

TORNADO SIZZES TO 86 TO 37 WIN OVER GRANTS PASS QUINT TO GAIN LEAGUE LEADERSHIP

| Team          | W | L | Pct   |
|---------------|---|---|-------|
| Medford       | 2 | 0 | 1.000 |
| Ashtland      | 1 | 1 | .500  |
| Klamath Falls | 1 | 1 | .500  |
| Grants Pass   | 0 | 2 | .000  |

The roaring gale, better known as the Black Tornado and already regarded as Medford's high school basketball aggregation in many years was perched on top of the Southern Oregon Conference standings today, the only unmarred quintet in the league.

Whipping up its biggest scoring storm in many seasons, the powerful Tornado flattened the Grants Pass Cavemen for a two-game series sweep Saturday. The score was an astounding 86 to 37. It made the 63 to 44 Friday night Medford hurricane seem a paltry breeze.

So far as can be recalled, the bulging total was largest run up in Coach Frank Roelandt's five seasons at the Medford helm and the biggest in years by any Medford team. It was the worst pasting suffered by a Grants Pass high club in a good long time.

Victory for Medford came as Klamath Falls was trimming Ashtland 63 to 41 to earn a series split with the Grizzlies, who won Friday 49 to 48. Result was to tie Klamath and Ashtland for second place in the first week end's standings and to push the defending champion Cavemen into the cellar.

Proficient as more than sufficient in most every department, Medford found the going hard for most of one half of the Saturday encounter as Grants Pass seemed sharper than on the previous night. The Cavemen gave every appearance of making it a battle all the way.

Count was knotted twice and the lead switched hands three times before Medford garnered a 20 to 16 quarter lead. The Cavemen were within striking distance until the last two minutes of the half when jump shots, long and close by Bud Kastner, fast break buckets by Frank Rector and Larry Cople and a pair of free heaves by Glenn Peterson pulled Medford to a 15-point 42 to 27 halfway margin.

Medford missed a good number of shots in the third quarter, a number of them tip in flurries under the bucket but still had command sufficient to outscore the Cavemen 17 to 8 for a 59 to 35 standing at the end of that period.

Final quarter saw the boiling Tornado run up 27 points on seven field goals and 13 free shots while Grants Pass got a meager two markers on free heaves, both in the closing minutes. Reserves of both teams finished out the fracas. Medford had four reserves in with 4 1/2 minutes yet to play in the mix and a complete reserve unit the last three minutes. Grants Pass substitutes saw duty the last half of the final quarter. Fifteen Cavemen and 12 Medfordites played.

The Tornado's higher degree of polish, great speed, fine ball-handling, sharper shooting and control of the ball paid off in the triumph. Medford's fast break sizzled at times and, when the clubs were even in backboard work with 35 retrieves each but from the field the Eagles shot 20 in 51 attempts for a .392 average while Talent flipped in only nine in 50 tries for a .180 record.

Nelson was high scorer for the Eagles with 17 and Bill Caldwell got 12. Jack Greb of Eagle Point and George Zickelsose and Mel Wallace of Talent each put in 10.

In the previous meeting at Talent in December, the Bulldogs won 57 to 37.

Eagle Point also won the Saturday junior varsity mix, 37 to 28.

LINE-UPS:
Eagle Point 47: 10 Talent, 10 Zickelsose, 10 Wallace, 10 Greb, 10 Caldwell, 12 McAbee, 10 Wood, 10 Thoreson.
Substitutions—For Eagle Point: Bitterling, Cave, Mason, Wyatt, Friend; for Talent: Ron Weindold, Hoffman.

Grade Leagues Open This Week
Medford grade school basketball teams begin league activity this week. Both junior varsities and varsities will contend.

Junior varsity play starts first with games on Tuesday. Roosevelt will go to Lincoln and Washington to Jackson.

Varsity games will be on Thursday through the season. This week it will be Lincoln at Roosevelt and Jackson at Washington to Jackson.

Dead line for Sunday Classified is at noon Saturday.

The Cavemen defense was set, the pear city gang was able to hit from long range or work the ball in deftly for close in shots.

