

Ann Drysdale Wed Recently In Seattle

Of interest here is news of the wedding of Miss Ann Elizabeth Drysdale, Seattle, to Ralph Van Nortwick, Alderwood Manor, Wash., which took place January 8 in Trinity Episcopal church, Seattle. The bride is the daughter of Eldon M. Drysdale, formerly of Medford and now of Roseburg, Ore., and a granddaughter of Mrs. R. H. Faxson, 428 West Fourth st., Medford. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Betty Van Nortwick, Alderwood Manor.

Pink and white camellias decorated the church altar for the service, read by the Rev. Matthew Bigliardi at three o'clock in the afternoon. The reception which followed was in the parish hall.

The bride's gown was of white crystaline with fingertip veil, and she carried a white prayer book with white camellias.

Mrs. Robert Wilcox, Medford, was matron-of-honor for her sister. Her gown was of burgundy colored crystaline and her flowers were pink and white camellias.

Mrs. Marvin Rapp, Mrs. William Christianson and Miss Anne Williams also attended the bride. Their frocks were of moss green crystaline and they carried bouquets of pink camellias.

Jack Van Nortwick was best man for his brother and Robert Wilcox, Medford, Dr. William Christianson and Edward Goodrich, Seattle, were ushers.

For the reception were Mrs. Edward Goodrich and Mrs. Elinor Herbert cut the cake, and Mrs. Ralph Dolloff and Mrs. Arthur Schultz, aunts of the bride, poured.

The couple will be at home after January 17 at 533 Eleventh Avenue North, Seattle. They attended Medford High school and was graduated from Oregon State college, where she was a member of Alpha Xi Delta. The bridegroom attended Cornish School of Music and Drama and Seattle university.

Mrs. Paxson flew to Seattle to attend the wedding, and also among the guests were the three Wilcox children, Ruth, Linda and Stephen.
