Safe Driving Day Accident Victim Dies

Portland—(U.P.)—John Sheridan, 49, of Portland, the first person injured in Oregon on Safe Driving Day, Dec. 15, died last night, apparently as a result of his injuries.

Sheridan was struck by a car and was hospitalized for treatment of leg and pelvis injuries. It was later found that he also had internal injuries.

Another injured pedestrian, Mrs. Matilda Turner, 75, of Portland, died early today in a Portland hospital. She suffered multiple fractures and a head injury Nov. 26 when she was struck by a car at an intersection. Driver of the car, Richard A. Cellarius, 17, was cited for failure to yield the right of way.

The county coroner's office said it was likely both deaths would be added to Portland accident toll as traffic fatalities 37 and 38.

Lebanon Sentences Two Arabs To Death

Beirut, Lebanon—(U.P.)—The Lebanese Supreme court today sentenced two Arabs to death on charges of spying for Israel. Nineteen other members of the alleged spy ring received sentences ranging from 20 years to one month in prison.

INGENIOUS ESCAPE—A New York reporter examines dummy left behind in cell on Rikers Island by prisoner Steve Lopez. The 35-year-old convict's ingenious escape involved his prowess as a "cat burglar" and key maker. Lopez fashioned a raft from drift wood, was picked up by a tug, taken to hospital by unknowing police and allowed to leave. He was recaptured at a rendezvous spot he picked for his girl friend.

EUREKA HIT BY QUAKE—A salesgirl steps gingerly through shattered glass and wreckage of downtown store in Eureka, Calif., after a powerful earthquake hit the quiet lumber town. Officials estimated the quake, which had a Richter magnitude of 6.25, caused a million and a half dollars' damage. One man was killed and at least 25 other persons were injured.

30 Seconds Would Have Saved Airmen

Pittsburgh—(U.P.)—Thirty more seconds in the air may have saved the lives of a civilian pilot and nine servicemen who died when a DC3 crashed into the Monongahela river last Wednesday after running out of gas.

L. H. Rinebold, supervising agent of the CAA Air Carrier Office at Greater Pittsburgh Airport, said today that if the engines had held out for another half minute, Pilot Harold A. Poe could have brought the airliner into Allegheny County Airport with a glide.