Glenn Peterson with 14 rebounds and Jerry Kalapus with 13 helped Medford clear the boards 39 to 23 and the Tornado had possession of the ball the biggest percentage of the time. Discounting tip in misses, Medford sank better than 50 per cent of its field shots, 31 out of 60. Grants Pass got only 14 field goals and Medford was tops at the free line, 24 to 9.

Balance in scoring was another feature. Cople got 18 and Kalapus 17. Kastner, not usually a heavy scorer but highly effective as a feeder and defender, picked up 13 counters, as did Rector. Raleigh Burr, more effective with his whirling jump shot than the key than on Friday, led Grants Pass with 12 points and fouled out with six minutes left to play. Reid scored 11 for the Cavemen.

Reid got the first point of the game on a free shot but Kalapus hit close in and Rector from far out for a 4 to 1 Medford lead. Jay Reese cut it to 4 to 3 but Medford worked the ball in close to Kalapus for 6 to 3. Cople added a fielder on a break following a dump ball and Rector put in a free one for 9 to 3.

Grants Pass tied it with a hook by Burr and longies by Reid and Don James. Rector sank a long jumper for 11 to 9 for Medford. Reid hit from far out to deadlock the mix again. Reese got a charity toss for a 12 to 11 Cavemen advantage but with 2 1/2 minutes left in the quarter Kastner flipped in a long one-hander for 13 to 12. Medford led the rest of the way.

When reserves took over in the fourth quarter it was Bob Tisdell who was the Medford cog as the Cavemen had trouble even with their free shooting. Tisdell picked up two field goals and three free shots to head the finishing crew in scoring.

Cople and Kalapus each had

Court May Rule Today on Boxing
Washington — (U.P.) — The Supreme Court may decide today whether big time boxing can be regulated by the federal government.

The high court meeting at noon, (EST) after a one-month recess, may hand down a ruling in the government's anti-trust suit against the International Boxing clubs of New York and Chicago. Boxing czar James D. Norris, Arthur M. Wirtz, and the Madison Square Garden Corp., own 80 per cent of the two clubs.

The ruling would decide whether boxing, unlike professional baseball is in interstate commerce and subject to federal laws against monopoly and restraint of trade.

OSC Sweeps WSC Series; Webfoots Take on Cougars

Eugene — (U.P.) — The University of Oregon takes on Washington State's Cougars tonight in their first meeting of the 1955 Northern division basketball season at McArthur court. The two teams will meet again tomorrow night.

Washington State took a two-game beating by Oregon State Friday and Saturday nights and Oregon earlier split with the Cougars 1-1 at Pullman.

Corvallis — (U.P.) — The Oregon State Beavers pulled a close game out of the fire in the second half Saturday night to defeat the Washington State cage squad 56-52. That made it two in a row for the Beavers who Friday night had a 70-58 edge over the Cougars.

The Cougars had the defending Northern Division champs tied up three times in the first

Collegians Thump Pros In Hula Bowl

Honolulu — (U.P.) — The all-around performance of Colorado's winged footed Carroll Hardy received most of the credit for the college football All-Stars' surprisingly easy 33-13 victory over the pro-studded Hawaii All-Stars in the ninth annual Hula bowl.

Carroll gave way to his backfield mates in the scoring department. But his faultless running through the weak Hawaiian line and his long range punting, which averaged more than 50 yards in four punts, earned him the Governor's cup as the game's outstanding player.

Larson Pilots
California's stellar quarterback, Paul Larson, piloted the collegians attack and accounted three touchdowns to lead the scoring parade. He set up another touchdown with a 40 yard pass to Berkeley teammate, Jim Hanifan. UCLA's Primo Villanueva ploughed over from the three for the score.

Dick Moegle of Rice put the college star out in front in the opening period with a scoring plunge from the one yard line. The play was set up by a 24 yard run by Hardy.

Villanueva scored in the second period and then Larson took over.

SNEAD TRIUMPHS
Miami Beach, Fla. — (U.P.) — There was bad news today for all the professionals on golf's tournament trail — Sammy Snead's back is better. The veteran's White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., long-ball hitzer proved it by winning first prize in the one-day McNaughton Pro-Amateur Golf tournament Sunday.

