College Girls Take Part In Unique Education Plan

By ELIZABETH TOOMEY
United Press Correspondent
New York — (U.P.) — Forty-five college girls sailed for Europe today with brand new diaries in their luggage and their text books safely packed away back in Ohio.

Once in Europe, the girls will scatter in four directions to carry out a unique, two-month education project started three years ago by Lake Erie college in Painesville, Ohio.

One girl will study baroque organs and organ music in Goettingen, Germany. Another will investigate housing projects in Copenhagen, Denmark. "We write a thesis on our project and we must keep a diary of our impressions of the things we see," Barbara Ledich, 20, explained. "We aren't graded on them. We only pass or we fail. If we fail it's a loss of 10 credits and that is disastrous."

Cards and dancing were enjoyed for the remainder of the evening.

Following the business meeting, the members exchanged Christmas gifts, and Mrs. Fagalde served refreshments.

Family Dinner Held at Smiths

Among the many family Christmas dinners in the valley was a reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, 1540 Spring street.

Guests were Mrs. Estella Morningstar, Portland; Lt. Col. and Mrs. M. J. Engquist, San Francisco, Mrs. Engquist being the former Inez Morningstar; Mr. and Mrs. Dale C. Sixteen will go to Copenhagen, nine to Trogen, Switzerland, 17 to Grenoble, France, and three to Goettingen, Germany. In each city the head of the local university is the head of the Erie College committee supervising the girls.

They already have studied the language of the country to which they plan to travel, except the Copenhagen visitors, since the college gives no Danish language course.

Each girl lives with a family that represents approximately the same income level as her own family back home.

Diaries from past years show that two things amaze the girls the most about their midwinter term abroad.

"The lack of central heating and the late dinner hours," a college official said. "And most of the girls come back convinced they don't know enough about their own country. They're asked so many questions by the people they meet over there."
