

Extension Units Plan Meetings And Christmas Parties This Week

Several extension units of the county will study how to prepare appetizing meals from canned, stored and frozen foods when they hold meetings this week. Annual Christmas parties also are being planned with gifts for members and preparation of Christmas boxes for the less fortunate.

The Medford unit will hold the December meeting at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, December 8, in the Community building on Priddy street. The project is "Appetizing Meals." Each member is asked to take a gift not to exceed fifty cents in value for the Christmas exchange. They are also to take table service, and the food will be provided. Children will be cared for at the meeting.

Eagle Point—Eagle Point Extension unit will hold the December meeting at the home of Mrs. Edward Chamberlain, Brownsboro road, Thursday, December 9 at 10:30 a.m. Mrs. Mike Hopkenberger and Mrs. Otto Nagel will have charge of the project lesson. They will demonstrate "Appetizing Meals From Stored and Frozen Foods." Each member is asked to bring an article of food for a Christmas box instead of an exchange gift, a list of food which they have canned frozen or stored, and a small cook book.

Child care will be at the home of Mrs. R. G. Mosby on South B street, Eagle Point.

Medford Parents Home Extension unit will meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, December 7, at the home of Mrs. A. F. Filatreau, 124 Vancouver avenue. Subject for the evening is "Appetizing Meals From Canned, Frozen, and Stored Foods." Project leaders are Mrs. Arthur Hertager and Mrs. Ernest Lytle.

Each member is requested to take her favorite salad recipe.

There will be a Christmas gift exchange. Gifts can be of food or handwork, but must be hand made. The refreshment committee, Mrs. Russel Fowler, and Mrs. C. P. Smets, announce that it is not necessary to bring your own service to this meeting.

Reese Creek — Reese Creek Extension unit will meet Tuesday, December 7, at the home of Mrs. Ben Gardener.

The project leaders, Mrs. Ben Gardener and Mrs. Kenneth Dufour, will serve luncheon in connection with the lesson on canned, frozen and stored foods. Members are to take lists of foods they have stored.

Christmas gifts, to cost no more than 50 cents, will be exchanged.

Visitors are welcome to attend any unit meeting.

A Christmas party will be held by Howard Extension unit Thursday, December 9, at Harmony hall, Friends church. The event is set for 10:30 a.m. and children will be cared for in the home of Mrs. Malcolm McCarty, 2618 Table Rock road.

Willow Springs Home Extension unit will meet at 10:30 a.m. on Friday, December 10, at Willow Springs Community club. The lesson on "appetizing meals from frozen and canned foods" will be given by Mrs. Harry Ellis and Mrs. Mainwaring.

Luncheon will be served, and those attending are asked to take table service. There will be a Christmas exchange of hand-made gifts. All women of the community are invited to attend.

FUN-HONOR GROUP TO MEET THURSDAY

Mrs. H. J. Meiring, 2460 Hillcrest road, will be the hostess to members of 8 and 40, fun and honor organization of the American Legion auxiliary, when they meet Thursday, December 9 at 8 p.m.

Six Sisters Hold Reunion

Six sisters, daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Thompson, and their husbands met November 27 at the home of Horace W. Thompson, 3642 Hillsinger road, for a reunion and to celebrate the recent marriage of one of the sisters, Mrs. Gertrude Converse, to August P. Johnson.

The valley residents present were Mrs. Reginald Earl, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Diamond, Mrs. Carl von der Hellen and her daughter, Mrs. James C. Luce. Those who came from San Francisco were Mr. and Mrs. August P. Johnson, Atherton, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald F. Thomas of Fresno, Calif.

Mr. Johnson, was known here as "Augie" Johnson when he formerly represented the Standard Oil company and lived in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas stayed until Sunday to visit in the
