

Lodges Announce Holiday Events; Party Announced

Gold Hill—Past Noble Grand club and Rebekah Friendship club of Amethyst Rebekah Lodge, Gold Hill, will have a joint Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Lester Parker, Monday, December 20, at 8 p.m. Mrs. George Dorman, Mrs. Donald Hodge and Mrs. John Cogswell will assist Mrs. Parker. Secret pals will be revealed. Those who do not have a secret friend should bring a gift for exchange.

At the December 13 meeting of Amethyst Rebekah Lodge a resolution was read to change the meeting night from Monday to Wednesday night. Mrs. Daniel Stewart, Mrs. Wilmer Bailey and Mrs. Lester Parker worked on the committee. The resolution will be voted on at the next regular meeting.

Mrs. Fred Lester qualified for the office of Noble Grand which she will take in January. Mrs. Lester reported on the benefit card party the Odd Fellows are having Saturday, December 18, at the hall to raise funds for the annual community Christmas tree which is sponsored by Odd Fellows and Rebekahs each year for children of the community. Rebekahs are asked to furnish pies. Admission tickets are now being sold by Odd Fellows.

The noble grand, Mrs. J. Les Graffis, appointed Mr. and Mrs. Alva Walker to be in charge of the children's Christmas program. Children wishing to take part should contact them.

Refreshment committee for December is Mrs. William Fields, Mrs. Ferd Jones, Mrs. James Clement and Mrs. William Hall.

Annual Christmas Programs Planned by Schools of City

The music department of Medford city schools announces that the annual series of Christmas programs will again be held this year in each school.

Roosevelt Grade school will hold the first in the pre-Christmas series Friday evening, December 17. Children from the first three grades will be presented in a story of Christmas, "The First Noel."

Washington school will also present children from the first three grades in scenes depicting Christmas cards and favorite Christmas themes. The program is to be given on two evenings, Tuesday and Wednesday, December 21 and 22, with two completely different casts of students participating.

Tuesday, December 21, at 2 p.m., fourth, fifth and sixth grade students of Jackson school will present "Music Fills the Air," a story of Christmas in song and tableaux.

Lincoln school's program, scheduled for Wednesday, December 22 at 1:30 p.m. will give each child in the building an opportunity to perform. Each room, plus the chorus, band and orchestra will perform.

Medford Junior and Senior High school concerts will feature their own vocal groups and orchestras in a wide variety of the sacred and secular in Christmas music. The junior high concert, scheduled for Tuesday, December 21, will begin at 7:30 and the senior high concert on Wednesday, December 22, will begin at 8 p.m.

The public is cordially invited to attend any of these Christmas programs. There will be no admission charge.

Club Party Held In Rogue River

Rogue River — A business meeting preceded the Christmas party of Rogue River Garden club, held at the home of Mrs. Sam Bellah Monday afternoon. Co-hosts were Mesdames Hayden Williams, Harold Dunham, Everett Lapham and Bede Davis.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Charles O. McLellan, Mrs. Charles Carroll, past president presided.

Twenty-six members and two guests were present. An honorary member, Mrs. Effie Birdseye, attended and guests were Mrs. William Goodfellow and Mrs. Al Osborne, who became a member at the close of meeting. Mrs. Osborne was secretary for two and a half years when this club was first organized.
