Portland Factory Guttled by Flames

Portland — (U.P.) — Fire, punctuated by sharp explosions destroyed the 200-foot long one-story plant of the Northwest Copper works in Portland Saturday.

Twenty-four pieces of fire equipment, including three fire boats, answered the three alarms.

Clouds of smoke drifted across the Willamette river, attracting hundreds of spectators.

Nearly all of the roof of the big plant collapsed and one wall caved in. No one was reported hurt.

The plant closed on Saturdays but a worker at the Albina Engine and Machine works nearby spotted the blaze and turned in the first alarm.

The plant owner, L. R. (Pick) Husa, said he was unable to estimate damage to the five-year-old plant. He said the damage, however, was covered by Insurance. Husa also owns the Albina Engine works.

Marine Corp Slates Display in Medford

Armaments, medals and models of planes will be on display here Tuesday at a Marine Corps traveling exhibit to be stationed at Main st. and Riverside ave., it was announced today.

Housed in a large tractor-trailer unit, the exhibit will be open to the public without charge. The trailer is so constructed and display material installed in such a way as to permit visitors to walk through the trailer and view the entire exhibit.

Included in the display items are the medals and decorations, including the Medal of Honor, worn by Marines, a display of battle streamers of the three active Marine divisions; a 3.5 inch rocket launcher and rocket; a water-cooled .30 caliber machine gun, and other items.

The traveling exhibit is now on a four-month tour of the eight western states.

Subcommittee Hears Ex-China Residents

San Francisco — (U.P.) — A U.S. Senate subcommittee, headed by Sen. Herman Welker, (R-Ida.), held a one-day hearing today with the aim of spotlighting the activities of "some American citizens who have lived in Red China."

Welker said the principal witness would be Mrs. Sylvia Powell, 34, wife of John W. Powell, editor and lecturer who spent 15 years in China. Powell himself could not be found to be served with a subpoena.

Other witnesses will include the widow of an Army lieutenant who died in a North Korean prisoner of war camp and seven former Army and Air Force prisoners of war.

WHEN COLDS MAKE HIM CRY — Give Your Baby Relief that DOES MORE THAN WORK ON CHEST!

When a cold makes your child miserable, he needs a medication that does more than just work on his chest. He needs Vicks VapoRub — because it acts two ways at once:

1. VapoRub relieves muscular soreness and tightness, stimulates chest surfaces.

2. At the same time, VapoRub's special medicated vapors also bring relief with every breath.

You can't see these vapors, but your child can feel them as they travel deep into the nose, throat and large bronchial tubes. Congestion starts breaking up. Coughing eases. Soon he enjoys warming relief that lasts for hours.

So when colds strike, use the best-known home remedy to relieve such suffering — Vicks VapoRub.

Seems to be some confusion as to the matrimonial career of Lady Sylvia Ashley. Note Clark Gable referred to as her fifth husband. He was her fourth. Sylvia's spouses in the order of acquiring same and years of weddings were: 1—Lord Ashley, 1927. 2—Douglas Fairbanks, 1936. 3—Lord Stanley, 1944. 4—Clark Gable, 1949. Lady Sylvia recently said, "My marriage to Douglas Fairbanks was perfect. He was ideal, gay, intelligent and charming. My other husbands? It would not be dignified to discuss them."

Asking Queries from clients. Q.—Who first said George Washington was "first in war, first in peace and first in the hearts of his countrymen"? A.—Colonel Henry (Light Horse Harry) Lee. Q.—I claim William Farnum played the title role in the original stage production of "Ben Hur" and W. S. Hart portrayed Messala. Right? A.—You are only 50 per cent right, sir. When "Ben Hur" opened at the Broadway Theater, New York, on Nov. 29, 1899, Edward J. Morgan played Ben Hur and W. S. Hart played Messala. The same W. S. Hart, who later achieved fame as the "Two Gun Man" of the films.

Among the Married To keep a husband happy a wife must "continually vamp and mother him." So claims an expert on life among the married. Keep it in mind, lady. When you get your husband alone start to vamp him. Turn the charm on. Feature provocative perfumes, plunging necklines, etc. Make goo-goo eyes at him. However, don't forget to mother him. At breakfast is a good time for that. Tickle him tenderly under the chin and say, "Does Mama's cute itty-bitsy boy want some more cream in his coffee, does him?" Let us know if following this technique makes your husband happy or inspires him to think you have gone off your rocker. We would like the information for our Horses & Women files.

Then and Now According to recent announcements the film production of "Moby Dick" will cost $4,000,000, and that of "Guys and Dolls," $6,000,000. The production of D. W. Griffith's "Birth of a Nation" was $60,000. It grossed over $30,000,000!

Shocked Grandpa Pittsburgher reports that on a recent visit to his house his two grandchildren, aged 3 and 6, respectively (both girls), proudly displayed new miniature handbags. In these handbags, he reports were miniature lipsticks, rouge and powder puffs. He comments, "Isn't 3 years old a little young for a girl to start using lipstick or am I too old fashioned?"

Horses and Women What are the ideal measurements for that type of female referred to as "a sultry charmer"? The Italians seem to prefer their sultry charmers tall and generously proportioned. That is, except for the waist measurement, which is fixed at twenty-three inches. A major factor in making a charmer sultry is said to be a small waist and an ample bosom. The measurements of one of Italy's outstanding sultry charmers, Sofia Loren, are, height, 5 feet 8; weight 129; bust, 37; waist, 23 and hips, 38.

Brooklyn Again Once again Brooklyn tops the country. This time with an alternate birth record. Brooklynites John and Margaret Lynch are the parents of thirteen children with sex alternating at each blessed event. First a boy, then a girl and so on up to the thirteenth. Twelve of the Lynch children are living; six boys and six girls. All the girls are readheads except one, who is a blonde. All the boys are blonds, except one who is a redhead. An unusual family. Even for Brooklyn.

Pope Has Fever From Overwork

Vatican City — (U.P.) — Pope Pius XII developed a slight fever today from week end overwork.

Authoritative Vatican sources said the Pope was tired. They said his doctors had forbidden him to return to the desk where he had been sitting up, working on church papers.

These sources emphasized there was no cause for alarm, noting that his temperature has been erratic ever since his collapse 11 days ago.

The Pope's development of a temperature after what the Vatican called a "very good night" indicated the frail pontiff is still weak, despite his progress.

His doctors told him he must get more rest because his illness tends to recur when he overexerts himself.

Bridge at Nyssa Opened To Traffic

Ontario, Ore. — (U.P.) — Planking on the temporary bridge across the Snake river at Nyssa was in place shortly before noon Sunday and the bridge was opened to traffic Sunday afternoon.

The temporary structure replaces the Oregon-Idaho span that collapsed December 5. Since then three shifts have been working around the clock under direction of T. M. Stephenson, assistant state bridge engineer from Salem to restore the traffic artery.
