

Triller-Tepovac Ceremony Held In Grants Pass

Gold Hill—Miss Joyce Tepovac, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Tepovac, Gold Hill, and George Roland Triller, son of Mrs. Mary Triller, Grants Pass and Joe Triller, Murphy, were married by the Rev. Glenn Diller at Redwood country church in Grants Pass December 31.

Mrs. J. L. Colson, Grants Pass, was pianist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore white net over taffeta with a shadow lace jacket and carried a white Bible with a gold orchid. The rhinestone necklace she wore belonged to her aunt, Mrs. James Moran, Grants Pass.

Mrs. Ken Hobson, Gold Hill, was matron of honor. Her dress was pink net over taffeta with rhinestone trim and her corsage was of white carnations.

Sherrell Bushnell, Grants Pass, was best man and Howard Baker, Rogue River, an uncle of the bride, was usher.

The bride's mother was dressed in black taffeta with white accessories and white carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore black nylon with black accessories and white carnation corsage.

The reception was held in the church annex. The wedding cake was served by Mrs. Roy Centers, Gold Hill and the bride's aunt, Mrs. Ruth Davis, Rogue River. Mrs. James Martin, Gold Hill, sister of the bridegroom, poured the punch and Miss La Vena Hardin, cousin of the bride, had charge of the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Triller are living in the small cottage near Cogswell's market, Gold Hill.

Miss Lind Wed To Joseph Smith

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph D. Smith are living at 922½ North Central avenue, following their wedding December 17 at first Christian church parsonage. The Rev. William Piper read the ceremony. The bride is the former Miss Dolores Mae Lind. She is the daughter of Mrs. Paul Anderson, 844 Dakota avenue, and Harold E. Lind, Coos Bay.

The bridegroom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Smith.

Mrs. Robert Meadows was matron of honor and M. Meadows was best man.

For her wedding the bride wore a turquoise blue knit suit with white accessories. Mrs. Meadows wore a gray tailored suit.

The reception was given at the home of the bride's mother. Punch and wedding cake were served and the couple was presented gifts.

The bride is a student at Medford Senior High school, and the bridegroom attended schools in Illinois.

Officers for Reames chapter, Order of Eastern Star, were installed at Medford Masonic temple January 8. Taking office as worthy matron was Mrs. Jack Ward, who succeeds Mrs. John Esp.

Dr. Thomas W. Dixon led prayer and Mr. Esp, retiring patron, led the pledge of allegiance to the flag, which was followed by the national anthem. Mrs. Esp gave the welcoming address.

Installed with Mrs. Ward were Morris Boughner, worthy patron; Mrs. E. G. Randolph, associate matron; Norman Svenson, associate patron; Mrs. Gertrude Niles, secretary; Mrs. Jack Clark, treasurer; Mrs. Morris Boughner, conductress; Mrs. Etta McKinney, associate conductress; Mrs. Henry Halvorsen, chaplain; Mrs. Verner Lugnet, marshal; John Lusk, organist; Mrs. Bill Laurie, Adah; Mrs. Earl Knight, Ruth; Mrs. Ross Gilkison, Esther; Mrs. Carl Oestreich, Martha; Mrs. Lloyd Caton, Electa; Mrs. Floyd Watkins, warder; Ross Gilkison, sentinel.

Installing officers were Mrs. Frank Little, a past matron of the chapter, installing matron; M. O. Walker, past patron; Mrs. A. W. Denney, past matron as chaplain; Mrs. Jack Caldwell, past matron and grand Adah for Oregon, marshal; Mrs. Ira D. Canfield, past matron, secretary; Mrs. Clyde Leonard, organist.

Courtesy girls for 1955 are Mrs. R. E. Wicker, captain; Mrs. Roy Nordwick, Mrs. Gilbert Gross, Mrs. Adella Gregg, Mrs. Joe Pepin, Mrs. Howard Phillips, Mrs. Kenneth Severson, Mrs. Al Perkins, Mrs. John Lusk; and Mrs. C. H. Lewis.

Miss Alexa Hibbard, queen of Medford Job's Daughters, and Kenneth Piland, master counselor of Medford Order of DeMolay, acted as honor guards while Mrs. Ward was at the altar for the obligation ceremony. The Hallelu Shrine chanters sang "The Lord's Prayer" and other numbers. Mrs. Ward was presented red roses by Jacqueline and Tommie Ward, her grandchildren.

The new worthy matron and patron spoke, and Herbert Daniels sang, accompanied by Mr. Lusk. The program closed with the mizpah benediction, and a reception followed.

For the installation Mrs. Ward wore a gown of white net over taffeta with a panel of lace on the skirt front and a lace bodice. Rhinestones trimmed the lace.

Lodges Announce Public Ceremony; Officers Named

Officers of Talisman temple, Pythian Sisters and nights of Pythias, will be installed during a joint public ceremony Monday, January 17, at 8 p.m., in the Pythian building. A program and refreshments are planned.

