

Medford Wrestlers Down Grants Pass Team 28-20

Medford high wrestlers defeated Grants Pass 28 to 20 here last night in a team match which saw the outcome in doubt until the 11th match was finished.

Ashlanders Could Rely Upon Speed

It's not known just what Ashland's Al Simpson, an old master at coaching, is devising this week as the Grizzlies prepare for their basketball series with the Medford high Black Tornado.

The speed is aimed at making up for a deficiency in height and Harry Johnson, 5-foot 8 inches, and Jerry Mickle, 5-9, are the playmakers and the "go" boys on the fast break.

Ashland has several six footers to mix the action under the backboards but its height won't quite match that of the Black Tornado and the service of one of their taller youths.

Sutherland suffered a locked knee last Saturday and whether he'll be able to go against the Tornado in games in Medford on Friday and Ashland on Saturday was not known today.

Crater Rally Beats Chief Hoop Quint

Central Point (Special) — Vern Parent spurred a fourth quarter rally last night that enabled the Crater high Comets to get by the hot-shooting Rogue River cagers 64 to 57.

The Chiefs led 50 to 46 going into the final stanza. Parent dunked in four field goals in a row to put Crater in front 54 to 50. Four minutes into the concluding period the Comets had a 60 to 55 command.

It was a well played contest with Rogue River sinking 67 per cent of its field shots and recording 52.5 for the whole route. Crater had a good 35.1 per cent in the first half and boosted it to 39.1 for the evening with 29 goals out of 69 tries.

Crater headed 18 to 13 after one quarter but Rogue River had pulled even at 30-all with one minute to go in the half and in that minute took the lead 36 to 30. The Chiefs had a 10-point 47 to 37 advantage four minutes into the third quarter.

Fred Hogue, Crater, was high point man with 23 counters and Ted Stanfield, Rogue River was next with 20.

Crater won the junior varsity opener by a good margin.

The varsity win was the second of the season over Rogue River. The Comets, with a record of four wins and four losses in pre-conference play open in the Rogue League against Eagle Point at Central Point on Friday, Eagle Point will be host to the Comets on Saturday.

Loscutoff Spurs Webfoots To Victory Over Cougars

Eugene — (U.P.) — Oregon's Webfoots held a solid grip on second spot in the Northern Division basketball race today after their second victory in as many nights over Washington State.

Smiling Jim Loscutoff again was the big man for Oregon as the Webfoots outplayed a 76-65 decision over the Cougars last night. Loscutoff racked up 25 points on 12 field goals and one free throw to lead all scorers. Bill Renner topped the Cougars with 18.

Oregon, hitting 31 field goals out of 75 attempts, held a 36-24 half-time bulge and the Cougars never could catch up. Washington State shot 56 times and hit on 20.

Conference action resumes this weekend when Washington travels to Corvallis, for a pair against Oregon State while Oregon journeys to Moscow, Ida., for a brace with the Idaho Vandals.

OSC still tops the conference at 2-0 while Oregon holds down second place with a 3-1 record. Both Washington and Idaho stand at 1-1 while WSC brings up the rear with a 1-5 slate.

Senior Loop Slates Many Night Games
Cincinnati, O. — (U.P.) — The National league will play an all-time high of at least 250 games next season, led by the St. Louis Cardinals who scheduled a record 56 games, it was revealed today in the official 1935 slate of games.

The 1934 schedule showed the previous high of 239 night games but because of postponements and rescheduling, the actual total was 250. Invariably, the original total goes up each year.

YMCA Cops Independent League Mix

YMCA had third place alone in the Medford Independent Basketball league today but had to come from behind in the second half of a game last night to claim it. The Y beat Headquarters company of the National Guard 57 to 47.

The National Guard team was ahead 18 to 9 at the end of the first quarter and 28 to 26 at the half. YMCA fought on top 37 to 36 in the third quarter and had a 40 point scoring burst in final period.

Joe Fenton and Don Mintz with 18 and 14 points paced the Y scoring. Bruce Bateman of Headquarters was high for the game with 19.

Two games are scheduled to-night at the Junior high. Sacred Heart church plays Company A of the Guard at 7 o'clock and Yellow Cab opposes Skinner's Buick at 8:30 p.m. In another fray Andy's Jewelers are to go to Prospect for 8 p.m. action.

In games Thursday at the Junior high Headquarters company meets Hawkins Tires in the first mix and YMCA battles Andy's in the nightcap.

