

Natural Look Now Prevails Among New York Debutantes

By ELIZABETH TOOMEY
United Press Correspondent
New York (U.P.)—The average debutante now is a girl who does her own hair, likes the natural look of unplucked eyebrows and pink lipstick and scrubs her face regularly with soap and water.

Doesn't sound much like a spoiled darling with expensive tastes and a tendency to dance nightly till dawn, does it? The new look debutante, usually a college freshman who is more concerned with sociology than the social register, has changed considerably since mamma's day.

She doesn't expect an extravagant debut party and she likes to do things for herself. 100 Make Bows

The 100 girls who will make their bows to society at the Debutante Cotillion, one of the season's top balls, on December 20 were surveyed to discover what

Program Planned At Ruch Grange

Ruch—Upper Applegate Sunday school will present a short Christmas program at Grange hall Sunday, December 19 at 10:30 a.m. There will be numbers by primary, junior, and Bible classes, and an adult speaker will present the Christmas story. Children's gift exchange and treats will complete the program. Everyone is invited to attend.

a typical modern debutante does to make herself look pretty.

She not only prefers to set her own hair, the survey revealed, but the average debutante is old-fashioned about her hairdo. She prefers a long, soft bob, much like the one worn by glamour deb Brenda Frazier 14 years ago, to the fashionably short hair cut.

The girls got together for lunch recently and filled out long questionnaires about their beauty habits. The cotillion is sponsored by Jacqueline Cochran, famous woman pilot who owns her own cosmetics company.

Charity Benefits
Part of the new look to debuts these days is getting together with other socially-eligible teenagers and making a debut in a big party sponsored by a business concern. Guests buy tickets to attend, but expenses are paid by the sponsor so that all the proceeds may go to charity. The cotillion benefits the New York Infirmary.

The money it costs a father to give his daughter this kind of a debut wouldn't have paid the flower bill at a coming out party like the $60,000 wingding Barbara Hutton's father gave her in 1930.

Club Party

Wednesday Study club has planned the annual Christmas party for December 15 at 2 p.m. at Girls Community club.

Chapter to Hold Two Yule Parties; Workers Named

Two Christmas parties, one for children of members and another for members, were planned by Alpha Rho chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, at the last meeting.

The children's party will be Sunday, December 19, from 2 to 4 p.m. at Lone Pine school gymnasium. Each child who attends is asked to take one 25 cent gift for exchange. Mrs. C. G. Shouts was appointed general chairman for the affair, and committees include music, Mrs. Paul Dix, refreshments, Mesdames Russell Budreau, Tom Lytle, Maynard Paup, Harold Skinner, decorations, Mesdames Roger Note, Shouts and William Werner.

A committee was appointed to make popcorn balls Saturday at the home of Mrs. Note. They are Mesdames H. Schroeder, William Werner, George Johns, John Lambert, James Sullivan and Mrs. Note. The program will include the reading of the traditional poem "The Night Before Christmas" and singing of Christmas carols. James Dunlevy will be Santa Claus.

The member's party is to be given by the chapter's sponsor and director, Mrs. K. L. Denton and Mrs. Mamie Sleeter. It will be held at the home of Mrs. Sleeter, Monday, December 20, at 8 p.m. Mrs. Budreau and Mrs. Note will assist in serving. The program will be conducted by the program chairman, Mrs. Larry Allen, and cards are planned for the evening.

These arrangements were made at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. Ray Morton, 400 Ardmore avenue. Mrs. Shouts served as co-hostess. The cultural program for the evening was conducted by Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Curt Butterfield. It was entitled "People," and concerned the differences in living in Mexico and in the United States. Excerpts from the book, "My Heart Lies South," by Elizabeth Gomez, were read for illustration.

The next regular meeting of the group will be January 3 at the home of Mrs. Allen, 176 Hamilton street.

Gardeners Hold Christmas Party In Rogue River

Rogue River — Members of Laurel Garden club entertained the Evans Valley Garden club at a turkey dinner recently, the event being at the home of Mrs. Gus Ruehling, Highway 99 south. Decorations were in the Christmas theme.

A business meeting and program followed dinner. Group singing of Christmas carols opened the program and Mrs. George Barrie, Evans Valley, gave a reading. Solos were sung by Mrs. Durlay Fabric and Mrs. Harry Condray, and readings were also given by Mrs. Marjorie Griffin, Mrs. Henry Bonney and Mrs. Charles Babcock.

Mrs. Walter Kasworn, dressed in red and white with long gray beard, played Santa Claus and gave out gifts from the Christmas tree.

Mrs. Vern Orr, Evans Valley, won a prize.

Co-hostesses with Mrs. Ruehling were Mrs. Henry Bonney, Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. William White, Mrs. C. B. Willoughby, and Mrs. Jerusha Moore.

Next meeting will be January 5 at the Civic clubrooms. Mrs. Betty Kasworn will be hostess, with Mrs. Hayden Williams and Mrs. James Whipple as co-hostesses.

Zontians Collect Christmas Dolls; Miss Bell Speaks

Dolls which will be distributed to many little girls in Medford were collected at the annual Christmas party of the Medford Zonta club held Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Mildred Wilson, 15 Tripp street. Several of the members had made the dolls clothing and these were especially attractive.

Miss Mary Ellen Bell was the guest of the evening and talked about her trip in Europe primarily emphasizing the deplorable conditions in Spain. The speaker remarked that it had been just exactly a year ago when she arrived in Spain and soon discovered she was practically in another world where conditions of the middle ages still exist. Miss Bell made her audience realize how much the people of this nation have to be thankful for, particularly the comfort of heating systems in the cold weather. Christmas in Spain as she observed it lacked the feeling of joy and goodwill such as we have but instead it was rather a rowdy celebration.

Mrs. Wilson was assisted by Mrs. Ireen Grigsby and Mrs. Florene Bolton.

Medford Bethel To Hold Election

Election of officers will be held at a meeting of Medford Bethel, Job's Daughters Wednesday, December 15, 7:30 p.m. at the Masonic Temple. Initiation of new members is also planned. All parents of Bethel members, Eastern Star and Masonic members are cordially invited to attend.

Bethel members are asked to wear formal gowns.

Mistletoe Camp Announces Party

Mistletoe camp, Royal Neighbors of America, will hold a Christmas party Thursday, December 16, at 7:30 p.m. at the Pythian building. Members of the juvenile club will be guests and will furnish the program.

Santa Claus is expected to call during the evening, bringing treats for the youngsters. The camp will serve refreshments following the evening's entertainment.
