

Distribution of New Auto Licenses Starts in January

Local drivers whose license expire in January will get the first opportunity to obtain Oregon's new license plates which have yellow numbers on a blue background.

December renewals will have to be satisfied with the present plates and tabs through 1955, as will any new or out-of-state applications this month, the local office of the secretary of state.

motor vehicle division, reported. Old licenses will be replaced month by month during 1955. The licenses will be renewed each year thereafter by the present tab system for at least five years, officials said. The new licenses will feature one letter along with the numerals to designate the month the license expires in. January will be started with "A" and each succeeding month will have the next letter of the alphabet, except for "I" and "O" which are to be omitted to avoid numerical confusion. January renewals will go on sale by Dec. 15, officials stated. Truck license plates will feature the same colors for the whole year. However, if the lic enses are bought on a quarterly basis, as is allowed, the following colors will be issued: first quarter, red on white; second quarter (half year), green on white and third quarter, white on black.
