

UN Chapter Plans Session On Thursday

Anyone in Medford or Jackson county interested in a Medford chapter of the Oregon United Nations association is invited to attend a meeting on Thursday, January 6. It will be held in one of the YMCA balcony rooms at 8 p.m.

First steps toward organization of a chapter here were taken in November during a visit here of Dr. Karlin M. Capper-Johnson, president of the Oregon UN association. At that time Harlan P. Bosworth Jr., was elected temporary chairman and Lawrence Solin, temporary treasurer.

Purpose of the association is to "disseminate knowledge concerning the operation of the UN, to encourage, study and to prepare citizens to take a definite stand on many of the world problems which are under consideration," it is stated.

There are active chapters in Portland and six other Oregon cities, and groups are in the process of organization in Eugene, Klamath Falls and Medford.

Vinson Vaughans Hosts for Parties In Eagle Point

Eagle Point — Mr. and Mrs. Vinson Vaughn, Eagle Point, entertained for about 36 persons from Eagle Point and the area at a New Year's eve supper party. The guests arrived about 8 o'clock when the supper was served and at midnight the hosts served hot cider and doughnuts.

Bill McCorkle, now of Greenwood, Calif., a former Medford resident, is a houseguest of the Vaughns. A commercial artist, Mr. McCorkle entertained the group by drawing cartoons on a large board and conveying ideas of television commercial work.

The Vaughns also entertained December 26 at a similar party for friends who live in Medford and vicinity. About 34 attended and a buffet supper was served.

Mrs. Dale Vaughan of Los Angeles, then a houseguest of her son and daughter-in-law, was an honored guest.

Campbell Home Scene of Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell and daughters, Harriet and Susan, 714 West Eleventh street, had as guests for Christmas day several members of the family.

Included were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Arndt (Alison Campbell), Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hedgpeth and daughter Jane, of Weed, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Freshwater, Medford; Mrs. Susan Campbell, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Obenchain and daughter, Linda, Central Point.

Miss Harriet Campbell is a student at Southern Oregon college and Miss Obenchain, student at Oregon State college, spent the holidays with her parents in Central Point. Mr. Arndt is a senior at the University of Oregon.

Smiths Return To Alaskan Home

Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Smith of Ketchikan, Alaska, left last week by plane for their home after visiting his mother, Mrs. Charles Pitts, and Mr. Pitts, 675 West 13th street. Dr. Smith is a former resident and while here they visited numerous friends, and also made a trip with the Pitts to Lowell, near Eugene, to visit his aunt and friends there.

Also at the Pitts home for the Christmas holidays were his daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Plamondon of Yreka, Calif., and his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Al Morrison of Big Bar, Calif.

Card - Cottingham Ceremony Held at Methodist Church

An event of December 26, Sunday, was the wedding of Miss Nancy Nina Cottingham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald A. Cottingham, 1329 Queen Anne avenue, to Richard Albert Card. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester P. Card of Aberdeen, Wash.

The ceremony took place at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon at First Methodist church here, with Dr. Raymond Balcomb officiating. Mr. Cottingham gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride's wedding gown was designed with full net skirt and the bodice of lace over satin was made with long sleeves. Her fingertip length veil was held by a Juliet cap of seed pearls and she carried gardenias with Stephanotis.

Miss Fidelia Boone was maid-of-honor for the bride. Her frock was of pale blue worn with a headpiece of pink carnations and she carried a matching bouquet of the same flowers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Cottingham wore a black faille dress with pink faille

Yale Student Leaving Today

Gary Boshears will leave for the east today by plane after spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miner T. Boshears, 408 South Grape street. The young man is in his fourth year of a five-year electrical engineering course at Yale university.

The Boshears' other son, Second Lt. Kenneth Boshears, is stationed at Ft. Lewis with the Army.

Family Here

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Smith and baby son, Stuart Douglas, spent the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Brugman, Hillside drive. After a short visit with relatives in Portland, they will return to their home in Pilot Rock, Ore.

Guests Leave

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Budge have left for their home in Ogden, Utah, after visiting through the Christmas holidays with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Budge, 108 Highland drive.

Bowmers Honored At Holiday Party

Mr. and Mrs. Angus Bowmer, who visited in Medford for the holiday season, were honored guests at an annual New Year's eve party given by Mr. and Mrs. Almus Pruitt at their home. The Bowmers are living at Palo Alto, Calif., while Mr. Bowmer is attending Stanford university studying toward his doctor's degree. They were houseguests here of Mrs. Bowmer's aunt, Mrs. Fred Slagle, 103 South Holly street, and left Saturday for the south.

Other guests at the Pruitt's party were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Werner and their son, Richard Werner, who was home visiting his parents from Corvallis where he attends Oregon State college; Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Windt, Ashland, Richard Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Pelligrini, and Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Hannan of Ashland.

Mr. Graham had charge of the egg nog served during the evening and the hosts also served a chafing dish supper of shrimp and chicken. Viennese pastry was furnished by Mrs. Pelligrini.

Chamber music, sonatas and quartets were played during the evening and Mrs. Werner, a soprano, sang several selections. Richard Werner left today for Corvallis to return to his classes.

Students Give New Year Dance

Students of St. Mary's high school entertained at a New Year dance Thursday evening honoring their parents. About 70 parents and students attended the semiformal event which was held at the Pioneer room of the Jackson hotel.

The Misses Mary Conroy, Ann Metz and Elizabeth Betschart were co-chairmen in charge of the dance and Belle Van Dyke and her orchestra furnished the music.

