ILE Champion Gets Steer on TV Show

Chicago — (U.P.) — The 55th International Livestock Exposition ended yesterday, but its top heroine and champion are going on to new triumphs.

Sixteen year old Janice Hullinger was to take her grand champion Aberdeen Angus steer Shorty to New York for a television appearance Sunday.

The Manly, Iowa, girl's triumph was the high spot of this year's version of the world's biggest farm show. In addition, Shorty's sale for $16,650 to a Chicago restaurant will help Janice put her brothers and sisters through college.

Janice, who wants to be a secretary, has already received a shorthand machine and a scholarship to a Des Moines Business college. Both were the gifts of a business machine firm.
