

450,000 Gridiron Fans Expected To Turn Out For Bowl Games; Buckeyes Favored Over Troy

By JOE SARGIS
United Press Sports Writer
Approximately 450,000 fans are expected to jam stadia in eight different cities Saturday to see the annual New Year's day football extravaganza with the Rose Bowl, the granddaddy of them all, luring its usual 100,000 plus.

The undefeated Buckeyes of Ohio State university, ranked No. 2 nationally by the United Press Board of Coaches and the best team in the Big Ten this year, are 13½-point favorites to defeat Southern California's Trojans, representing the Pacific Coast conference, in the Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif.

No championship will be decided because of the Rose Bowl's controversial "one-in-two" rule. Because of the ruling, UCLA, the nation's No. 1 team which played in the Rose Bowl in 1954, was denied a return trip. A meeting between Ohio State and UCLA would have produced an "acknowledged" national champion.

Kicking off the week end program today, the Baylor Bears are favored to beat Auburn's crippled Tigers by a touchdown in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla. Baylor's explosive attack, built around the wide pitchocks of quarterback Billy Hooper, is expected to be more than Auburn can handle since its individual star, end Jim Pyburn, is listed as a doubtful starter because of a swollen knee.

To Be Televised Aired
The Rose Bowl, the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans, La., the Orange Bowl from Miami, Fla., and the Cotton Bowl from Dallas, Tex., will be telecast and broadcast nationally, while the Salad Bowl from Phoenix, Ariz., the Sun Bowl from El Paso, Tex., and the Tangerine Bowl from Orlando, Fla., will be aired regionally.

It'll be a "Football Saturday" in every sense of the word with one game or another in progress during an eight hour period beginning with the Orange Bowl at 2 p.m. (EST).

The Midshipmen from Annapolis, faced with the possibility of starting without the services of three first-stringers, have been installed one-point favorites to defeat Mississippi's Rebels in the Sugar Bowl with a crowd of over 80,000 on hand. However, the odds may shift before game time, depending on whether or not halfbacks Bob Craig and John Weaver and Jim Royer can play.

Craig, 22-year-old right halfback, was taken to a hospital Thursday suffering with acute tonsillitis, while Weaver, the left halfback pulled a muscle in training. Royer, the biggest Navy lineman at 208 pounds, suffered a bruised hip in a dummy drill Tuesday.

Poises "Secret Weapon"
Duke Coach Bill Murray plans to spring a "secret weapon" in the person of little Bernie (The Blitz) Blaney when his Blue Devils meet Nebraska's Cornhuskers in the Orange Bowl. Secret weapon notwithstanding, Duke is the odds-makers' choice by 13½ points off its 7-2-1 record in the Atlantic Coast conference compared to Nebraska's 6-4 mark in the Big Seven. Officially predicted a crowd of 70,000.

Little Arkansas, the Southwestern conference's representative in the Cotton Bowl, is the sentimental favorite, but Georgia Tech's "Rambling Wreck" is the choice by 5½ points. The Razorbacks confounded the experts during the regular season by bowling over favorites with regularity.

The West All-Stars have been installed two-point favorites in the East-West Shrine game and the odds are expected to go even higher if Ralph Guglielmi, Notre Dame's All-America quarterback, fails to overcome a "severe chest cold."

In the other major bowl games, the Border Conference All-Stars are pitted against the Skyline Conference All-Stars in the Salad Bowl; Texas Western (7-3-0) plays Florida State (8-3-0) in the Sun Bowl; and Omaha U. (9-0-0) is matched against Eastern Kentucky (8-1-0) in the Tangerine Bowl.

West Slight Shrine Favorite Over East; Ralph Guglielmi III

San Francisco — (U.P.) — The prospect of rain hung over the 30th annual Shrine East-West game Saturday—but the promoters aren't worried, because the 60,000 seats in the stadium have been sold for more than four months.

The West has been installed as a two point favorite—but probably will be held in higher regard than ever now with the announcement that Ralph Guglielmi, Notre Dame's All-American quarterback, is hospitalized with a "severe chest cold and temperature."

Head Coach Eddie Anderson of the East team named a starting lineup Thursday that included Guglielmi, but he reported that he was "very concerned" about the condition of Guglielmi.

The East backfield obviously is picked for seed, included in it are two comparative "runts"—half back Leroy Bolden of Michigan State, who stands only 5 feet, 7½ inches tall and weighs only 166 pounds; and fullback George Broeder of Iowa, who is built like the proverbial firecracker at 5 feet, 8 inches and 185 pounds. The other backs are either Guglielmi or Don Bailey of Penn State at quarter; and Bob McNamara of Minnesota at halfback.

