Families Gather for Thanksgiving Day

Thanksgiving day, 1954, is being observed in Medford and the Rogue valley as it is throughout the United States—with special church services and prayers of thanksgiving and festive family dinners. In almost every home, the scene will be the same with families, large and small, gathering around gaily decorated tables to feast on turkey and cranberry sauce, mother's best pickles and preserves and other delicacies.

Several congregations held a combined service at First Methodist church this morning, while others met for denominational services.

The family of School Superintendent and Mrs. E. H. Hedrick are gathered at the Hedricks' home on South Oakdale avenue today for dinner. Present will be the Hedricks' daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Richardson and daughters, Jan and Ann; another daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Work and daughter, Mary; their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Hedrick and children, Billie and Elaine, Hugo, Ore.; Mr. Richardson's mother, Mrs. Bel Richardson, the Hedricks and their youngest daughter, Caroline.

Irving Rau, mayor of St. Helens, Ore., and Mrs. Rau, are in Medford as Thanksgiving holiday guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Smith, 2001 Spring street. They will return north Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Powell, with their sons, Alvin, Delbert and George, all of Kenos, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Haggard and son, Dale, Phoenix, and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Schoemaker, Los Angeles, are guests at Phoenix today of Mr. and Mrs. Dell Hain. Instead of preparing their turkey in the traditional manner of roasting it in the oven, the Hains are preparing their turkey on their patio barbecue.

Mrs. Eva Smith and children, Ronnie and Kathleen, 415 Haven street, are at Mt. Shasta, Calif., to be with Mrs. Smith's brother, W. O. Alden, Mrs. Alden and their family. The Aldens are former Medford residents.

Another family dinner will be at the home of Police Chief Charles Champlin Jr., and Mrs. Champlin, 621 J street. Together for the day and dinner will be Mr. and Mrs. Champlin and their daughter, Judy, Mr. Champlin's mother, Mrs. Jack Maasdam, and his aunt, Mrs. Beatrice Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Darel Huson will be hosts for a family dinner at their home on Lindley street. Attending will be Mrs. Huson's aunt, Mrs. Jessie Rodwell of Hood River, Ore., Mr. Huson's mother, Mrs. Ina Huson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Phillips, Roy Huson, the Huson's daughters, Dorelyn, and the Misses Margaret and Laura Mae Huson, home from Willamette university, and their guest, Miss Joan Lawson, Seattle, also a Willamette student. Miss Lawson is a Delta Gamma sorority sister of Miss Margaret Huson, and Miss Laura Mae is a member of Pi Beta Phi at the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bowker, Central Point, will be dinner guests this afternoon of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Claypool, 2024 Bullock road. The Bowkers also observed Thanksgiving earlier while their son, Paul K. Bowker, a Navy electronics and radar man, was here on leave last week. He left here for Chincoteague, Va. The Claypools' son, Don Claypool, a military policeman, sailed November 8 for England after visiting here recently.

Bob Wickman arrived this week from Anchorage, Alaska, to be here for Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wickman, 226 King street. He is with a construction firm in the Alaska city. At the Wickmans today also is Mrs. Marjorie Barnes, now of Portland. Mrs. Barnes, a former Medford resident, is a sister of Mrs. Wickman.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Strang, 540 Pennsylvania avenue, have with them for a family dinner their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brown, and their daughter, Becky, of Grants Pass, and Mr. Brown's mother, Mrs. Robert Sutton, and Mr. Sutton.

Among the Thanksgiving visitors in Medford are Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Allen and daughter, Susan, Merced Island, Wash., who are guests of Mr. Allen's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Allen Jr., 48 Windsor avenue.

The William Peek family Saginaw drive, will have their Thanksgiving dinner today on the Shasta Daylight train en route to San Francisco. This morning the Peeks traveled by car to Klamath Falls where they met Mr. Peek's twin brother, Donald Peek, and his wife, who is a sister of Mrs. William Peek. The Donald Peeks are from Portland. The four will spend the weekend at the Bay city.

A family dinner will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Clogston, 2138 West Main street. Attending will be A. R. Clement, Mrs. F. R. Hagerty, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Clement, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Guchess and son, Richard, the Carolyn, John and Donald.

