

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Chipman, Ashland, were honored Sunday, November 28, at an open house which observed their 40th wedding anniversary. Friends were invited to the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chipman, 155 Highland drive, Medford.

Ashland Couple Honored On Fortieth Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Chipman of 70 Fourth street, Ashland, were honored at an open house last Sunday, November 28, which observed their 40th wedding anniversary. The event was at the home of the Chipmans' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Chipman, 155 Highland drive, Medford, with friends calling between two and five o'clock.

Among the guests was Mr. Chipman's cousin, Mrs. Hallie Lloyd, Bakersfield, Calif. Mrs. Lloyd, who only recently moved to the west coast, had not seen her cousin for more than 50 years and her arrival in Medford for the event was kept a secret from Mr. Chipman until they met at the party. The two both formerly lived in Momenca, Ill.

Also at the anniversary open house was Mr. Chipman's brother, H. H. Chipman, Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Chipman were married in Spokane, Wash., December 1, 1914, and came to Ashland in September, 1927, from the Washington city. Their children are Harry Chipman, Medford, Mrs. W. D. Tuter, Dorris, Calif., and Mrs. Frith Turner, Lake Tahoe, Calif.

For the party, Mrs. Chipman wore a dark blue dress with corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. Lloyd remained in Ashland to visit the Chipmans.

ZIPPER ADJUSTS

New York—(U.P.)—Boon for expanding waistlines: an expanding zipper. One manufacturer is producing a zipper which adjusts to change in body size without clothing alteration. The zipper consists of two parts—a slider and a track. The slider can be moved along the entire length of the track, and by pressing the tab, be locked securely in place at any point. It is recommended for adjustable waistlines in maternity clothes, for children's clothes where waistline changes are rapid, or for active sportswear. The zipper is made in a variety of colors.

Holiday Luncheon Highlights Year For Unit Members

Upper Applegate—Highlighting their year's program, 26 members and two guests of Upper Applegate Home Extension unit met December 1 for the annual Christmas luncheon and gift exchange. Mrs. Gail Buffington was the hostess at her new home on the Big Applegate river.

The day's activities opened with a discussion on a "suggestion box," which has been used throughout the year for members to submit preferences for the next year's program. At the January meeting members will choose two of the suggestions for the coming year's work.

Presenting the day's project, "Appetizing Meals From Canned, Frozen, and Stored Foods," Mrs. Russell Mitchell and Mrs. George Sample described the preparation of, and served to-matoes with herbs and baked pears at the luncheon hour.

In stressing the five aims of the project, they pointed out that the lesson was to help the homemakers to have nutritious meals, use home canned and frozen foods to make meals more appetizing, get more variety in meals, save time and money by using food on hand, and work toward a food preservation plan.

The luncheon committee for the day was made up of Mrs. Rolland Smith, Mrs. William Ziegler, Mrs. Harry Helms, Mrs. Buffington, and Mrs. James Wingham.

Guests were Mrs. Edward Finley of the Upper Applegate, and Mrs. Herb De Vos, Sterling Creek road.

Meeting Planned

Plans for a Christmas party at Camp White will be made at a meeting of Rogue Valley Navy Mothers Tuesday, December 7. It will be held at Girls Community club beginning at 10:30 a. m. and a covered dish luncheon will be served at noon.

Christmas Seals, crepe paper, and clever fingers make a holiday party table. The decorations were designed by Denison Manufacturing Company to aid the Christmas Seal Sale conducted by the National Tuberculosis Association and its 3,000 affiliates to raise funds for their programs of TB prevention and control.

Study Group
The afternoon book review study group of American Association of University Women will meet Wednesday, December 8 at 1 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Buonocore, 433 West Eighth street. A Christmas reading will be presented by Mrs. Paul Dix.

Auxiliary-Guild Announces Party

Mrs. Herschel Morris, accompanied by Mrs. Ernest Conrad, will sing several selections for the annual Christmas party of the St. Mark's Auxiliary guild Friday, December 10, at the Guild hall. This will be the only December meeting of the guild.

Mrs. Earl Tomy will read a Christmas story and luncheon will be served at 12:30 p. m. by Mrs. L. D. Whiteford, Miss Lillian Whiteford, Mrs. B. C. Richards and Mrs. H. Bieghler. A gift exchange will be held.
