Ashland November 19.

The regular sewing meeting of the auxiliary will be held at the Legion home November 23. Members are asked to take toys for the Christmas box to be sent to the Roseburg child welfare center.

Following the business meeting, refreshments were served by Mrs. Thomas Freed and Mrs. Lawrence Luy.

Butte Falls Gardeners To Hear Book Review At Meeting Tuesday

Butte Falls—Mrs. E. J. Malloy will review a book during a meeting Tuesday, November 16, of the Butte Falls Garden club. The session which will begin at 1:30 p.m., is to be at the home of Mrs. Elga Abbott.

Roll call will be answered by members giving garden hints for November.

Christmas sale plans also will be discussed and anyone interested is invited.

Past Chief's Club To Make Sale Plans

Past Chiefs club members plan a Christmas sale which will be discussed during a meeting Wednesday, November 17, at the home of Mrs. Mabel Nicholson, 821 North Central avenue. The session is slated for 8 p.m.

Pythian Sisters will meet Tuesday, November 16, at 8 p.m. in the Pythian building.

BREAKFAST CLUB PLANS INSTALLATION

Installation of officers and a dinner are scheduled for a Credit Women's Breakfast club meeting to be held at the Oakwood motel dining room at Phoenix, Monday, November 15, at 7:30 p.m.

Daughters Change Date of Session

The monthly meeting of Bow Bell chapter, Daughters of the British Empire, has been changed to Wednesday, November 17, at 8 p.m., in the Girls Community club, officers announced last week. Miss Amy Harding will show pictures of a recent trip she made to the British Isles. A social hour also is planned.

All visitors from British, Canadian or Australian birth or ancestry are invited. For further information those interested may call Mrs. Darroll Davis, telephone 2-5672, or Mrs. G. W. Allingham, telephone 2-8620.

Report Progress On "Death Trap" Project of Groups

Shady Cove—Mrs. Dan Krotz reported on a "death trap" campaign being conducted in the Shady Cove area during a meeting recently of the Steelhead post and auxiliary held at the Post home at Shady Cove. The project is being conducted through the month of November.

The campaign, in which the Lady Lions and the Parent-Teachers association members of that district are working, is by a house-to-house canvass for the removal of old ice boxes and filling-in of old wells and removal of other "death traps" for small children.

It is hoped by those conducting the campaign that other groups in this area will also make such canvasses. Cooperation from the home owners has been very good, those in charge reported.

During the joint meeting post members made final plans for a turkey shoot to be conducted November 21 at Trail. This will be a merchandise shoot and anyone interested is invited. A traffic control of Shady Cove also is being conducted by the men.

The auxiliary members approved a membership petition for Mrs. Zella Tullis of Trail.

Mrs. Dale Sawyer reported on a sewing project and it was suggested for the next month that meetings would be held each Wednesday of the week and those attending should take sack lunches.

After the meetings the post joined the auxiliary and refreshments were served.

Those on the refreshment committee were Mrs. Krotz, Mrs. Velda King and Mrs. Andy Crandenberg.

Group Discusses Ideals, Purposes; Events Announced

Alpha Lambda chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority met at the home of Mrs. Fred Stammen, 920 West Eleventh street, November 8. Mrs. Charles Jones, president, presided over the program, which was a group discussion of the ideals and purpose of the sorority, dating back to its original founding in 1928.

Reports were given on the recently sponsored rummage sale and the forthcoming baked foods sale, which will be held December 8. Mrs. Chester Peterson was appointed ways and means chairman to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Willie Fischer.

Correspondence was read regarding the sale of Easter seals in the spring and preliminary plans were made for this project.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Sammen following the business meeting.

Members are reminded to take their favorite recipes to the next meeting of the sorority, which will be held November 22 at the home of Mrs. William Raymond, 728 Beekman avenue.

Oak Grove Club To Plan Party

Oak Grove Neighborhood club will hold a business meeting at the home of Mrs. L. P. Crocker, 3355 Jacksonville highway, Tuesday, November 6, at 1 p.m. Plans will be made for the annual Christmas party and birthdays will be observed. A social hour will follow the business meeting.

Future Teachers Hold Initiation For Large Group

Ashland—Forty-three new members have been initiated into the Southern Oregon College chapter of Future Teachers of America, Ashland FTA President Mary Lee Ford said today. A talk on "I Am a Teacher" by Dr. Fannie Shaffel, Stanford university, preceded the candle-light ceremony.