PATTY WINNER
Paris, France — (U.P.) — Budge Patty of Los Angeles turned back Wimbledon champion Jaroslav Drobny of Egypt, 11-9, 6-2, 12-10, yesterday to win the men's singles crown in the Pierre Gilou tennis tournament. Angela Buxton of Great Britain defeated France's Susan Chatrier, 6-4, 6-1, in the women's final.

High point man for the game was Washington State's Ronnie Bennink with 14. He was followed by Oregon State's tall Wade (Swede) Halbrook with 13.

Gene Littler Triumphs in LA Golf Open

Inglewood, Calif. — (U.P.) — Little Gene Littler, voted by fellow professionals as "the man most likely to succeed," today credited exceptional luck with his chipping irons for his victory Sunday in the $32,500 Los Angeles open golf tournament.

Gene, 24-year-old former national amateur champion from Palm Springs, Calif., whipped the best of the world has to offer in the way of golf competition as he shot his third consecutive sub-par round Sunday and came in with a 276 total for 72 holes.

"I chipped in three shots from as far away as 60 feet during this tournament," said Gene. "That's more than I chipped in all last year."

Kroll Second
How important those chips were is shown in the final standings: Gene won by only two strokes over veteran Ted Kroll of Bethesda, Md.

Following Kroll in the money standings came veteran Johnny Bulla of Pittsburgh, Pa., who made one of his best showings as he came in with a 279. Kroll collected $2780 for second and Bulla $2100 for third.

There was a three-way tie for fourth place at 280 between Ulrich, Rochester, Minn., Johnny Palmer, Charlotte, N.C., and Doug Ford, Kiamasha Lake, N.Y. They each collected $1,300.

JV Cagers Skid By GP
Junior varsity hoopmen of Medford high still had their unblemished record intact today but only after a close call at Grants Pass Saturday night.

The junior Tornado which had sailed over the Grants Pass jayvees with comparative ease on Friday, found the going rougher Saturday and skidded by with a 30 to 26 decision in the preliminary to the varsity battle in the climate city. It was the 10th victory of the year for the Medford quintet.

Stalling Helps
Medford utilized a stall the last five minutes of the mix-up to stabilize and achieve the win. The Jayvees from Medford had a 24 to 20 margin at one time but saw GP pull in front 26 to 24. Richard Puhl p u t through a shot that knotted the game. Larry Gober put Medford on top 28 to 26 and, after the Tornado had lost the ball once and then recovered, Puhl passed into Larry Perkins who dunked in the clincher.

Grants Pass was on top at halftime 16 to 15.

Charles Inskip and Gober for Medford and Brown for Grants Pass each got seven points for the scoring honors.

LINE-UPS:
Medford JV 30: 26 G. Pass JV, D Cople 2, 7 Brown, Inskip 7, 6 Haugen, Slesler 2, 5 Waller, Puhl 4, 3 Cannon, Perkins 4, 5 Taylor.
Substitutions—For Medford: Hawley, A. Gober 7; Sides; for Grants Pass: Green.

Rogue Loop Will Start This Friday

Play opens this week in southern Oregon's newest high school basketball conference and continues in two others.

It's the Rogue League which has its inaugural with Illinois Valley at Phoenix and Eagle Point against Crater at Central Point on Friday. Crater will go to Eagle Point on Saturday while Phoenix travels to Cave Junction to meet Illinois Valley again.

The four schools were members of the JDJ league which disbanded at the end of last school year. Myrtle Creek and Glendale, JDJ members, went into the Umpqua league. Eagle Point is the favorite as the Rogue circuit opens. Crater, Illinois Valley and Myrtle Creek knotted for the JDJ toga last year.

Schools of the Rogue League technically are members of the Southern Oregon conference which includes the Big Four, Ashtland, Medford, Grants Pass and Klamath Falls. All eight plus Henley and Brookings are in Class A, District 4. Rogue tussles, as now set up, have no bearing in the district title race. A Little Six tourney, including Brookings and Henley, and set for March 24, 25 and 26, will determine the division winner which will play the Big Four champion. Details of the Little Six play-off are to be set up at a meeting Wednesday at Central Point.

Crater, idle since December 30, warms up for the conference with a non-league game against Rogue River at Central Point on Tuesday night. The Comets won an earlier fray from the Chiefs.

