Miss Janice Goodman Wed To Edward Gene Croucher

Miss Janice Arline Goodman became the bride of Edward Gene Croucher in a service held Saturday, November 20, in Sacred Heart Catholic church. The Rev. Charles J. Scott read the ceremony preceding the celebration of nuptial low mass, Larry Schaefer and Paul Smith served at the altar for the mass, and Bruno Pellegrini was at the organ.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. John W. Kirby, Kings' highway, and of Clinton Goodman, Portland. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Croucher, Medford.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a gown imported Chantilly lace over Skinner's satin designed with cathedral train. Her French illusion veil fell from a Juliet cap of satin and lace borrowed from her cousin, Mrs. Glenn Pattee. On her white prayer book she carried a handmade lace handkerchief, a gift of her maternal grandmother, and two white orchids, a gift from her paternal grandmother.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Hal Krueger, matron-of-honor, Mrs. David Seutter and Miss Loraine Croucher, sister of the bridegroom. Their gowns were of copper colored crystalline, waltz length, with bouffant skirts and they carried green cymbidium orchids flown from Australia.

Flower girls were Judith and Joyce Fulton of Crater Lake National Park. They wore bouffant frocks of white and copper nylon and carried baskets of petals.

Hal Krueger was best man and ushers were Lloyd Dyer, Allen Hurt and William Walton.

For the wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a gown of imported Chantilly lace over copper net with dark brown accessories and carried a fall of brown cymbidium orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore a gown of fuchsia iridescent crystalline with black accessories and her flowers were gold colored cymbidium orchids.

The wedding breakfast which followed was at the Kirby home and was attended by more than 100 guests. Pouring and serving were Mrs. William E. Driscoll, Mrs. Robert Browne, Mrs. Ernest Hood Jr., Miss Judith Gilbert, Medford, and Mrs. Alonzo Hodges and Mrs. Floyd Whitlatch of Merrill. Mrs. Otto Ellis, Klamath Falls, presided at the guest book.

Here for the wedding were Mrs. Lou Puzey, Seaside, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Ensminger, Oakridge, Ore.; Fred Bruegger, Mrs. Doris Jackson, Mrs. N. A. Dunford, Eagle Point; Mrs. Don Lowe, Ashland; Mrs. John Kirby

UN Chapter To Organize

Anyone interested in a Medford chapter of the Oregon United Nations association is invited to attend a meeting Thursday, December 2, at 8 p.m. in the YMCA. H. P. Bosworth Jr., who was named acting chairman at an informal meeting which followed a lecture here recently by Dr. Karlin M. Capper-Johnson, president of the Oregon association, has called a Thursday meeting.

Mr. Bosworth points out that it is the purpose of the United Nations association to disseminate knowledge concerning the operation of UN, to encourage study and to prepare to take a definite stand on many of the world problems which are under consideration. This may be done through local discussion or through letters to UN delegates, he states in a letter to interested persons.

There are similar organizations in most of the states of the union, and several cities in Oregon already have a chapter or are in the process of organization, Dr. Capper-Johnson stated while in Medford.

Reunion Dinner Held by Family

One of the largest family dinners held in Medford Thanksgiving day was that in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Atterbury, 1002 West Eleventh street. Forty-six relatives attended the event.

Relatives of Mr. Atterbury who attended were his father, Jess Atterbury, his uncle, Kit Atterbury, and his four brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Atterbury and family, Mr. and Ms. Keith Atterbury and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Atterbury and family and Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Atterbury and family, all of whom reside in Roseburg or that area; Mr. Atterbury's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Andrus, Seattle, and their daughter, Sylvia Jo Andrus, who is attending school in Oakland, Calif., and another brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. Doyle and family, Roseburg.

Members of Mrs. Atterbury's family present were her mother, Mrs. Mary E. Pickens, Roseburg, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pickens, Medford. The Atterbury's children who were present included Mr. and Mrs. Richard Atterbury, Corvallis; Mrs. Donald Schneide, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Christlieb and Mary Ellen Atterbury.

Following dinner motion pictures of the weddings of the Atterbury's three older children were shown, and also pictures taken at the last family reunion.

Elsie Smith Is Bride of Astoria Man

News of interest here is of the wedding November 6 at Astoria, of Miss Elsie Mabel Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Andrew Smith, 102 Almond street, Medford, and John Elzear Laferriere. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Laferriere, Hammond, Ore.

The ceremony was read at 9 o'clock in the morning at St. Mary's Star of the Sea Catholic church. The Rev. Robert S. Neugebauer performed the rites. The Star of the Sea high school girls choir sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of French lace and nylon net over taffeta. It was designed with a matching lace bolero and the skirt was trimmed with insets of embroidered lace points. Her veil of nylon and lace hung from a headpiece outlined with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds.

Miss Patricia Sutkowski was maid of honor, and Miss Louise Brenner, Seattle, and Miss Irene Laferriere, a sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. They wore matching ballerina type dresses of crystalline. Miss Sutkowski's gown was in a coral shade and the others were Dior blue. They carried nosegays of talisman rosebuds.

Miss Donna Rummell, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rummell, Youngs River, was flower girl. Her dress was of coral color and matched those of the bride's attendants. She carried a bouquet of talisman bud roses.

Guy Laferriere was best man. The ushers were Donald Rummell and Jacques Laferriere.

A reception was held at the home of the young couple at route 1, box 569, Clatsop Plains. Mrs. Larry Morris poured the punch. Mrs. Jack Rim and Mrs. Ralph Butzina, both of Medford assisted.

The bride's cake was cut by the mother of the bride and the mother of the bridegroom cut the bridegroom's cake.

The bride's table was decorated with tapers, white chrysanthemums and alyssum. The rooms were decorated with rust and yellow chrysanthemums.

In charge of the gifts was Miss Irene Laferriere and Mrs. Rim registered the guests. Mrs. Butzina assisted about the rooms.

For the occasion the bride's mother wore a blue orlon taffeta afternoon dress with red accessories and a red carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in a forest green taffeta dress trimmed in black and her corsage was of white carnations.

The couple made their wedding trip to Victoria, B. C., and southern Oregon.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Floyd January, and Mrs. Butzina and Mrs. Rim, from Medford, and Mrs. Mildred McMahon, and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Smith from Talent.
