Where is the world's most luxurious barber shop? A California claims it can be found in the Golden State. At the Beverly Wilshire Hotel, Beverly Hills, Calif. This elegant tonorial parlor has more manicurists than barbers. Twelve manicurists and eleven barbers. Customers are given a choice of manicurists, they can have a brunette, blonde or redhead. All the chairs in this palatial place are custom made.

 There is a telephone on each chair.

Fabulous
 That "fabulous" race course in "fabulous" Las Vegas is now conducting racing for $200 purses. That is probably the cheapest racing in this country.
 The bushiest of bush tracks on the "bull ring" circuits offer better purses. Such racing should have the close attention of humane societies. There is a tendency in that type of cheap competition to cruelly race aged and crippled animals.

How Old Is Lynn?
 How old is Lynn Fontanne?
 That is a query with which I am constantly bombarded. I don't know how old the lady is but, anyway, she doesn't look it. The curiosity as to Lynn's age is a compliment to her appearance.
 Women who saw her on the stage 30 years or more ago wonder how she manages to still look about 35. One edition of "Who's Who in the Theater" gives the Fontanne birthdate as 1882. That must be a typographical error.
 Surely Lynn is not 72. "Who's Who in America" omits her birth date. The "Information Please Almanac," edited by the knowl-edgientiously accurate John Kieran, gives the Fontanne birthdate as 1887. That would make her 67.

Why is the chef of a restaurant not given credit on the menu card? Why is such a highly important personage ignored? It is like leaving the name of a star out of a theatrical billing. Some chefs have had very distinguished careers. For example, the occupant of that position at the Voisin Restaurant in midtown Manhattan once acted in a similar capacity for one of the greatest bon vivants of all time, King Edward VII of England, grandfather of the Duke of Wind-

Gift of Electrical Equipment Excellent Suggestion for Men

When the family pitches in to select just One Good Gift for mom, usually it's a wise idea to think in terms of electrical gifts.

If she's been unhappy with her old-fashioned, defrost-it-yourself refrigerator, then this year give her one of the automatic marvels.

Or, perhaps mom's particular cross has been inadequate laundry aids—so here a new, automatic washer, dryer or ironer may make her dream come true.

Perhaps mom finds it difficult to shop as frequently as she must—or her refrigerator is inadequate for her supply of pies, turkeys and other delicious treats—then, surprise her with a brand-new freezer unit.

Perhaps she's struggled with a range that scorches her pans, burns her roasts and tests her patience—a bright new range will give her a Christmas thrill.

To keep up her morale in the kitchen think of a good mixer complete with attachments—or a liquifier-blender, or an electric broiler or roaster.

If her domestic problems lie elsewhere, perhaps her dream is for a multi-attachment vacuum cleaner—upright or tank-type. Or, maybe she's wishing now for a do-everything-but-talk sewing machine.

For easier entertaining, we know mother would like an automatic coffee maker, or an accessorial toaster. Her choice of an electrifying gift may be a corn popper... a deep fat fryer... a rotisserie... grill and waffle-maker... electric juicer or a portable beater.

Perhaps mother would like a new steam or dry iron—or a "personally hers" radio or clock-radio for her bedroom or kitchen.

For her own well-being she may welcome a trusty heating pad, a sun-or-heat-lamp.

And, mother will surely be queen in her domain with an efficient dishwasher at her command—(Dad and the kids will welcome this).

Yes, this year Santa is proudly pointing to the gift array of wonderful electrical servants—the gifts that keep on giving pleasure and comfort for a long time after Christmas has become a pleasant memory.

Check your favorite stores for the many, many electrical gifts that wear some of the proudest names in American industry—those of the makers of things electrical for better living.

The National Bureau for the Advancement of Music has indicated that there are more than 2,000 communities in the United States where carol singing is performed as a regular part of the community Christmas observances.
