

SCORNS MCCARTHY—President Eisenhower displays familiar smile as he walks to his news conference. The President said he had no intention of indulging in personal quarrels with anyone and if Senator Joseph McCarthy and his followers want to form a new third party, it is their own business.

Portland Airport Terminal Seen by '58

Portland—(U.P.)—The president of the Port of Portland commission does not expect the proposed new terminal at Portland international airport to be completed before 1958.

W. L. Williams, in a routine report to the Chamber of Commerce aviation committee yesterday, said estimate of the distant completion date was brought about by legal delays in connection with leasing terminal space to airlines, and the time required for surveys and construction plans.

John J. Winn Jr., port manager, said no agreement has yet been reached with the Air Force on the location of a proposed jet interceptor alert hangar, a problem that has hampered airport planning.

Bears Take Lease On Heated Quarters

Jasper, Alta. —(U.P.)—Eight black bears had a guaranteed lease on steam-heated winter quarters today.

The bears holed up under a platform next to the Canadian National Railway Stores building and got heat by removing insulation from steam pipes that ran through the area.

The game warden for Jasper National Park told railway employees not to evict the animals. "They become quite vicious during the hibernation season," he said.

Lindbergh Kidnap Law Author Dies

Asheboro, N.C. —(U.P.)—Joseph B. Keenan, the man who wrote the Lindbergh kidnaping law and who served as chief U.S. prosecutor at the Japanese war crimes trial after World War II, died here yesterday at the age of 66.

Keenan, a member of the law firm of Keenan and West in Washington, D.C., and a resident of Chevy Chase, Md., was visiting a friend, Joseph Bosong, here when he suffered a fatal heart attack.
