Come to Church on Christmas...

Holy Communion Service To Open Yule Observances

Traditional Christmas services at St. Mark's Episcopal church will begin with a festal choral celebration of holy communion beginning at 11 p.m. on Christmas eve with the church decorated with everygreens, poinsettias, and candles, the service will include a short Christmas meditation by the rector and selected Nativity music by St. Mark's Senior choir, under the direction of Charles Bird, with Verl O. Failing at the organ.

In addition to Christmas hymns, the music will include the anthems, "Bohemian Carol," "There Were Shepherds," and organ selections. The Rev. Robert L. Greene, vicar of the Church of the Good Shepherd at Prospect, will assist the rector in the administration of the holy sacrament. This service will be broadcast over radio station KYJC through the kindness of Courtesy Chevrolet, and will thus be audible through radio to any overflow of worshippers accommodated in the adjoining hall.

Christmas Day

The Christmas eucharist will be celebrated again Christmas day at 10 a.m. with meditation by the rector and organ accompaniment by Verl O. Failing. The choir will not sing at this service. Organ selections will include "The Christmas Prelude," "Panis Angelicus," "Echo of Spring," and "Bethlehem."

Services on Sunday, St. Stephen's day, will include holy communion at 8 a.m. and a service of worship and Christmas carols at 11 a.m. with the Rev. M. N. Greene delivering the sermon. St. John's day and Holy Innocents day will be reserved for private services with the sick and shut-in.

The rector will conduct the opening devotions from KBES-TV. at 3:40 p.m. on Christmas Eve and 3:20 p.m.

Christmas Program Staged Wednesday

A Christmas program was presented at the Temple Baptist church, 794 Lozier lane, last Wednesday evening. The church was decorated with boughs of Green and holly, with large pine cones scattered among them. There was a Christmas tree with decorations and lights. These were backed up with a fireplace screen with stockings hanging from the mantle, reminiscent of home life of long ago.

Every department of the Sunday school had a part in the presentation of the Christmas program. The Young People furnished the tree and did the decorating. The Beginner, Primary, Junior, and Intermediate departments presented the program. Adults furnished treats for all the youngsters and the W.M.U. prepared them.

Following the program of the departments the church presented the pastor, Floyd Yeats, and his family, with a 57-piece set of chinaware. Children were given treats of candy, nuts, and fruit.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

The subject for Sunday services at the Christian Science church will be "Christian Science," and the Golden text will be from Peter II, 1:21. The passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy will be from Page 26.

Organ Loaned Church For Yuletide Music

The Congregational church, 300 Oakwood dr., will have organ music for two Sundays. An electronic organ has been loaned to the church by the Lusk Piano house.

Christmas music will be presented again this Sunday by the choir, under the direction of Mrs. W. H. Kennerley. The choir will sing, "Lo, How a Rose." There will also be a women's trio singing "Gesu Bambino."

The sermon by the minister will be on "The Light We Take With Us."

Even as the Star guided the three wise men to Christ in Bethlehem, so may we find spiritual guidance in the age-old message of Christmas, along with renewed courage to work steadfastly for a world of peace and mutual understanding.

Report on Adventists' Orphanage in Korea Received in Medford

Mrs. H. Miracle, senior Dorcas leader of the Seventh-day Adventist church in Medford, reports that she received a letter from Miss Irene Robson, head nurse at the S. D. A. orphanage in Seoul, Korea.

Miss Robson spent part of her year's furlough with her sister, Dr. Robson of Grants Pass, returning to Seoul in July, 1954.

She reports that she was welcomed by 300 youngsters who looked in execellent health, well clothed and fed. For this she expresses appreciation to the Dorcas Societies of America for their help. She says, however, there is still a need for long underwear, long stockings, socks and shoes, underpanties for boys and girls, and warm blankets.

New School

According to Miss Robson, these children are being taught in a new school completed during her absence. Besides the fundamentals, the children are gaining a practical experience in gardening and raising chickens. These projects help supply food for the institution's children.

The boys are being taught to use carpenter's tools and the girls help out in the laundry, she adds.

She reports that the girls are learning to sew on machines sent from the U. S.

Anyone wishing to donate any of the above articles may telephone Mrs. Miracle at 2-7206 or call at 1702 Corona ave.

Last in Series Of Messages Due

"The Word Made Flesh" will be the theme of the message at 11 a.m. at the Friends church, Sunday. This will be the last in the Christmas series being preached by the pastor, Clynton Crisman. "A Boy and His Bible," a 16 mm. sound film with a Christmas theme, will be shown during the Sunday school hour at 9:45 a.m.

A Christmas concert will be presented at 7:30 p.m. by the combined adult and youth choirs with Mrs. Alvin Roberts as narrator. Included in the program will be familiar selections, including "Gesu Bambino," "Star of the East," and "Gloria in Excelsis." Mrs. Clynton Crisman is choir director and Mrs. Orrin Ogier pianist. The public is invited.

Presbyterians To Hear Yule Sermon

Dr. D. Kirkland West, minister of the First Presbyterian church, will preach on "Where Did Christmas Go?" at both services at the church Sunday.

Music will include an anthem by the Westminster choir at the 9:45 a. m. service, and an anthem by the Chancel choir at 11 a. m. The Triple trio will sing "There Were Shepherds in the Field" at both services.

The evening service will be conducted by representatives home from colleges, including Dick Bates, Priscilla West, Blake Maddox, Kathryn McAllister, Ellen West, Ann Denman, Ruth Taylor, Diane Findley, Donna Witter, Carolyn Coleman and Gary Fleming. Their topic will be, "Problems a Christian Meets at My College." Fireside will be at the home of Lewis McLaren, 1820 Crown ave.