Yellow Cab was trounced 84 to 81 by Firmco on Monday in a non-league scuffle at Myrtle Creek and will be out to achieve better results this Saturday. The Cabmen that night will play Martin Brothers Sign company, Eugene, the quiet which for the past two years has won the Oregon State AAU championship.

The 1934 schedule showed the previous high of 239 night games but because of postponements and rescheduling, the actual total was 250. Invariably, the original total goes up each year.

A breakdown of the schedule revealed, in addition to the 250 night games, a total of 142 Sunday games including a number of double headers, 193 weekday games exclusive of the eight opening day engagements, and 23 holiday games.

Season Opens April 11
The season opens officially on April 11 when Cincinnati will have its traditional "day ahead" starter with Chicago. On April 12 Pittsburgh will be at Brooklyn, New York at Philadelphia, St. Louis at Chicago and Cincinnati at Milwaukee. The secondary openers on April 14 will find the world champion Giants entertaining Brooklyn, with Philadelphia at Pittsburgh, and Milwaukee at St. Louis.

Most of all of the clubs increased their night game schedules except Chicago, which still is the only stronghold of day baseball only. There are no lights in the Cubs' park. Next to St. Louis with 56 was Philadelphia with 45. Cincinnati scheduled 36, Milwaukee 35, Brooklyn 30, Pittsburgh 28, and New York 20.

Longer Steelhead Season On Applegate To Be Sought

A longer winter steelhead fishing season on a longer stretch of the Applegate river will be requested by the Jackson county chapter of the Izaak Walton League of America at the Friday, Jan. 14, hearing of the Oregon State Game commission.

Members of the chapter voted Monday to ask the commission to change regulations to permit steelhead angling on the Applegate from its mouth to McKee bridge from Jan. 15 to March 15. At present fishing is allowed from Jan. 15 to Feb. 15 from the mouth of Williams creek to the mouth of the Applegate.

The request will be made by Waltonians maintained that the present season is too short and that for fishing after Feb. 15 they must go to the Illinois river, a considerable distance to travel from this area. Season on the Illinois ends on Feb. 28. Persons familiar with the Applegate said at the Monday meeting of the chapter that the big steelhead run up the river appears to come later than the February date.

Conference Leads Kept By NSC, SMU
By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press Sports Writer
Walloping victories by 30-points-plus kept North Carolina State and Southern Methodist rolling in high gear today, but Wichita was blasted out of the lead in the Missouri Valley Conference by the defending champion Oklahoma Aggies.

North Carolina State outshot record-smashing Furman, 105-81, to strengthen its national ranking. And Southern Methodist romped over Texas A and M 93-60, to push its Southwest Conference record to 3-0.

But Wichita, ranked 16th nationally, visited the Aggies and suffered a 69-53 trouncing. It was only the second loss in 11 games for Wichita, but it evened the Shockers' league record at 1-1 and left St. Louis, 1-0, alone in first place. The result caught the experts by surprise, for the Aggies — supposedly washed up a two-year reign in the Missouri Valley — went into the game with a 4-7 overall record.

Furman had rolled up a new major college record of 154 points in crushing the Citadel last Saturday night, but just couldn't match North Carolina State's fire power.

Furman came up with the game's individual high scorer in Darrell Floyd, who had 28 points, but State had six players who tallied in double figures, including Ronnie Shavlik with 28. Moreover, State's 7-foot center, Cliff Dwyer, missed the game because of flu. State, scoring its 14th victory in 15 games, jumped off to an early lead and increased it steadily.

Arch-rival North Carolina moved into second place in the ACC with a 4-1 record by whipping Virginia, 96-87. Buzz Wilkinson of Virginia, the league's leading scorer, had 33 points but Lennie Rosenbluth had 32 and Tony Radovich 30 for North Carolina.

TCU Takes Second
Behind Southern Methodist, Texas Christian moved into second place in the Southwest Conference at 2-0 by beating Texas, 78-64.

Niagara highlighted non-conference play by nipping local rival Canisius, 68-64, at Buffalo, N.Y. Niagara, ranked 13th nationally, and Canisius, winner of the recent Queen City tournament, were tied at 64-64 with 30 seconds to go. Then Jim McConnell turned the tide for Niagara, scoring with a jump shot from 10 feet out to break the tie and sinking two free throws seconds later to clinch the game. Ed Fleming had 23 points and Hank Nowak and Johnny McCarthy 20 each for Canisius.
