Professor Grades Papers in Japanese

Norman, Okla.—(U.P.)—Many teachers dislike the task of grading students' papers, but a University of Oklahoma history professor does it the hard way—in Japanese.

Through the university's correspondence study department, Dr. Percy Buchanan teaches a Japanese language class 6,300 miles from his office.

His students consist of more than 20 soldiers and civilians attached to an American military base at Camp Sendai, Japan. A Japanese native aids in teaching pronunciation, but each member of the class is on his own when it comes to memorizing the difficult characters of the language. Each student follows Buchanan's study outlines, then sends the lessons to him for grading.

Buchanan is well qualified to teach the course. He was born in Japan of missionary parents, went to grade school there, and returned after college to become a missionary for 15 years. During World War II he served in Intelligence.

The affable, soft-spoken professor said his best student is not in Japan. He's an inmate at the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan., who enrolled to help pass the time.

GOP Chairman Praises Gard

Portland—(U.P.)—Leonard W. Hall, chairman of the Republican National committee, has written a letter of praise to Jean Gard, Oregon national committeeman, for his recent efforts to force a recount in the Richard Neuberger-Guy Cordon senate race.

Hall said the recount attempt was justified because of the closeness of the vote, the evidence of some irregularities and because the Senate seat afforded control of the Senate for the next two years.

The letter said Gard's efforts had also had the support of Vice President Richard Nixon and Senate Republican Majority Leader William F. Knowland, (Calif.).

Hall said Gard's petition for a recount, as a private citizen, was "a fine example of the proper procedure of a Republican national committeeman."

Neuberger, Democrat, defeated the incumbent Cordon by about 2400 to become Oregon's first Democratic senator elected in 40 years. Gard's recount attempt failed when Cordon declined to sign the petition.