Bible Reading Program Success

Results of the worldwide Bible reading project, sponsored locally by the Medford Council of Church Women and the Medford Ministerial association, were reported today by the Rev. Thomas McCamant, chairman of the Bible committee.

He said that more than 80 per cent of the members of the 29 participating church congregations here took part in the interchurch Bible reading project, which began at Thanksgiving and will close at Christmas.

"A survey of the pastors of the churches showed an exceedingly wide participation," he said. "In daily reading and study of the Bible; there has come to many hundreds of families and individuals a deeper knowledge and appreciation of the scriptures."

Mr. McCamant paid high tribute to the cooperation of the church women and the cooperating churches of Medford and the vicinity, who participated with the planning committee.

Service Schedule At St. Peter's Told

The schedule for worship services at St. Peter's Lutheran church, 1020 East Main st., was announced today by the pastor, the Rev. Kenneth Korby.

The traditional children's service will be held Christmas eve, beginning at 8 o'clock. The choir, under the direction of Al Huntemann, will present a brief concert of Christmas music, beginning at 7:45.

Saturday morning, Christmas day, the worship service will begin at 10 o'clock, with sermon and holy communion. Mrs. Ivis Clay, Central Point, will play a violin offertory at this service.

Sunday, Dec. 26, St. Stephen the Martyr's day will be observed with sermon and holy communion at 11 a.m. Sunday school and Bible classes will begin at 9:30 a.m.

'Christmas Visitors' Theme Of Service at Assembly

"Christmas Visitors' " day will be held Sunday at the Medford Assembly of God, 1108 West Main st., according to the pastor, the Rev. F. Wildon Colbaugh.

Recognition will be given to visitors in all the services and a gift from the holy land will be given to each.

Friends of the church are invited and are asked to bring their house guests with them. Music with the Christmas theme will be featured.

Campaign Concluded

Tis Sunday will conclude the "class enlargement campaign" which has been conducted during December. The class showing the highest average increase will receive a turkey for a class dinner. During the opening program of the Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. ah award will be given to the person bringing the most visitors with them.

The Rev. Mr. Colbaugh will speak at the 11 a. m. worship service on "The Christmas Visitors." Ray McCoy will sing.

At 6:30 p. m. the Christ's Ambassadors and the choir of the church will go to Camp White for the chapel service where they will present again the cantata "Night of Nights."

"Is Christ Coming Again?" will be the subject for the pastor's Sunday message at the 7:30 evangelistic rally.

Baptists To Hear Guest Speaker

The Rev. R. J. Cochran will be guest speaker at the First Baptist church Sunday, Dec. 26, in the absence of Dr. F. Carl Truex, interim pastor. The Rev. Mr. Cochran, on furlough from missionary work in Iraq, will speak at the 11 a.m. service on the subject, "Why Did He Come?"

Baptist Leagues meeting at 6:30 p.m. will also hear the returned missionary. He will show slides of Iraq and display curios from the country. The speaker is versed in the customs of the land where Christ was born, and will speak of the Christmas story in that light.

At the evening service at 7:30, the combined choirs of the church will present an evening of Christmas music. The program will open with several numbers by the youth choir, directed by Mrs. Ted Graham. J. Robert Cochran will lead the adult choir in their music and also direct several numbers by the combined groups. Mrs. Ted Graham is organist and Miss Sonja Peterson, pianist. The Rev. R. J. Cochran will give a short message.

Methodists Plan Candlelight Event

The traditional candle light Christmas eve service will be held in the First Methodist church beginning at 11 p.m. Friday, Dec. 24. The Youth choir will sing. Soloist will be Mrs. George Sloniger. Dr. Raymond E. Balcomb will preach on the theme "The Night Before Christmas."

Christmas Communion Sunday will be observed at the 9:30 and 11:00 a.m. services of morning worship on December 26, with Dr. Balcomb preaching on "The I.Q. of a Christian." Wilson will be the soloist at the first service and Mrs. Howard Bush at the second. The Chancel choir, under the direction of Mrs. Sloniger, will song.

"John Wesley" a 77-minute motion picture produced by J. Arthur Rank, will be shown at 7:30 p.m. Sunday evening.

Music Will Feature Zion Lutherans' Christmas Eve

Zion Lutheran church, fourth st., and Oakdale ave., will observe the celebration of Christ's Birth with a service of worship beginning at 11 p.m., Friday, Christmas Eve.

With Mrs. Lorraine Veidt Evensen at the organ, the prelude will be started before the hour. The music will be "In the Stillness of the Night." During the prelude the altar candles will be lighted by the acolytes, Barbara Myers and Janice Hillerman.

During the service most of the favorite Christmas carols will be sung by the congregation.

Choir Will Sing

The choir, under the direction of Oscar Bjorlie, will present much of the Christmas story through selected anthems, including "How Far is it to Bethlehem?" "Lowly in a Manger," and "This Day We Sing of Our Savior's Birth." Other numbers will be "Birthday of a King," "Vigil," and "Good News From Heaven."

The Rev. H. G. Hillerman, pastor, will bring the Christmas message.

Following the Benediction the congregation will sing "Silent Night, Holy Night" as a carol.

All those interested in a special celebration of Christ's Birth are invted.

'One Last Look' at 1954 Plan of Church

Members of the Medford Church of the Nazarene will take "one last look" at 1954 in a special service of "Old Things" at 7:30 p. m., December 26. A reserved section will seat those 70 years of age or older to honor those having reached the Biblical three score years and ten.

Gifts will be presented to the oldest man and the oldest woman in attendance.

Ed Taylor, minister of music, has planned a service of old songs. Old Bibles, hymnals, paintings, church manuals, and other items of religious value will be on display.

The public is invited.
