CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
"God the Only Cause and Creator," will be the title of the lesson-sermon at the Christian Science church Sunday. "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth," from Genesis 1:1, will be the golden text.

The wingless insect known as the walking stick looks so much like a twig that it is all but invisible against a tree.

Moody Institute Film Scheduled

"The Stones Cry Out," a new Moody Institute of Science film, will be shown at the Central Church of Christ, Friday, Dec. 10, at 7:30 p.m. The story of the film concerns the old walled city of Jerusalem, Petra, ancient Babylon and Tyre.

To make the film, Dr. Irwin Moon, director of the Moody Institute of Science, went to the Near East accompanied by the narrator, Dr. William Culbertson, president of the institute.

The film lesson points up the fact that as the great cities which are shown with hanging gardens, temples carved out of the cliffs and mountains, and thriving seaports "forgot moral and spiritual values, and their power and wealth dried up." To remain a great nation, "we Americans must not forget to keep God in our lives if we want to remain the great nation we are," is the lesson contained in the film, the advance releases explain.

On The Side

To love and remember
That is good.
To love and forget
That is not well.
To love from love to hatred,
That is hell.

Do you know a couple in which both husband and wife are red-haired? How are they doing? It has been claimed that the marriages having the best chance of success and least likely to end in the divorce court are those in which both husband and wife are redheads.

Sauerkraut
You can have my share of sauerkraut. However, I won't deny it is very good for the health. In fact, one medical expert referred to sauerkraut as "the vacuum cleaner of the stomach." Sauerkraut did not originate in Germany but in China. The Chinese used it to furnish the vitamins lacking in a rice diet.

Warning
A theater fire usually results in a great loss of life. Unless smoking is stopped in those New York legitimate stage theaters, where it is prohibited by law, a horrible disaster may result. The operators of the theater would be liable to arrest on criminal negligence. They would also be sued for many thousands of dollars. The Broadway show shop maestros would be wise to hire special officers to stop smoking in prohibited sections of their establishments.

Please Note
Bianca Holmes, the distinguished astrologer, once observed: "In twenty-five years of research I have found that seven out of ten women born under Gemini (May 21-June 20) marry more than once and usually up the ladder. That is, they do better each time."

Those Names
"Why doesn't Shirley Povich, the sportscribe co-operate with you in your bitter Campaign No. 988776D?" asks a young woman of Washington, D. C. "Why does not he abandon the Shirley and take a man's name. He could call himself Patrick Povich." Answering this query permit me to say Shirley was originally a man's name. Therefore, all girls should change their names to something distinctly feminine such as Susan, Sonya, Sylvia or Simonetta.

Cooking
One restaurant boasts it serves "a dinner like grandma used to make." The fact is, that the dinners served by intelligent young wives of today are much better than those grandma made. The average grandma knew nothing of balanced diet. She gave grandpa too much to eat of food that wasn't good for him. The wise modern wife knows what is good for her husband to eat, and how much of it he should consume.

Sidelights
Ask your wife if she ever heard of Patricia Winter. It was Patricia who created the first deodorant and the first liquid nail polish. In 1929 Patricia sold her cosmetics manufacturing business for $4,000,000 cash! George Abe had a heart attack in 1914. However, he took care of himself from then on and lived thirty years more!

Members Complete Redecorating Work

Members of the First Baptist church have been working for several weeks redecorating and refurbishing the pastor's study. They will have completed the painting of the main auditorium and entrances by Sunday.

Another project of the church, undertaken by the Men's brotherhood, has been the purchase of a new communion service. This service will be dedicated Sunday morning at the observance of the Lord's Supper, which will follow the morning worship hour. New members will also be welcomed into the church at this time.

Christmas Series Plan at Eastwood

A series of three Christmas Sunday sermons, instead of the usual one, will be presented at the Eastwood Baptist church during the first three weeks of December, according to the minister, the Rev. Willis J. Loar. Pre-Christmas messages will be presented on Sunday mornings, Dec. 5 and 12, "Tell Me the Old, Old Story," and "Back to Bethlehem." At the same time, two Kodachrome slide series will be presented at the 7 o'clock vesper services on the same two Sundays, "The Annunciation to Mary," and "The Visit of the Wise Men."

On Christmas Sunday, Dec. 18, the morning message will be "The Cradle and the Cross." Christmas music will also be presented.

The annual Christmas pageant will be presented Sunday evening, Dec. 19, at 7:30 o'clock. The pageant, "The Story the Angels Told," was written by the local pastor, and has a cast of 60 or more. A Christmas treat will also be presented to the children.

The monthly Communion service will be held Sunday morning, Dec. 5, in connection with the first of the Christmas themes. The Eastwood Baptist church is located at Ridgeway and Keeneway, and is affiliated with the American Baptist convention.

Presbyterian Program Named for Sunday

Dr. D. K. West will speak on "Christ Controlled Living" at both services Sunday morning. The music will include an anthem the Westminster choir at 9:45 a.m. and an anthem by the Chancel choir at 11 a.m. Allan Lehl will be the soloist at both services.

At the service at 7 p.m., Dr. and Mrs. Bert Elliott will show pictures of mission work they saw on a world tour.

Canvass Planned At Congregational

The Congregational church will have its first Every-Member canvass Sunday. Assistance has been given to the officers of the church by Dr. Paul A. Davies, minister and superintendent of the Congregational conference of Oregon. He will also be present for the service this Sunday, and will speak briefly after a brief sermon by the minister, Thomas McCamant, on "The Needs of Christ."

According to the plan being followed it is expected that most of the members and friends of the church will bring their pledges to the church on next Sunday. They will be received and dedicated as a part of the service. A committee of ten canvassers will be commissioned to complete the canvass, calling on those who could not bring their pledges.

Church of God Youth Win Attendance Cup

A youth group from the First Church of God won a gold attendance cup awarded them at an annual Thanksgiving holiday convention of Youth Fellowship held at Woodburn.

This is the second consecutive year that Medford youth from the church have won the trophy and if they are again awarded the cup in 1955 it will remain in their permanent possession, according to the present youth advisor, Mrs. Joyce Jones. Eleven young persons from here attended the convention.