How this unit will stand up defensively against the towering giants that will be sent down field to catch passes by the West remains to be seen. While McNamara, Bailey and Guglielmi each stand 6 feet, they'll be depending against the pass receiving skills of such men as Jim Hanifan of California; Bennie Sinclair (6-2), Texas A and M; Ray Berry (6-2), Southern Methodist; George Shaw (6-1), Oregon; and George Maderros, (6-1), Chico State.

The East line has Dan Shanahan of Notre Dame and John Kerr of Jim Garrit of Penn State at ends; Art Walker and Roy Geyer, both of Michigan, at tackles; Henry Bullough of Michigan State and Tom Bettis of Purdue at guard; and Johnny Allen of Purdue at center.

The West line, which will outweigh the East slightly, may be Sinclair and either Berry or Hanifan at ends; Buck Lamsford of Texas and Jack Ellena of UCLA at tackles; Jim Salsbury of Oregon at guards; and Matt Hazeltine of California at center.

Southern Cal's Faithful Count on Hill Psychology

By FAYE LOYD

Los Angeles — (U.P.) — Southern California faithful counted in the 11th hour today on Coach Jess Hill's "psychology" as a possible defense against Hopkin Hopalong Cassaday and Ohio State in the Rose Bowl tomorrow.

Hill became a football coach by an unusual route, and he has an equally unique and impressive disposition to come out on top, whatever his diverse sports undertakings. And he, for one,

Eagles Lose To Redmond

Redmond — Redmond high's tall horse aggregation ran up 15 points in the last five minutes of play here last night to rap the touring Eagle Point quintet 51 to 42.

The loss gave the Eagles an even break on their central Oregon road trip. They defeated Prineville Wednesday 61 to 56. Eagle Point headed 38 to 36 as the last five minutes got underway. The clubs went into the final quarter deadlocked at 36-all. The southern Oregonians had to comeback hard to get that tie for, after the Eagles gained a 15 to 14 first quarter lead, Redmond had pushed to a 30 to 19 halftime spread in the well played mix.

Better accuracy from afield and more success in the rebounding department paid off for the home team which boasts 10 players in the six-foot category. Redmond had 18 field goals in 55 shots and Eagle Point 12 for 50. The Eagles were superior at the free throw line with 18 for 29 to Redmond's 15 for 31.

Redmond's backboard superiority was 51 to 34.

Portland Pilots Get Ice Arena

Portland — (U.P.) — Portland University yesterday acquired a possible site with a 5000-plus seating capacity for future home basketball games.

The school received part of the Ice Arena as an outright gift from the owners. The rest of the property will be turned over to the university next week. The transfer was split into two parts for tax purposes.

Exact value of the transaction, a gift from Eddie H. and Roy L. Shipstad and Oscar F. Johnson, was not disclosed. The building was closed last year by order of the city fire marshal. It had been the scene of many ice shows, hockey and basketball games.

No Definite Plans
Lee F. Herron, vice-president of the university's board of trustees, said no definite plans for the building had been made.

"We don't know what use it will be put until we go into the matter thoroughly," he said. "Much depends upon the attitude of the city concerning specifications that must be met before the building can be put to public use."

However, since the arena contains a basketball floor it was considered a good possibility it would be used for that purpose.

PLAYERS BOUGHT
Eugene — (U.P.) — The Eugene Emeralds of the new class B Northwest league purchased twin infielders yesterday. They are Harold and Harvey Toso, who recently were discharged from the Army. They were bought from Greensboro of the Carolina league. Harvey plays second base and Harold first base.

Both Tutors Confident of Bowl Victory

Pasadena, Calif. — (U.P.) — Coach Woody Hayes put his tense and eager Ohio State Buckeyes through their final limbering up drill today and then prepared to sit out the final 24 hours before they clash with Southern California in the Rose Bowl.

"Players always feel that way before a big game," Hayes confided as the Ohio State team merely warmed up under a bright sun on the practice field.

And the chunky coach was not loath to admit that he also was a little on edge although he declared he still held to his prediction that Ohio State would win. Hayes would not say what the score would be, declaring he never named scores.

Some 15 miles away, Coach Jess Hill and his Southern California team were going through the same sort of limbering up drills. The Trojans, although also eager, were a little more restrained than the Buckeyes, displaying the poise of frequent Rose Bowl appearances, their last only two years ago.

Hill clung to his prediction that he was picking his players to score a 21-14 victory even though most of the wagering made Ohio State a two-touchdown favorite.

'Skins Beaten By Chiloquin

Jacksonville — Chiloquin's versatile Panthers rambled 81 to 43 here Thursday night over the Jacksonville high basketball team. It was the second victory for the Panthers this week over the Redskins. They won Monday at Chiloquin 63 to 37.

