Banquet Honors Retiring Queen

Central Point—Miss Melva Chew, retiring queen of Job's Daughters, Central Point, was honored at a banquet Monday, December 27 at Rogue Valley Country Club. It preceded installation ceremonies of the bethel.

Theme of table decorations was "Musical Notes," and were in the new queen's colors of purple and yellow. Everett Faber acted as master of ceremonies. The entertainers at the club played several numbers for dancing and "Young at Heart" was played especially for the honored guest.

Girls of the bethel presented a skit in honor of the retiring queen, and a gift of silver was presented to her.

Approximately 30 members of the bethel and their guests were present, as well as members of the guardian council.

Around Hollywood

Hollywood—(U.P.)—Movie stars today are offering New Year resolutions and predictions, so I will join the crowd and save you the trouble of reading Hollywood gossip for the next 12 months.

Life in the plaster city often follows the same mink lined rut, and the 1955 news probably will look like this:

January—Mario Lanza announces he is not overweight, and that he is guarding his God-given gift, his voice, for a comeback... Somebody uncovers a rare, sensational photo of Marilyn Monroe, with her mouth closed.

February—Cornel Wilde reveals his annual plans to film the life of Lord Byron... Tony and Janet Curtis deny stork rumors... Betty Hutton makes her farewell appearance at Las Vegas... Rita Moreno poses for Valentine cheese-cake, peeping through a big red heart.

March—Zsa Zsa Gabor announces she wants only dignified publicity... Ava Gardner falls madly in love with a deep sea diver in Ireland... Darryl F. Zanuck does a trapeze act with Barnum & Bailey.

April—Joan Crawford reveals her annual plans to film a school teacher's life... Olivia de Havilland issues interviews she wants to do comedy and 21 comics plead to do Shakespeare... Bob Hope films his TV show in Africa with 10 Mau-Maus as panel guests... Liberace announces his engagement.

May—Zsa Zsa and Rubi elope to Tanganyika in a canoe... Ava leaves her deep sea diver for a sports car racer in Athens.

June—Betty Hutton makes a farewell appearance in Las Vegas.

July—Rita Moreno poses for 4th of July photos, sitting on a big red firecracker.

August—After 4,987 complaints from mothers, Liberace breaks his engagement.

Siskiyou Flora To Be Club Topic

Guest speaker for a meeting of Medford Garden club January 6 will be Marcel LePinec who will speak on Siskiyou flora. The meeting is set for 2 p.m. and will be held at the Girls Community club.

Mr. LePinec has made an extensive study of the culture of native plants and especially of the wild flowers native to the Siskiyou district. He has written features on native and rock plants over a period of years for various publications. He will show slides of wild flowers.

Tea chairman for the social hour will be Mrs. L. J. Knox. The executive board of the club will meet Monday, January 3, at 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. LeRoy Cline, 1421 Euclid avenue.

Couple Honor Guests At Christmas Party

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Dale were honored at a Christmas eve party given by their children and grandchildren, other relatives and neighbors. The event was in the form of a surprise and the Dales were presented a television set. The party was held at the home of the Dales.

About three-eighths of Montana's land is owned by the federal government.

Women's Council Plan Year's Work

Women's Missionary council, Medford Assembly of God church, will meet January 5, at 10:30 a.m. in the church annex.

The subject for Mrs. F. Wilton Colbaugh's devotional period will be: "China, one of the oldest existing civilizations." Uprisings and revolutions that have disrupted China will be considered, as well as the lives of such outstanding figures as Taylor and Robert Morrison.

A covered dish dinner will be served at noon.

Mrs. L. Heide, president of the group, has planned an interesting work program for the new year. A quantity of yardage has been purchased. This will be cut into garments, aprons, pillowcases, pot holders and other articles to be distributed among those who care to sew. Award making and the processing of canceled stamps and used Christmas cards will be another feature.

Friends and members are cordially invited to attend.

Sauce For Desserts

New York—(U.P.)—Stir chopped nuts into 1 cup of maple-blended syrup and chill well for a spur-of-the-moment sauce to top ice cream, cake or pudding.

Christian Women Plan Dinner Monday Night

Christian Business and Professional Women will hold a New Year's dinner meeting, Monday, January 3, at the Hotel Medford banquet room at 6 p.m.

Special feature for the evening will be a talk on silverware. Musical numbers and a guest speaker will complete the program.

Reservations for the dinner may be telephoned to Mrs. Gertrude Neff, 2-5622.

4-H Club

Dairy Club

The next meeting of Central Point Dairy club will be Monday, January 3, at the Carl Hoyer home. The last meeting at the home of Willie Debrick, was called to order by Lewis Nickerson. Willie led the flag salutes, and we played a game.

We reviewed a judging contest. All the members were asked to watch in magazines and papers for musical numbers, poems, and other program material. Then the meeting was adjourned. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Debrick and Willie.

Officers Elected By Herb Society

Mrs. C. C. Sater and Mrs. J. W. Ostrander were elected first and second vice-presidents respectively of the Rogue Valley Herb society when the group met December 28, at the Girls Community club. No president was elected.

The recording secretary is Mrs. Ruth Simmons; Mrs. A. B. Kneass is the corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Glenn R. Holst, retiring president, was elected treasurer.

The program consisted of a report by Mrs. Holst concerning flowers and fruits of the Bible. Roll call was answered by each member telling something they had learned relative to the use and planting of herbs.

Scrapbooks were judged and Mrs. Edgar Vanderlip of Shady Cove was awarded the first prize. Mrs. M. Schuchard, Medford, was the second prize winner.

Mrs. Holst also reported on club work for the year and committee chairmen also reported.