Officers of both lodges are asked to meet today at 4 p.m. at the building to practice for the ceremonies.

Frank F. Converse of Medford was elected royal vizier to head Fuhat Burkan temple, DOKK, for 1955 at an annual election Saturday evening. George P. Hindsale of Roseburg is the new grand emir, and others from Medford are Edward E. Bostwick, sheik; Leroy F. Cline, mahedi; Joe W. Fritsch, was reelected secretary; James P. O'Duane, satrap, and Lewis E. Conger, sahib. Robert H. Wedlock, Rogue River, was elected treasurer.

Public installation of these officers together with recently elected officers of Idella Rogue santha, Nomads of Avrudaka, is tentatively set for Saturday evening, February 5, in the Medford Pythian building.

Both the DOKKs and Nomads comprise the area from Roseburg to Dunsmuir in California and Klamath Falls. The parent order, the Knights of Pythias and the Pythian Sisters, will meet for a grand lodge and grand temple convention of Oregon in Medford next October. This will be preceded by a far western DOKK and Nomad convention when about 850 visitors are expected to come to the Rogue valley and Medford.

Wednesday evening nine members from here attended and took part in a ceremony conferring the rank of knight upon five esquires of the lodge at the Grants Pass Pythian building. From here were Leroy Cline, Harry Hoehne, Ed Bostwick, Jimmie O'Duane, John Fugill, Carl Fichtner, Tom Davidson, Francis Hibbard and Joe W. Fritsch. A delegation from Roseburg also attended.

A district meeting with grand counselor, J. Paul Meyers, St. Helens, is scheduled for Monday, February 21, with members from Bandon, Klamath Falls, Grants Pass and Yreka, Calif., who will meet here.

A highway safety program conducted by the nationwide Pythians and auxiliaries will be among the topics to be discussed. The supreme lodge of Knights of Pythias is a member group of the national safety council.

Don't let crumbs collect in an electric toaster, or a short circuit may result. Use a soft brush to remove them.

Club to Meet

Thursday Luncheon club will meet Thursday, January 20 at the home of Mrs. Robert Taylor, 510 North Bartlett street. Dessert will be served at 12:30 p.m.

Church Service Held Last Month Marries Couple

Eagle Point—Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Wayne Eccleston, whose wedding was an event of December 23, are living at 526 South B street in Eagle Point. The bride is the former Miss Peggy Elaine Carnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Carnes, Eagle Point.

The bridegroom, an employee of the Cascade Wood products, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Eccleston of Shady Cove.

The Rev. Glenn S. Wade performed the double ring ceremony at 8 o'clock in the evening at the Eagle Point Community Bible church. Mrs. Gerald E. Adamson, Tacoma, Wash., a sister of the bride was matron of honor, and two other sisters, Mrs. John Salvestro, Hilt, Calif., and Mrs. Leland Meyer, assisted at the reception which was held at the Carnes home. Fifty guests attended.

Charles Eccleston, Shady Cove, was best man for his brother.

Don Falkenhagen, Medford, and Bill Caldwell and Eddie Peile were the ushers.

Mr. Carnes gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown was made with a lace bodice and a floor length nylon net skirt over satin. Her fingertip length veil was held from a coronet of net and seed pearls and she carried a colonial bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Adamson wore a light green gown of embroidered nylon over net. Her bouquet also was of white chrysanthemums.

Baskets of white and red chrysanthemums with laurustinus and branches of Port Orford cedar furnished the church decorations. Miss Joanne Henderson was soloist and Miss Pat Perr, pianist.

For her daughters wedding Mrs. Carnes wore a charcoal colored dress with black accessories. Her corsage was of white chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom's mother wore a black and pink dress with black accessories and her corsage was also of white chrysanthemums.

The bride was graduated in 1954 from Eagle Point high school and has lived her entire life in this area. The bridegroom attended Medford, Myrtle Creek and Eagle Point schools.

MEDFORD (OREGON) MAIL TRIBUNE—THREE

Amelia Earhart Day Observed By Zonta Club

Amelia Earhart day was observed by Medford Zonta club Thursday with a talk given by Mrs. Effie Kurtz. She gave a resume of the accomplishments of the 18 young women who have received the Amelia Earhart scholarship from Zonta International since 1940.

The scholarship in honor of the famed aviatrix is granted to a young woman for a year's graduate study in aeronautical engineering and is the service project of the International organization of Zonta in addition to the service projects of the individual clubs. Mrs. Kurtz said that the qualifications which the applicant must fill are extremely high. Members were told that among those who had the scholarship were two girls outside the United States; one from Italy and one from Egypt. Also speaking at the noon meeting was Mrs. Celia Martin who gave a classification talk concerning her work in a real estate and insurance office.
