Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stephen Timmons Jr. (Landis-Shangle photo)

Presbyterian Church Scene Of Timmons-Johnson Service

The wedding of Doris Carole Johnson and Lloyd Stephen Timmons Jr. was an event of November 30 at the First Presbyterian church. The Rev. Willis J. Loar of the Eastwood Baptist church performed the double ring ceremony. About 200 guests attended.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Matheus, 424 Western avenue. The bridegroom, a lieutenant in the United States Air Force, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd S. Timmons, route 2, box 207, Medford. He is a pilot.

The ceremony was read at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and the bride's sister, Mrs. George Chick was here from Inglewood, Calif., to be matron of honor.

Leonard E. and Donald W. Matheus, brothers of the bride, Mr. Chick and Jerry Lausmann were the ushers.

Mr. Matheus gave his daughter in marriage. Her dress was of pink lace over petal pink tulle and was designed with fitted bodice and a bouffant skirt. She wore a matching hat trimmed with seed pearls and her shoulder length veil was of nylon tulle. Her gloves were first worn by the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. John W. Timmons, on the occasion of her 50th wedding anniversary. The bride's bouquet was of a white orchid and white elf rosebuds.

Mrs. Chick wore a powder blue silk organza dress over tulle and styled similarly to the bride's gown. Her hat was of matching fabric and her bouquet was of pink carnations. The candle lighters were Janice Matheus, a niece of the bride, and Warren Chick, a nephew. The former wore a dress of white dotted nylon Swiss with pink sash. Her wristlet and headpiece were of pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Robert DeArmond sang. The reception was held at the church rooms. Mrs. Chick played organ music during the reception and those assisting were Mrs. Ben Hitzler, who cut the cake, Mrs. Joan LeCuyer, who served the cake, and Mrs. Paul Culbertson, who poured punch. Mrs. Hitzler and Mrs. Culbertson are aunts of the bridegroom. Mrs. Leonard Matheus had charge of the guest book. Pink tapers and pink rosebuds furnished the table decorations.

For the occasion the bride's mother wore a mulberry lace dress with navy accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a powder blue faille with navy accessories. Both had corsages of pink carnations.

From out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Ritzinger of Happy Camp, Calif. The bride is a Medford Senior High school graduate. She is employed at Pick's apparel.

The bridegroom is stationed with the Air Force at Big Spring, Tex. He was also graduated from Medford Senior High school and attended the University of Oregon and University of California at Davis.

The couple made a wedding trip to Klamath Falls and Rocky Point resort.
