

Many Attend Homecoming

Many graduates and former students of Oregon State college and football fans are in Corvallis this weekend for the annual OSC Homecoming and the University-OSC football game. Various groups motored north Thursday and Friday, and most will return today.

The event held added interest for Medford residents since the Homecoming queen is Miss Sue Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Harris, 707 South Oakdale avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Henselman left Friday morning for Salem where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gray and the four went to Corvallis Saturday for the Homecoming festivities.

Mrs. H. P. Bosworth Jr., traveled north Saturday morning and attended the game with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bosworth.

Also in Corvallis for the events are Mrs. Robert Hart and Mrs. James Towne. Mrs. Hart, an OSC graduate, visited her daughters, the Misses Ann and Sara Hart, both OSC students, and Mrs. Towne's daughter, Miss Elizabeth Rinehart, is a student at the university.

In Corvallis for Homecoming and game are Mr. and Mrs. Alan F. Perry and daughter, Janet. Mrs. Perry, who had been in Portland earlier in the week met her family in Corvallis and they will return tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore Hamilton, Miss Nancy Hamilton and Robert also motored north to visit the Hamilton's older son, Alex, a student at OSC, and to attend the Homecoming program.

Also attending are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Reichstein and daughter, Miss Suzanne Reichstein; Mr. and Mrs. John A. Carter and daughter, Miss Janet Carter; Miss Sharon Lilly, Miss Dallas Barnard and Miss Cynthia Rukovina.

Miss Patricia Piland, former Medford student now living in Eugene, joined a group of Medford friends to attend the game.

Daughter Leaves For Stay in Turkey

Butte Falls—Mrs. Robert B. Pechner, who has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Green, Butte Falls, left last week by United Air Lines for San Francisco en route to Adana, Turkey, via New York City, and Amsterdam, Holland.

At Amsterdam she will join her husband who now is at Adana as an employee of the Morrison-Garanti firm. He is working in the construction of dams and hydro-electric plants.

Mr. and Mrs. Pechner returned in September, 1953, after two years in Afghanistan where Mr. Pechner was a construction engineer with the Morrison-Knudsen-Afghanistan company, in the building of dams and canal systems.

Dinner Parties Held Last Week

Mr. and Mrs. Scott V. Davis were hosts last week for two informal dinner parties.

The first was given last Sunday evening following the cocktail party of Mr. and Mrs. I. E. Staples and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Coleman, and the second was Wednesday evening. Both were at the Davis' home, 1914 East Main street, and eight guests were invited each evening.

Miss Sue Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Harris, 707 South Oakdale avenue, was crowned queen of the 1954 Oregon State college homecoming at ceremonies held Friday night at the college. Miss Harris was graduated from Medford High school with the class of 1952 and is a junior at OSC.

Miss Sue Harris Crowned Queen Of Oregon State 1954 Homecoming

Corvallis—A Medford coed, Miss Sue Harris, Friday was crowned Homecoming queen at Oregon State college.

Miss Harris, a 20-year-old junior, was presented to the crowd attending the OSC-University of Oregon football game. Her selection was announced Friday night at a student midnight talent show.

Court members are Misses Nancy Rearden and Nancy Allison, Corvallis; Sandra Wolff, Oswego, and Marilyn Hewitt, Glendale.

A junior in business education, Miss Harris is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Harris, 707 South Oakdale avenue. She graduated from Medford high school in 1952.

Miss Harris was named queen—top campus honor—from a group of 32 candidates nominated by various student living organizations. Selection is on the basis of beauty and personality.

Miss Harris has a younger sister, Sally, who is a sophomore at the school.

Colonel, Family Visit in Gold Hill

Gold Hill—Col. Harold E. Kofahl, Mrs. Kofahl and their four children, Kristen, Patrick and Michael, twins, and Robert, are in Gold Hill to visit the office's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Kofahl. They will be in the valley for about 10 days.

For the past 18 months Colonel Kofahl has been in Saigon, French Indo-China, where he headed the military aid advisory group for the USAF. After leaving Gold Hill he will report for duty at the Pentagon in Washington. Before going to Saigon, the officer was in command of Moody Air Force base, Valdosta, Ga.

Queen Joanne and her royal court and escorts were honored at the Homecoming banquet held in the campus dining hall during the evening.

As a major in education, Miss Joanne plans to enter the elementary teaching field after graduation. She is a member of the junior class.

Her escort was her fiancé, Roland Hartley of Talent. Campus activities of the queen include secretary of the junior class, secretary-treasurer of the Future Teachers of America, president of Kanyon Hall, women's dormitory and social chairman of the associated students.

To Nominate

Daughters of Union Veterans will nominate officers at a meeting Tuesday, November 23, at 8 p.m., at the courthouse.