In the Southern Oregon conference Big Four this week end Medford's powerful Black Tornado plays Ashtland. Tussles will be here on Friday and at Ashtland on Saturday. Grants Pass will go to Klamath Falls.

Jackson County B league struggles are Prospect at Jacksonville, St. Mary's at Talent and Butte Falls at Rogue River.

Pels Dump Ashlanders

Ashtland—Ashtland's Grizzlies without the services of backboard ace Jim Sutherland were a match for Klamath Falls for only one quarter Saturday night and the Pelicans won the Southern Oregon conference prep hoop encounter 63 to 41 to split the series.

The Grizzlies won 49 to 48 on Friday.

Sutherland suffered a locked knee getting up off a daveno Saturday afternoon and was unable to play. He was at the game on crutches. Without him the Ashtland defense couldn't stand up to the Klamath attack.

The Pels had quarterly spreads of 17 to 16, 30 to 20 and 48 to 32.

LINE-UPS:
Klamath 63: 41 Ashland, Munsell 16, 6 Baker, Yarnell 2, 2 Sward, P.Olivo 20, 12 Parent, Sunitsch 8, 9 Johnson, Causey 8, 4 Mickle.
Substitutions—For Klamath: Todd 4, People 1, Perkins 2, Blanchard 2; for Ashtland: Carter 2, Schultz 1, Lemley 6.

GARCIA FAVORED
New York — (U.P.) — Muscular Rudy Garcia of Los Angeles, fourth ranking featherweight contender, starts his drive tonight for a 1955 shot at the 126-pound crown by meeting slick Bobby Bell of Youngstown, O., in a TV 10-rounder at Brooklyn's Eastern parkway arena.

Green Bay, Wis. — (U.P.) — Clayton Tommenaker, 1954 Green Bay Packer captain and line backer, has retired from professional ball.

Kentucky's Streak Ended By Upstart Georgia Tech

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press Sports Writer
To a basketball world completely flabbergasted by Kentucky's streak-smashing loss to Georgia Tech in one of the greatest upsets of all time, disappointed Coach Adolph Rupp admitted today, "It was no fluke."

Nothing could have amazed court fans any more than Saturday night's final score at Lexington, Ky.—Georgia Tech 59, Kentucky 58.

Joe Helms, smallest man on the Tech team, pulled the trigger on the upset when he stole the ball with only seconds left, dribbled in and let fly with a push shot that swished through the basket with three seconds left to play. At one stunning stroke, the basket smashed Kentucky records of 32 straight victories over a two-year span, seven short of the all-time record; 129 straight home victories over an 11-year span; and an unbeaten string of 70 games over a 15-year span at home against Southeastern conference foes. Tech Record Book

The Engineers had a 2-22 record last year, 2-4 this year, and only two nights before had been beaten by Sewanee.

Moved to Early Lead
Kentucky moved to an early seven-point lead but Tech caught up at 16-16 and led at halftime, 26-23. Tech led through most of the second half but Kentucky gained the lead with less than two minutes to play, setting the stage for the stunning climax.

Kentucky's downfall overshadowed two other surprises that would have been "shockers" on another night—Duquesne's 82-72 loss to St. Francis of Pennsylvania, and Richmond's 72-67 triumph over George Washington.

Kentucky's loss also stole the headlines from Furman's 154-67, victory over Citadel—believed by the NCAA to be the greatest score ever run up by one major college against another. Darrell Floyd, Furman's "new Frank Selvy," scored 50.

Yellow Cab Trims Yreka Stars 74-61

Medford's Yellow Cab basketball quint, with some scoring zip at the finish and much needed at that, defeated the Yreka All-Stars 74 to 61 in an independent scrap Saturday night at the St. Mary's gym here.

The Cabbies were ahead at every intermission but their margin was only a slim 60 to 59 at one time in the fourth quarter. Then Ed Hummel, Don Harris and Johnny Foster clicked to help the Medford team pull away.

The members of the Medford Independent league hope to extend their conquests further tonight at Myrtle Creek where they play the Firmco team. Yellow Cab has a league encounter with Skinners here on Wednesday night and next Saturday will vie in what may be the top scuffle on the local independent scene this season. Martin Brothers Sign company, Eugene, will meet the Cab team at the St. Mary's gym.
