First on Monday

The first showing is scheduled for Monday, Jan. 3, and the series will be completed Thursday, Feb. 3. All showings will start at 8 p.m. The film forum is sponsored by several cooperating Jackson county groups, working through the mental health committee.

Prominent leaders in the field of mental health will lead discussions at each showing.

The New Year, with the traditional horn-toting, dancing, shows and watch parties, will be ushered in New Year's eve in Jackson county in numerous ways.

The night spots, dinner houses and ballrooms have gone to extra expense and effort to see that their patrons will enjoy seeing the old year out and the new one in with the customary paper hats, tin horns, confetti or serpentine.

Granges throughout the valley, too, have made extensive plans for the gaiety of their guests at dances which will be open to the public. Lodges also have planned public events.

The Craterian theater will be the only theater in Medford to have a midnight show. A "sneak preview" of "So This Is Paris" is scheduled, according to the management.

In addition to the public dances, dinners and parties, there also will be many private parties at clubs, churches, lodges, and homes.

Dining places have planned special dinners on New Year's day.

Grange

Eagle Point Grange

The December 21 meeting of Eagle Point Grange was conducted by the newly elected officers with Mrs. Lester Wertz, master, presiding.

Visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Leland Charley of Lake Creek Grange and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bush of Gold Hill Grange. Mr. and Mrs. Harry DeVore were approved by the membership committee and elected to membership.

Agriculture chairman, Bob Bitterling, reported concerning the treatment for preserving fence posts.

Milroy Charley reported that cattle are being sold in large numbers at this time and advised holding as long as possible for a better price later. Egg prices are holding steady but are threatened by sale of storage eggs through certain channels at considerably reduced prices, he said. It is believed that next year will be a good year to increase the chicken business as many flocks are being sold because of high feed costs.

Mrs. Otis Hill gave an interesting account of a phase of Civil Defense, the Ground Observer posts, one of which she and Mr. Hill operate at their home in the Clinax vicinity.

Pennants will be awarded again this year by State Grange to all subordinate Granges with dues paid by March first, a letter from the State Grange secretary announced.

H.E.C. chairman, Carol Clymer, noted a number of Polyanthus gifts at her station including Robert Hill, Mrs. Mittelstaedt, Ruby Stowell, Billie Vestal and Crete Carnall.

Mrs. Tom Vestal and Vern Mathews were installed by Paul Force to the offices of Flora and Gatekeeper, respectively.

Charles Humphrey is reported ill in a Medford hospital. Gertrude Stanley is ill with a severe cold. It was also reported that Lottie Van Scoy who suffered a fall at her home was not seriously injured.

Past officers expressing thanks for cooperation of members during the year were Bob Bitterling and Mrs. John Huffman. Mabel Wertz, new master, gave notice of her hope to start meetings promptly at 8 p.m. as JOHN DEERE FILM—Pictured above is a scene from Miss Hattie, a full-color, feature length movie, which will be part of the entertainment offered farmers who attend the John Deere day program to be given Wednesday by Tom Wray and Hubbard-Wray company. The film will be shown starting at 1 p.m. at the Craterian theater. There will be no charge for tickets for farm families, and a luncheon will precede the showing.

John Deere Program Scheduled Wednesday

Tom Wray and Hubbard-Wray company will be hosts next Wednesday for a John Deere day program, it was announced yesterday.

Jackson county farmers and their families have been invited to attend the program. Features of the event will include lunch, prepared by the West Side extension unit and served at Hubbard-Wray company, 25 South Riverside ave., starting at 11:30 a.m., and a moving picture, Miss Hattie, at the Craterian theater starting at 1 p.m.

Tickets for the moving picture will be free to all farmers and their families.

Life of Teacher
The story of the movie, which will be in full-color, is based on the life of a music teacher in a small town. The picture features a cast of leading Hollywood players and was filmed for John Deere by the Wilding Picture Productions of Chicago and Hollywood.

Besides the feature, the program includes the film, "Freedom for Eric," the story of a displaced person from central Europe, and "Oddities in Farming," a newsreel type of picture depicting the unusual in farming practices.
