Sizzling Platter Au Gratin

This is a wonderful way to use up the last of the holiday poultry or ham. It is also a mighty good dish to remember for future use up!

2 cups green vegetable (broccoli, asparagus or green beans)

1 1/2 cups sliced chicken, turkey or ham

2 1/2 cups cheese sauce

2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese

Arrange vegetables on 12 inch overware platter. Top with layer of poultry or meat. Pour cheese sauce over all and sprinkle with Parmesan cheese. Place in preheated broiler, four inches from heat. Broil until cheese is melted and top is golden brown. If vegetable and meat are cold, bake in hot oven, 450 degrees, 20 minutes before broiling.

Fats and Oils

Butter and fortified margarine are rich in vitamin A value. Like all fats they furnish many calories. Plan table fat daily; other fats needed in cooking; butter, margarine, salad oil, shortening, bacon, salt pork, lard, suet, drippings.

Sugar Syrups, Preserves

These are useful mainly for the calories they provide for bodily energy. Food plan should include for the average person about a pound a week chosen from any kind of sugar; granulated either beet or cane, confectioner's, brown and maple; molasses or any kind of sirup or honey; jams and jellies; candy.

Check Meat Storage Habits

Wise storing means more food, better food, considerable savings on the family budget.

Meat, Poultry, Fish

Important to keep cold; so store in refrigerator at 35 to 40 degrees.

Poultry, fish and unsmoked meat such as roasts, chops and steaks must be allowed some air. Loosen any tight transparent coverings. Cover again loosely. Use within a few days.

Smoked Meats, such as ham, frankfurters and a bacon—

may be kept tight-wrapped during storage. They keep longer than unsmoked meats, although bacon and sausage are likely to change flavor.

Keep cooked meat, poultry and fish and also broth and gravies covered and in the refrigerator. Use within a few days.

... is a priceless gift that everyone can possess... a source of love, comfort and strength which is sorely needed in these troubled times. Only you and I, as parents can give this gift of Faith to our children. If we want them to know the joy of Faith tomorrow... we must give our children the gift of Faith today.
