POLICE HIRE GIRLS

Tokyo — (U.P.) — Tokyo police, gripped by complaints that their headquarters is unattractive, have assigned four pretty girls to meet people at the building's two entrances. Officials also have ordered the women to take charm courses.

Two Damage Suits Filed in Court

Two separate damage suits, each seeking $15,000 in general damages, were filed this week in circuit court.

One complaint was filed by Marie Clark against Glen W. and Louise Hunsaker. An automobile accident, Oct. 23 near the intersection of Antelope rd. and Highway 62, is involved.

The complaint alleged the plaintiff suffered neck injuries and was disabled as a result of the accident. Besides the general damages, the plaintiff is asking for $286.44 in special damages.

In the other case, Greta Hollowell is the plaintiff and Lloyd

Thomas Nelson and O. A. Selby are defendants. The suit alleges that Nelson was operating Selby's car at the time of the accident, and that the plaintiff was a passenger in a car operated by Charles Hollowell on Nov. 18, 1953, on McAndrews rd., and that the plaintiff received permanent partial disability as a result of the accident. Special damages of $178.25 are being asked, besides the general sum.
