

Medford Rose Society Charter Presented at Meeting Monday

Medford Rose society received its charter during a meeting Monday night at the county courthouse. Mrs. Nat Schoen, Vancouver, Wash., director of the northwest district of the American Rose society, presented the charter. Mrs. Louis G. Gentner, president of the local Mrs. Schoen talked on new varieties of roses and how to select them. Forty charter members each received a New Yorker rose bush from Mr. and Mrs. Schoen.

Mrs. Gentner also spoke. She gave credit to Mrs. Schoen and to Ernest Vehrs, Rosarian from Grants Pass for the national society, for organization of the local chapter.

A round reel in color on "All-American Roses" was shown by Dr. Gentner.

A social hour followed the meeting. Refreshments were served with Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Quackenbush, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hobbs and Mrs. Jessie Walters presiding.

Next meeting of the society will be the last Monday in January.

Two Couples Arrive For Visit in Valley

Arriving this week for a two-week visit in the valley with relatives are Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Hadley and Dr. and Mrs. F. N. Elwell. The Hadleys are from Oklahoma City, Okla., and Dr. and Mrs. Elwell live at McPherson, Kans.

They will visit Mr. and Mrs. Hadley's son and his family Maynard Hadley Jr., at Ashland, and Mr. Hadley's mother, Mrs. Melva Hadley, Medford, and his sister and her family, the Clarence Chews at Central Point.

Mrs. Melva Hadley plans to return home with the Maynard Hadleys to spend the Christmas holidays with them.

Newlyweds Now Living In Florida

Lt. and Mrs. Douglas W. Griffith, married October 23 in First Methodist church, Vancouver, Wash., are now living at Mexico Beach, Port St. Joe, Fla. The officer has been assigned to air controller school of the United States Air Force at Panama City, Fla.

Mrs. Griffith is the former Miss Colleen Ellingson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bicknell, Vancouver, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. McCurdy, 4225 Cedar lane.

The wedding ceremony was read by the Rev. Donald Yates.

The church organist who played the traditional wedding music also accompanied Miss Donna Loewer of Vancouver, who sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz length gown of white nylon embroidered lace over satin and carried sweetheart roses and stephanotis in a cascade bouquet. Her finger tip length veil of illusion net and lace was held in place by a tiny coronet of pearls.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Eva Mae Gates, Vancouver, wore a waltz length coral nylon net and satin gown and carried a nosegay of roses and chrysanthemums.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue ensemble with blue accessories and the bridegroom's mother a powder blue dressmaker suit with black accessories. Their corsages were of pink carnations.

Lt. E. W. Thomas was best man and Lt. Leslie Pawson and Palmer Ellington, brother of the bride, were ushers. Lt. Thomas and Lt. Pawson were fellow officers of the bridegroom at the U.S. Air Force station at Condon, Ore.

Following the wedding a reception for 70 guests was given by the bride's parents at the home of Mrs. Myrtle Flakerud, Vancouver. Mrs. Palmer, Ellingson, sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Archie Laushway, Kelso, Washington, aunt of the bride and Mrs. Myrtle Flakerud assisted in serving.

In charge of the gifts were Mrs. Jack Livingston and Miss Dolores Anderson, both Vancouver, and Miss Laura Griffith, sister of the bridegroom, took charge of the guest book.

One of the highlights of the reception was the presentation of his silver bars and promotion to first lieutenant in the air force to Lieutenant Griffith by Captain Lloyd K. Soverin, commanding officer of the Condon Air Force station.

Attending the wedding from Medford were the bridegroom's parents, Mrs. Harold E. Wallace and Dale Coverstone.

The newlyweds made stops in Arizona, Texas and Old Mexico en route to Florida. The bride attended Vancouver High school and was employed by Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company for the past two years. Lieutenant Griffith was graduated from Medford High school with the class of 1930 and was attending Southern Oregon college, Ashland, at the time of his enlistment in the USAF in 1931.