A family reunion and dinner is planned for today at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Jewett in Central Point. Attending will be their sons and daughter, with their families including Mr. and Mrs. William Klope and son, Paul, Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Jewett and daughters, Grace and Gladys Ann, Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Alan Jewett and daughters, Sandra and Sherry; Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jewett and children, Jimmy, Tommy and Anne, Medford. Another guest will be Mrs. Annice Wilson, Medford, mother of Mrs. Hal Jewett. The Jewett's second daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Snook, will dine in another family group but will visit with the Jewett family during the day.

Mrs. Janice Long, 1308 Queen Anne avenue, will have a dinner guests today her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James McGifford, Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Howard and daughter, Sharon, and Mr. Howard's mother, Mrs. Mabel Howard, all of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Neeley, 44 North Peach street, will entertain this afternoon for their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Sweet Jr., and son, Douglas, and Mr. and Mrs. William Sweet, and Mr. and Mrs. William Neeley.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Wilson, 608½ South Newtown street, are dinner guests today of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. DeMotte at Grants Pass. The Wilsons formerly lived at Grants Pass.

Miss Edith Jacobs, Medford Plaza apartments, and the Jerry Kreischer family of Springbrook road, are dinner guests today of the Nevins Applegates at Central Point.

Hosts for a family dinner today are Mr. and Mrs. Earl York, 820 East Main street. Their guests will be their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Marsh and two children, John and Bob, Mr. Marsh's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marsh, and Mr. York's sister, Miss Laura York.

Dr. and Mrs. Stanley E. Phillips and sons, Craig and Scott, are guests today of Mr. and Mrs. Richard G. Phair and family, 424 Ardmore street. The two families have dined together on Thanksgiving day for several years past.

Craig Phillips is home from the University of Oregon where he is a freshman and a pledge of Sigma Phi Epsilon. The Phillips' oldest son, Douglas, a junior at Washington State college and a Phi Delta Theta, is spending the holidays with friends in Washington.

Members Propose Extension Projects At Meeting of Unit

Shady Cove — At the last meeting of Shady Cove Extension unit members proposed projects for next year's program. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. K. Paulson, and Mrs. Ralph Lane, chairman, president.

Mrs. C. Brewer, vice-chairman, conducted the "question box" and Mrs. D. Larson took charge of the recreation hour. Mrs. William Shepherd represented the unit at a health committee meeting.

The luncheon committee served a Boston baked bean meal. Mrs. O. C. Krotz sold Christmas boxes as a benefit for the unit. Mrs. Brewer won the day's prize.

The afternoon was devoted to a workshop under the direction of Mrs. Paulson and Mrs. T. M. Littlefield. Twenty members took part and will also attend a workshop November 30 at the Paulson home.

Champagne Supper, Miss Audrey Hite Set for Friday At Country Club

Important on the social calendar this weekend is the Champagne Supper of Medford Junior Service League, to be held Friday, at Rogue Valley Country club. A large number of valley couples have accepted invitations to attend the event, for which elaborate preparations have been made.

Mrs. George Rasmussen, general chairman of the party, is being assisted by several chairmen and committee members. Mrs. Allyn A. Monroe is invitations chairman, and Mrs. Oscar J. Halboth is food chairman. The decorations committee is made up of Mrs. Berwick L. Wood and Mrs. H. S. Deuel Jr.

A feature of the evening will be a style show during which clothing for at home and cocktail hour wear will be shown as well as formal gowns and furs. Mrs. Carl Wimberly Jr., is chairman of models, and modeling during the evening will be Mrs. Collyer Buffington, Mrs. James Cummins, Mrs. Donald Herried, Mrs. Richard Reum, Mrs. James Keeble, Mrs. Walter Graft and Mrs. Frank Hopewell.

Funds from the supper will be used to raise funds to support the kindergarten for hard of hearing children operated by the league.

Two Leave for Stay in South

Everett Overholt and Frank Lovett, both of Phoenix, left Saturday for Los Angeles where Everett Overholt is spending the week with his mother, Mrs. Dorothy Overholt. Mr. Lovett is visiting a sister today at Pasadena, and from there he will drive to Tucson, Ariz., to visit his mother. He will return by way of Los Angeles and will be accompanied home by Everett Overholt.