Handling the ball well and making their plays work effectively, the Klamath county cagers rolled up a first quarter bulge of 23 to 8, led 38 to 22 at the half and had a 65 to 32 advantage after three stanzas.

The tussle got rough at times. Officials Dutch Meyer and Clarence Melbye whistled 22 fouls on Chiloquin and 23 on Jacksonville.

Dick Seimens was leading scorer for the Panthers. He got 25. JoJo George picked up 20 and Vernon Joe 15. Dick Sanford was tops for Jacksonville with 12 and Bob Gemachlich followed with 10.

Eddie Moylan Annexes Sugar Bowl Net Title

New Orleans — (U.P.) — Eddie Moylan tucked away his third Sugar Bowl tennis championship today, and half of the doubles crown and said "I got it because I hit more shots in."

The furrow-browed Trenton, N. J., player swept the crown from defending champ Tom Brown Jr., of San Francisco, 6-0, 4-6, 6-1, 6-2. Then he teamed with Bernard (Tut) Bartenz of San Angelo, Tex., to win the doubles crown from Brown and Gil Shea of Los Angeles, 6-2, 7-9, 8-6.

Notre Dame, Missouri Nab Basketball Togas

By FRED DOWN

United Press Sports Writer
Notre Dame made a powerful new bid for national basketball recognition via its upset victory in the Sugar Bowl tournament today while Missouri solidified its ranking as the country's 10th best team with an impressive triumph in the Big Seven tournament.

Dropped out of the rankings as a result of four early losses, Notre Dame "bounced back" Thursday night with a 74-69 victory over Holy Cross, the nation's 18th-ranked team, and the defending Sugar Bowl champion. Rugged rebounding proved the key to victory as the Irish overcame a brilliant 30-point performance by the Crusaders' Tom Heinsohn.

Capt. John Stephens scored 24 points and Lloyd Aubrey contributed 15 for Notre Dame, which fought to a 29-29 halftime tie and then moved into a 50-45 lead midway in the second half. The Irish had to battle all the way, however, as the wild second half produced 11 ties. Bradley beat Loyola of the South, 77-71, in the consolation game.

Missouri Easy Victor
Kentucky, the nation's No. 1 team, crushed St. Louis University 82-65, at Lexington, Ky., for its 129th consecutive win at home and 31st straight victory over a two-year period. Phil Gravemeyer scored 20 points for Kentucky and Jim McLaughlin 24 for St. Louis.

In other games, Robin Freeman, the nation's leading scorer, tallied 24 points to lead Ohio State to a 72-61 victory over Oklahoma City; Iowa staged a 43-point second half to crush Stanford, 73-46; DePaul rolled over Manchester, 103-74; Michigan routed Valparaiso, 82-55; and Michigan State defeated Penn State, 85-74.

Fracture Keeps Dick James Out

Eugene — (U.P.) — Dick James, Oregon's star football halfback, has run into more tough luck in his attempt to play varsity basketball for the Webfoots.

James is lost to the team for at least a month and perhaps for the season because of a fractured wrist bone which did not heal properly. Last season James was kept out of basketball by a leg injury.

Coach Bill Borchers said either Rich Costi or John Lundell probably would replace James on the traveling squad when Oregon leaves here Sunday for Pullman and next week's Northern Division opener against Washington State.

At Storrs, Conn., underdog Dartmouth shacked Al Quimby and beat Connecticut, 66-65, on a 30-foot shot by center Dick Fairley with only four seconds remaining in the game to win the New England college tournament. The victory was Dartmouth's seventh straight.

At Owensboro, Ky., Maryland won its second straight Kentucky All-American tournament by defeating top-seeded and 13th-ranked Cincinnati, 78-61. Maryland led all the way.

At Buffalo, N. Y., Canisius defeated Georgia Tech, 70-56, winning the right to oppose St. Bonaventure in Saturday night's finale of the Queen City tournament. Johnny McCarthy tallied 21 points for the winners. Les Roh's 37 points led Idaho State to a 70-69 win over Yale in the opening game.

Kentucky, the nation's No. 1 team, crushed St. Louis University 82-65, at Lexington, Ky., for its 129th consecutive win at home and 31st straight victory over a two-year period. Phil Gravemeyer scored 20 points for Kentucky and Jim McLaughlin 24 for St. Louis.

In other games, Robin Freeman, the nation's leading scorer, tallied 24 points to lead Ohio State to a 72-61 victory over Oklahoma City; Iowa staged a 43-point second half to crush Stanford, 73-46; DePaul rolled over Manchester, 103-74; Michigan routed Valparaiso, 82-55; and Michigan State defeated Penn State, 85-74.