Refreshment and punch were served during intermission. Decorations were in the New Year theme.

Hawkins Return From Westlake

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Hawkins, 736 West 14th street, returned last week from Westlake, Ore., on Siltcoos lake, after attending a family reunion there during the holidays at the home of Mrs. Hawkins' sister, Mrs. Letta Sova, former Medford resident.

Other family members and also former Medford residents who were there were Mr. and Mrs. William Sauer and son, Stephen, Sauer, Portland, Mrs. Oscar Warfield, with Mr. Warfield, Eugene, and Mrs. Frances Edwards, now of Salem.

Mrs. Warfield is the former Charlotte Stewart Peebles and her marriage to Mr. Warfield was an event of last September.

Family Gathers At Home Here

Capt. and Mrs. Robert W. Root and four children, Oakland, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. John M. Root Jr., and two children, Madras, Ore., were visitors in the home of the Rev. and Mrs. John M. Root, 304 South Holly street, over the Christmas holidays.

The Rev. Mr. Root is pastor of Medford Free Methodist church. Captain Root and family returned to the United States last June from a three-year tour of duty with the Armed Forces in Europe. He was stationed at Frankfurt, Germany, and spent two months of this time in Berlin.

Littrells Return From California

Mr. and Mrs. Al Littrell have returned to their home here after a vacation in Carmel, Calif., and at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Brainerd, in Petaluma, Calif. They spent Christmas with the Brainerds.

While away Mr. and Mrs. Littrell visited with Miss Charlotte Rogers, former Red Cross executive at Camp White, and other members of the Rogers family who live in the Bay area.

The Littrells will leave in the near future for Salem since Mr. Littrell was named representative to the Oregon legislature from Jackson county during the last general election.

Medford Couple Visits Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Murphy, Ross lane, returned last week from Berkeley, Calif., where they visited through the Christmas holidays with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hamlin, and Mr. Hamlin's mother, Mrs. Ina Hamlin. Mrs. Wallace Hamlin is the former Miss Marilyn Murphy.

En route they also visited Sacramento, Calif., and other cities.

The serving committee will be Mrs. L. E. Juniper, Mrs. Vern Brophy and Mrs. N. R. DeWitt. Wives of Elks club members are invited.

New Year Parties Climax Gay Holiday Events

The round of gay holiday events last week was climaxed by several parties New Year's eve and day. A number of these are annual events, held each year by Medford couples.

The post-holiday week will be enlivened by the annual open house sponsored by the Women's Golf association of Rogue Valley Country club, set for Sunday, January 9. Hours will be from 1 to 4 p.m. and the event is for members of the club only.

Co-chairmen for the event this year are Mrs. Frank Tamney and Mrs. Loren Haugen. Mrs. Tamney and Mrs. Haugen will supervise general decorations, and Mrs. Ward Samuelson and Mrs. Roger Clarke will take charge of table decorations.

Mrs. H. D. McClure is food chairman and Mrs. Warren Lesseg, hospitality chairman. Mrs. A. Orin Schenck and Ray Frisbie will prepare the traditional Tom and Jerry drink served at this party.

Members of WGA will serve, assisted by their husbands.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Mohr and Mr. and Mrs. Wilton White were hosts for a New Year's eve cocktail party at the Mohr's home, 39 Glen Oak court. About 30 couples attended. The holiday event is a traditional party for the two couples.

Also an annual event was the open house held yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Pringle, 601 North Modoc avenue between three and five o'clock.

Last Sunday evening Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Lageson were hosts for a cocktail and supper party at their home on Glen Oak court. About 30 guests attended.

The Lageson's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Vranizan and Mr. Vranizan's mother, Mrs. James Vranizan Sr., were guests of the Lagesons for the holidays. Their younger daughter, Miss Margo Lageson, University of Washington student, was also home for the holiday vacation and left today for Seattle.

Wednesday evening Mrs. Richard Payne entertained at a party which honored Mr. Payne on his birthday anniversary. Twenty couples were invited to the party at the Payne home on Coker Butte road.

Mrs. Payne recently returned home after a visit in San Antonio, Tex., with her son-in-law and daughter, Airman Dennis L. Conner and Mrs. Conner. The Conners are the parents of a son, Mark Bradley Conner, born November 21. Mrs. Conner's grandmother, Mrs. John E. Peters, is now in Texas with the couple.

Miss Tanya Trowbridge and her brother, Ben Trowbridge Jr., were hosts for an open house December 29, inviting a group of friends to the Trowbridge home on East Main street. About 45 called between five and seven o'clock.

Miss Trowbridge is a student at Chico State college and her brother attends Stanford university. Both left Saturday to return to their classes.

Another party for students was one given December 28 by Miss Sylvia McCabe and her brother, Stephen McCabe, at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McCabe, 1909 East Main street.

Among the guests was Hugh Coughlin, San Francisco, a Santa Clara university classmate of Stephen McCabe who visited here during the holidays. The three young people went south to spend the New Year's weekend in San Francisco and Miss McCabe is returning to Seattle, Wash., today where she is a student at Seattle university.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Scott Heatherrington, 12 Black Oak drive, entertained Friday evening at a New Year's eve watch party.

The group gathered at the Heatherrington home about 8:30 p.m., for a crab supper. Bridge was the diversion of the evening. At the party were houseguests of the couple, Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Burnham and daughter, Susan, of Oregon City, Mr. and
