Assemblies Leader In Italy To Talk

Anthony Piraino, field secretary for Italy for the Foreign Missions department of the Assemblies of God, will speak Wednesday at 7:45 p.m. at the Medford Assembly of God, 1108 West Main st., according to the Rev. F. Wildon Colbaugh, pastor.

Mr. Piraino recently came from Italy where within the past month a major political victory has been won by the Italian Assemblies of God. The churches were given official recognition, were exempted from paying taxes and were given the freedom to hold services as they desire.

Mr. Piraino will describe these conditions. He was born in Palermo, Italy, and came to the states as a child. Upon entering the ministry, he was in evangelistic work and later became co-pastor of the Calvary Pentecostal church in Brooklyn, N.Y. For three years he served as general secretary for the Italian branch of the Assemblies of God in the United States.

When Mr. Piraino went to Italy in 1951, he organized a Sunday school training squad which traveled for nearly a year, organizing Sunday schools and holding seminars to train teachers. Today there are nearly 200 Sunday schools in Italy.

After his furlough he expects to return to Italy to continue his work as field secretary.

The public is invited to hear him.
