Ohio State Wins Rose Bowl, 20-7

Pasadena, Calif. — (U.P.) — Ohio State's smooth-clicking Buckeyes, led by master magician Dave Leggett at quarterback, ploughed through the mud of the Rose Bowl in a rainstorm to a 20 to 7 victory Saturday over Southern California before 89,191 fans.

Exploding for scores when they were given the breaks, the Buckeyes demonstrated their championship caliber although the record individual performances were all on the side of Southern California as tailback Aramis Dandy set a new Rose Bowl punt return mark of 86 yards for a touchdown.

But that brilliant broken field

Talent Events Score With Cruiser Five

Talent — Paced by the shooting of J. Lloyd Wood and Jim McAbey and by the backboard work of McAbee, the Talent high cagers played great ball for three quarters Friday night and gained a series split with the Powers Cruisers. Final count favored the Bulldogs 56 to 52. Powers won Thursday 41 to 40.

The Bulldogs zipped to an early lead and stayed in front. Period scores were 14 to 10, 28 to 14 and 47 to 34. Talent had a 20-point 45 to 25 advantage once in the third quarter.

In the final portion of the game the Bulldog defense collapsed. Gary Brady of the Cruisers got hot and pitched in a number of shots from 15 to 25 feet out. Powers in the fourth quarter began to get the best of the Talent full court press defense to gain two on one offensive situations. The Cruisers caught fire at a time two or three substitutes were in action for the Bulldogs.

Wood Scores 25
Richard Spitznass of Powers got the first bucket in the game but when Wood came back with two free shots and a fielder, Talent was on top for keeps. Wood scored 25 points and McAbee 20. Brady was high for Powers with 16. Talent has no 6-footers on its team while Powers has three starters 6-2 to 6-4½, but McAbee, a 5-11 long-armed, springy-legged center, jumped in to get his share of the rebounds, collecting 14.

Talent completed preconference play with nine wins and one loss. Powers has been beaten twice in nine games. In its Thursday loss Talent, averaging 300 from the field, outshot Powers 18 to 16 but lost on free shots. The Bulldogs got four for 10 at the gift line and Powers nine for 13.

Ashland nicked Talent in a freshman prelim Friday 44 to 43.

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—ELEVEN

East Squeaks Past West, 13-12

San Francisco — (U.P.) — Jim Garrity, 177-pound end from Penn State, kicked the all-important point after touchdown in the fourth quarter that gave the East an uphill, upset 13-12 victory over the West in the 30th annual Shrine game here Saturday.

In a battle of blocked kicks, the points after touchdown that Garrity connected on gave the East the triumph over a Western team that had entered the game a favorite and was never behind until the conversion.

Hazeltine Star
Matt Hazeltine, big California center, had stolen the spotlight Midway in the first quarter he for the West up to that time, intercepted the first pass that all-American quarterback Ralph Guglielmi of Notre Dame had thrown for the East, picking it off on the East 43 and racing it back for a touchdown.

Later in the second period he jumped up to block a conversion attempt by the East to keep the score deadlocked 6-6 at the half. The 60,000 fans jamming Kezar stadium in near freezing weather watched Ray Berry of Southern Methodist block a punt in the third quarter that set up another Western touchdown.

Cotton Bowl Won by Tech In 14-6 Fray

Dallas, Tex. — (U.P.) — Georgia Tech won the ninth bowl game in its glamorous football history Saturday when its three driving fullbacks battered a weak Arkansas line for a 14-6 come-from-behind victory in the Cotton Bowl.

Halfback Paul Rutenberry and Quarterback Wade Mitchell, a pair of fleet sophomores, scored the third and fourth period touchdowns for Tech, but it was the whooping yardage eaten up by Fullbacks George Humphreys, Johnny Hunsinger and Dick Mattison that set up the scores. A sellout crowd of 75,504 saw the game in clear, mild weather.

Humphrey's contribution of 5.3 yards per carry earned him a close victory over Mitchell for the most valuable back selection by the sports writers. The most valuable lineman laurels went overwhelmingly to all-American Guard Bud Brooks of Arkansas.

Coach Bobby Dodd's favored Yellow Jackets had to come from behind to turn the trick because a rip-snorting Arkansas running attack had surged 80 yards for a second quarter touchdown that Tailback George Walker scored from the one-yard line.

Buffalo, N. Y. — (U.P.) — Fordham, paced by Ed Conlin's 36 points, closed strongly last night to down Idaho State, 72-63, and clinch fifth place in the Queen City Invitational tournament before a Memorial auditorium crowd of approximately 4,000.

the name of Don Bailey of Penn State, putting on a great quarterback show for the East, won the William M. Coffman award as the most valuable player of the game.

San Francisco — (U.P.) — George Shaw of Oregon, who led the nation in total offense this season, shouldered a large part of the blame Saturday for the West's 13-12 defeat by the East in the Shrine game.

"A lot of people may point their finger at Burdette Hess of Idaho for failing to convert our second touchdown," Shaw said. "But I was the guy who took the snap from center and fumbled the ball in such a way that it could not be set up properly for his kick."

Hess's attempted conversion was easily blocked which left the score West 12, East 6 and set them up for their one-point defeat.

game, Hazeltine, for his great play in the forward wall, won the "lineman of the game" award.

It was Bailey who engineered one of the East touchdown drives—in the second quarter

D. Jacobs Among Top Scholars on Webfoot Squad

Eugene — (U.P.) — Coach Len Casanova's Oregon football squad posted its seventh straight term of B-minus or better scholastic work during the fall term.

The Webfoots, who had steadily bettered the all-university grade average in recent years, began their current string of B-minus averages in the fall term of 1952.

Eight of the Ducks were over a straight B in their scholastic work during the fall term and half of this group were just under an A-minus average. The top group was led by Captain-elect Lon Stiner Jr., the tackle from Westfir, and includes tackle Harry Johnson of Portland, end Chuck Greenley of Portland and halfback Lloyd Powell of Triangle Lake.

The other four above a B-average were guard Don Jacobs of Medford, end Phil McHugh of Portland, fullback Dean Van Leuven of Bandon and halfback John Weyat of Vancouver, British Columbia.

when he passed to Garrity 15 yards to the one and then scored on a quarterback sneak.

The victory was the 12th for the East against 14 losses and four ties in the 30-year history of the game.

Ground Game
As expected, the East team stayed pretty much on the ground and featured the fine running of Bob McNamara of Minnesota, Leroy Bolden of Iowa, Ron Drzewiecki of Marquette and Dick Goist of Cincinnati. Drzewiecki packed the ball seven times for 51 yards and a 7.3 average—best for the East. Bailey was the workhorse, however, picking up 25 yards in 16 attempts.

Bailey completed two out of five passes for 15 yards, and Guglielmi four out of eight for 48.

The West passing, which was supposed to have featured Paul Larson of California and George Shaw of Oregon, didn't amount to much. Shaw completed five out of seven attempts good for only 31 yards. Larson got four for 11, good for 21.
