Cabbies To Play Yreka All-Stars

One of a number of special basketball attractions in which independent clubs are expected to participate in this area this season is scheduled Saturday night.

Yellow Cab, one of the leaders in the Medford Independent Basketball league, will be host to the Yreka, Calif., All-Stars.

The scrap will be at the St. Mary's high school gymnasium. Game time has been set for 8 p. m.

One of the Yreka players reportedly will be Bill Sherman, first string defensive halfback of the Los Angeles Rams football squad who ran 50 yards for a touchdown on a pass interception against the San Francisco Forty-Niners.

The Cabbies were strengthened this week by the addition of Johnny Foster, 6-foot 3 1/2-inch all-stater from Central Catholic high of Portland.

A March of Dimes hoop fray between the Cabbies and Andy's Jewellers is planned later this month. There will be other basketball activity on the same evening program.

OREGONIANS TO PLAY Portland — (U.P.) — Bruce Cudd, Western amateur golf champion, said today he would take part in the Los Angeles Open starting Thursday. Other Oregonians scheduled to compete are Ralph Dichter, Astoria amateur, and John Langford, Bob Duden, Eddie Hogan and Joe Moezel.

Western Uranium Rush Described; Local Work Told

The uranium rush under way today in the west was likened to the gold rush of 1849 and '51 by F. I. Bristol, owner of the Bristol Silica company, in an address here Tuesday noon at the Jackson hotel.

Reconnaissance from a transport type plane at 5,000 feet is practical and is utilized by the Atomic Energy Commission in surveying the western area, the speaker said.

Methods Told Methods of identifying uranium ore were described by Bristol, and included in the equipment he showed were a spectrometer, geiger counter and mineral light meter.

The offices of senators and congressmen were bulging with fruit and gifts of other kinds, which accumulated while the lawmakers were away over the holidays.

The usually alert National Press club had considerably fishy food on the lunch and dinner menus for Friday, the day before New Year's.

All law enforcement officers serving the Medford area are now rated as advanced first aiders, it was announced today by Leroy Williams, first aid chairman of the Jackson county chapter of the Red Cross.

The Western Mining council will meet at 8 p. m. Friday, Jan. 7, in the county courthouse auditorium, it was announced today.

Max Schaffer, Grants Pass, geologist of the State Department of Geology and Mineral Industries, will talk on uranium exploration. He spent two years recently working for the Atomic Energy commission.

Attorney Bruce Manley will discuss manganese possibilities in this area, and by-laws for the group will be discussed and perhaps adopted. The group will be discussed and perhaps adopted. The group plans to meet each month on the first Wednesday night special.

A Nichol's Worth of... Comment On This and That

The Clear and Opaque Crystal Ball Gazers Society of Washington is holding its annual party Jan. 11 for what the society calls "fellow ilks." It's strictly stag and the invitation reads: "If you have an acquaintance who is a particular bore, we can arrange to make him a president of the outfit — in fact each member is to be a president."

The National Geographic Society says Americans are growing taller by the year. But they still have to be bean-stalk a little more to become the tallest men on earth. American males average five feet, eight inches. The Nilotic tribes in Africa sometimes tower to seven feet, and the average male is five feet, 10 inches.

Three accidents, all due to snowy pavements, and none of them resulting in serious injuries, were reported to state police yesterday.

The first was on Highway 62 near Shady Cove at 1:25 p. m., when a car driven by Tommy Joe Burk, 23, East Wenatchee, Wash., skidded and overturned on slick, snowy pavement, officers said. Burk was not hurt, but his car was damaged.

At about 2:16 p. m., a car driven by Thelma Maude Duncan, 43, Redding, collided with a Pacific Motor Transport truck at Bear Canyon on the south side of the Siskiyou mountain summit on Highway 99. The highway was covered with packed snow, and the accident occurred when she lost control of her car and skidded into the truck, officers reported. Driver of the truck was Roy Elmer Coghill, 39, of 214 Gibson st., Talent. Damage to the truck was minor, involving the left front fender, but the car, owned by Lucille Car, Reedsport, a passenger, had to be towed away.

In the evening, a car driven by C. C. Frank, Seattle, a Navy seaman, overturned after skidding on slick pavement near the railroad underpass in the Siskiyou south of Ashland. Frank was not injured, but the car was extensively damaged.