Students initiated were Patricia McNess, Drew, Ore.; Kenneth Miller, Malin; William Culhane, Medford; Darlene Empey, Springfield; Arlene Lastico, Eugene; Beth Eskew, Gold Hill; Joan Dean, Medford; Ruby Gardner, Ashland; Betty Wise, Springfield; Sharon Buckley, Riddle; Shirley Chancy, Myrtle Creek; Isobel Carr, Medford; Viola Hartwell, Ashland; Wilma Ruth Bench, Talent; Ruth Granby, Talent; Joan Pochelu, Ashland; Gay Huges, Ashland; Donna Zumwalt, Medford; Robert Gene Smith, Grants Pass; Katherine York, Ashland; Audrey Russell, Myrtle Point; Dolores McFarland, Klamath Falls; James Holloway, Medford; Clair Lorton, Lynnwood, Calif.; Joanne Callender, Toledo, Ore.; Linda Brown, Somis, Calif.; Lucile Burbach, Roseburg; Sally Martin, Medford; Patricia Scarborough, Medford; Alice Meyer, Lakeview; Clara Weide, Roseburg; Judith Hall, Medford; LaRayne Weed, Klamath Falls; Sharon Davis, Klamath Falls; Cornelius Janzen, Central Point; John Crisman, Portland; Julie McCormick, Grants Pass; Darlene Taylor, Grants Pass; Janet Johnston, Rogue River; LaVerne O'Neal, Honolulu, T. H.; Norma Weech, Grants Pass; Barbara Barrett, Grants Pass; and Clarice Chapman, North Bend.

Visit Family

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hart, Central Point, returned last week from a 10-day trip to Hermosa Beach, Calif., where they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bergstrom.

LEON'S feature Figure Molding

Exquisite Form BRASSIERES

SATIN SHOWN

Also in Cotton

$150

LEON'S

21 N. CENTRAL

Sunday, November 14, 1934

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—THREE

It's from Brophy's Medford

Medford's Oldest Fine Jewelers and Silversmiths

The Silverplate with the look and feel of Sterling

FOR YOUR FESTIVE THANKSGIVING TABLE

For the Silver You'll Give With Pride ... Let Brophy's Be Your Guide.

...yet costs $200 less!

It is true that Holmes & Edwards patterns do look and feel like sterling... women say so all the time. Yet a comparable service for 8 in sterling costs $200 more. And one of these lovely patterns will appeal especially to you.

From the HOLMES & EDWARDS Collection

Complete 52-piece service for 8 only... $74.95
ALL PATTERNS MADE IN U.S.A.

Your Pride in Beauty will instinctively cherish the graceful splendor of Rochelle by International. In its flowing lines and scrolls the gracious gaiety of the Louis XIV court are recaptured for your own fine entertaining.

● Platter, 16" $30.00
● Gravy and Sauce Set, 1 Pint $32.50
Fed. Tax Inc.

Quality Diamonds Honestly Priced for Over a Quarter of a Century

JEAN HART'S

fashion touched

SWEATERS

in fleecy soft
Lambs wool and Cashmere by

LYLE & SCOTT

or Wonderously
Washable Ortons
by TALBOTT

from $7.50

Flawlessly knitted, full-fashioned firsts... always smart... always soft and feminine. Cardigans, short and long sleeve pullovers, and three quarter sleeved turtle necks.

Wonderfully Acceptable as Christmas Gifts—Lay-away Now!

SHOP A THE
PINK STORE
WHERE YOU
PARK AT THE DOOR

617 East Main

Phone 2-8992

Ethel Says:

A MEDITERRANEAN CRUISE? Sounds wonderful, doesn't it? Well, I can't afford the real thing—but a fascinating substitute is Prince Matchabelli's Cologne Cruise to the Mediterranean. This Cruise package is just darling... it's actually a trunk... and inside are four different colognes, each inspired by a romantic dance in four Mediterranean ports. Yes, here's a package you must see—you'll want one for yourself—you'll want to pick up several for Christmas. And the price—it's so unbelievably low—only $2.50 for four delightful colognes. Stop in at Hudson's Pharmacy and let me, Ethel Lockard, take you on a Cologne Cruise.

FREE PARKING!

FREE DELIVERY!

Open Weekdays 8:30 a.m. to 10 p.m.—Sundays 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.

HUDSON'S PHARMACY

613 E. MAIN

PHONE 3-5345