

Annual Holiday Parties Planned by League, Clubs

With the advent of December, traditional holiday parties begin to brighten the social calendar. Various organizations have scheduled annual events and a number of valley couples are also planning large holiday parties.

One of the most important and largest of the yearly parties is the Christmas ball of Medford Junior Service league, set this year for Friday, December 17 at Rogue Valley Country club. Funds from the ball will benefit the kindergarten for hard of hearing children which the league maintains. The kindergarten is operated at 606 Victory street.

Mrs. George McGill and Mrs. Allyn Monroe are the co-chairmen and Mrs. Donald Herried is in charge of invitations. Mrs. Jack Reid heads the decorating committee and Mrs. Monroe also is planning the evening's menu.

In charge of the greeting committee is Mrs. Jack Lewis and Mrs. Ralph Hibbs is the chairman of a prize committee.

Lively Rogues Dance club will hold the annual Christmas dance Thursday, December 9. Dinner will be served at 7:30 o'clock in the Ashland Elks ballroom. Hosts for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Aldrich.

Club members are asked to make their dinner reservations immediately with Mrs. R. K. Rians, telephone 2-9910 evenings, or Mrs. Emerson T. Anderson, 2-2134.

Rogue Valley Country club has already made plans for the annual New Year's eve formal dance on Friday, December 31. Reservations may be made after December 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lynch and Mr. and Mrs. George Schuler are co-chairmen.

The annual open house of the country club has been set this year for Sunday, January 9, from 1 to 4 p.m.

Miss Conroy Sings With Chorists

Oswego — As a member of the Marylhurst college Chorists, Miss Nancy Conroy, freshman from Medford, will make several public appearances in December. The nine-voice Chorist group will present a program of carols December 5 for the annual Portland Christmas festival to be held in the Masonic temple. The festival is a civic affair designed to further the movement "to put Christ back into Christmas."

The Chorists' repertoire includes carols of Denmark, Burgundy, France, Cornwall, and medieval England, as well as traditional numbers.

Besides other Portland appearances, the Chorists are scheduled to sing in Oregon City, Oswego, and Milwaukie during the pre-holiday season.

Miss Conroy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. McKinley, 1102 West Ninth street.

In Hawaii

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Winetrou, who left here November 5, are now guests at the Cocoanut Grove hotel at Honolulu, Hawaii. They sailed on the Lurline and were first registered at the Royal Hawaiian hotel.

The Winetrous plan to spend some time on the various islands as they visit each one and plan to sail for home February 4.

Home Rites Wed Couple; To Live Here

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford E. Konopasek returned December 1 from their wedding trip to California and are living at 430 South Fir street. The bride is the former Miss Ardella Joe Shaul. The wedding was performed November 26 by Dr. F. Carl Truex of First Baptist church. About 50 guests attended the ceremony, held at 7 p.m. at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Shaul, 2481 Jo-Jack road.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Konopasek, 105 Elk street.

Mrs. Calvin Tolman, Willis, Calif., a niece of the bride, was matron of honor, and Mrs. Duane Konopasek, Klamath Falls, a sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was bridesmatron.

Janel Hammer, North Port, Wash., a niece of the bride, was the flower girl. Jerry Hammer, also of North Port, a nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Serving as best man for his brother was Duane Konopasek. Ushers were Mr. Tolman, Sam Bieroth of Medford, and Elmer Shaul Jr., Grand Ronde, Ore., brothers-in-law and brother of the bride.

Mr. Shaul gave his daughter in lace over satin and was designed with a high neckline and floorlength skirt. Her fingertip veil was held by a headpiece trimmed with seed pearls.

The attendants wore ballerina length gowns of aqua blue color and their bouquets were of lavender and white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Ike Risseuw, a sister of the bride from Grand Ronde, was soloist and was candle lighter.

The wedding setting was formed by an arch decorated with ferns and bells with ribbons. Baskets of lavender and white chrysanthemums also were used.

About 80 persons attended the reception which was held at the Central Point Grange hall.

The bride is a graduate of Willis, Calif., high school and is employed at Kim's restaurant.

The bridegroom was graduated from Niobrara, Neb., high school and is employed by the Pacific Pine Products, Inc.

Leaves

Mrs. I. E. Schuler left Wednesday for Portland where she will visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Walker Treece.

Later Mrs. Schuler expects to spend several months traveling.

In her absence Mrs. Schuler's home on Medford heights is being occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Gerald McGee.

Give Party

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wimberly Jr., were hosts for a cocktail party preceding the champagne supper given recently at Rogue Valley Country club by Medford Junior Service league. Guests were invited to the Wimberly home on Barneburg road.

