

Oscar C. Bjorlie will direct the Southern Oregon college choir in the annual Christmas program to be given Sunday, December 12, in Churchill hall auditorium at 3:30 o'clock.

College Choir To Give Annual Vesper Service

Ashland—Numbers to be presented by the Southern Oregon college choir for the annual Christmas vesper program Sunday, December 12, have been announced by Director Oscar J. Bjorlie. The program, to be presented at 3:30 p.m. will be the annual candlelight presentation of seasonal music. Accompanist for the choir will be Miss Helene Robinson.

The choir will open the program with nine numbers which will include a Gregorian chant, Palestrina's "Gloria Patri" and Glarum's "Sing Praises." Paul Sherier will present a solo. The girls' sextet will sing two numbers, "All My Heart This Night Rejoices" and "Angels We Have Heard on High," both arranged by Mr. Bjorlie. A mixed octet will sing "Ye Watchers and Ye Holy Ones" and the traditional "Deck the Halls" and a male quartet will sing two traditional numbers, including the popular "God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen."

Meeting Planned In Central Point

Central Point—The child guidance study group of Central Point Parent-Teacher association will meet Wednesday, December 8, at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. O. T. Wilson, 431 North Second street. The topic, "Sensible Sex Answers" will be led by Mrs. Bert Simmons.

All mothers interested are invited to attend. Try this on your next bunch of beets, says the Gas Appliance Manufacturers association. Cook beets as usual, remove skins, slice, and serve them with seasoned sour cream. Once you've tried this, you'll have it again and again.

Friends Gather At Allen Home

A group of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Allen Jr., on the Rogue River Saturday evening for a potluck dinner. Following dinner motion pictures taken in the Puget Sound area were shown.

The pictures were taken during vacation boat trips made by the Allens, their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Allen III, and Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Miller. The pictures included scenes between Anacortes and Nanaimo on Puget Sound.

About 25 attended the party Saturday.

Department Commander Visits Lodge Here; Officers Elected

Maj. Gen. Roy V. Terney, Pendleton, department commander of Patriarchs Militant, made his official visit to Siskiyou canton during the annual Christmas party of the canton and auxiliary last Friday. It was held at Medford IOOF hall, and election of officers for both groups took place during separate business sessions.

Col. Ira Rinker, Sweet Home, inspector for the department, was unable to be present as planned and the inspection was conducted by Major Arthur Kellert, Kirby. Col. E. W. Pease, Medford, was also present and other guests were from Grants Pass and Klamath Falls.

Maj. Gen. Terney spoke to the two groups concerning how the work of the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs may be advanced. He also talked of the state convention to be held in La Grande in May.

Mr. and Mrs. Terney went to Grants Pass Monday for another dinner and inspection of the canton there.

Brig. Gen. Ed C. Abbey, O'Brien, was present and spoke of his wife, state secretary of the Ladies' auxiliary, who was seriously injured in an automobile accident some time ago.

Girl Scouts

Girl Scout Troop 39 recently held a potluck supper to complete work on the cooking badge. Each girl took a dish she had prepared herself. After the meal the girls did the cleanup work and then played games.

Earlier in the year the troop held a Halloween party, with guests coming in costumes and masks. After games, refreshments were served.

The troop is now working on the project of dressing a doll for Christmas.