Gleason-Saari Ceremony Held at Catholic Church

Miss DeLores Barbara Saari became the bride of Mervyn Charles Gleason II at rites read November 27 by the Rev. Charles J. Scott at Sacred Heart Catholic church. The 3 o'clock afternoon ceremony was attended by about 150 guests. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Paavo J. Saari, Shady Cove, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Gleason, Central Point.

The bride's father escorted her to the altar. Her gown of satin in princess style was made with a long train and she carried a white orchid on a white ribbon.

Miss Monte Middlebush, Salem, was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. John Millard, Eagle Point, Miss Mary Segesman, Shady Cove, Mrs. Merle Harper, Shady Cove, and Mrs. James Gleason, Central Point. Mrs. Gleason is a sister-in-law of the bridegroom.

Jessica Pennington was flower girl, and John Pennington was ring bearer.

James R. Gleason, Central Point, a brother of the bridegroom was best man. The ushers were Charles King, Jack Hughes, Ronald McKenna and Robert Messer, all of Medford.

Miss Middlebush and Mrs. Millard wore coral colored gowns and the other attendants wore gowns in a Nile green shade. All wore headresses and carried bouquets of chrysanthemums in different shades.

Mrs. Earl Bigelow, aunt of the bridegroom, gave the reception at the Parish hall. About 100 guests attended and decorations were in fall shades.

Those assisting at the reception were Mrs. A. E. Reinking, who cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Mary Jane Pennington, who served the punch. Mrs. Warren Hance, Miss Marcia Woodward and Miss Maxine Woodward assisted. Miss Arlene Arnold took charge of the guest book.

The bride's family has lived in the Shady Cove vicinity for about 12 years and came here from Wisconsin.

The Gleason family has lived in and around Central Point for many years.

The bride formerly was employed as a payroll and invoice clerk at Kogap Lumber industries. She was graduated in 1949 from Prospect high school.

The bridegroom is a 1948 graduate of St. Mary's high school. He is employed by the Cox and Sugg Construction company of Medford.

Children's Party Set December 18 At Country Club

The annual Christmas party for children of members of Rogue Valley Country club this year will be held Saturday, December 18, from 3 to 4:30 p.m., at the club house. Children from the ages of 3 to 7 years are invited and they are to take with them a wrapped toy marked as to whether it is for a girl or a boy.

The toys contributed will be distributed by the Medford Lady Lions to underprivileged children.

The entertainment will include singing, movies and refreshments. Gifts will be handed out by Santa Claus.

Mrs. B. Brandt Bartels and Mrs. Ivan Harrington are in charge. They will be assisted by Mrs. Dick Phair, Mrs. Dennis Gilchrist, Mrs. Ralph Thompson, Mrs. Oscar Halboth, Mrs. Emil Mohr and others.

Mounted Troop Luncheon Guests

Mrs. H. B. Murphy, captain of the Ladies Mounted troop, auxiliary to the Jackson County Mounted Sheriff's posse, entertained past captains of the group Thursday. Each year at this time the present captain entertains for the past captains.

The luncheon table was decorated with a center piece of red carnations, and miniature horses were used as place cards. Six of the 14 past captains attended.

In addition to Mrs. Murphy present were Mrs. Mary H. Brown, Mrs. O. D. Martin, Mrs. Harry Barneburg, Mrs. Bea Todd, Mrs. Guy Hughes, Mrs. C. Lyall Fidler and Mrs. W. M. Lemmon. Mrs. C. Reese Braley and Mrs. Homer Marx, other past captains who live here, were unable to attend. Three of the former captains live elsewhere.

They are Mrs. Luola Bengtson, Heppner, Ore., Mrs. Robert Sly, Eugene, and Mrs. Fred Slate, Salinas, Calif.

Mrs. Stanley Phillips, a former captain, is no longer a member of the troop.

During the next regular meeting of the troop, Tuesday, December 14, at the posse club house, the past captains will entertain at dinner, honoring Mrs. Murphy and the troop membership. Election of officers also will be held that evening.

Reames Chapter

Reames chapter, Order Eastern Star, will elect officers at a meeting Thursday, December 9, at 8 p.m., in the Masonic hall. Mrs. Carl Oestreich is chairman for the refreshments.

Captain, Family Visit in Medford; Home from Japan

Capt. and Mrs. Willis H. Caples and son, Craig, left Saturday after visiting here since Monday evening with Mrs. Caples' mother and step-father Mr. and Mrs. H. U. Mitchell, 608 South Riverside ave. Both the Caples are Medford High school graduates.

The family arrived at Seattle Saturday on the USS General Mann from Tokyo, Japan. He has been serving with the Army in the far East for 31 months and his wife and son have been overseas with him for 19 months.

The captain's next station is Ft. Myer, Va., near Washington, D. C.

They will visit through the Christmas holidays at Las Vegas, Nev., with his parents.

Captain Caples served in World War II and previous to that attended the University of Oregon. Mrs. Caples attended Oregon State college.
