Black Tornado Clips Pelicans, 64-51 In Scrappy Play; Retains Loop Lead

SOUTHERN OREGON CONFERENCE STANDINGS (Friday Night)

The Medford Black Tornado blew up a good breeze, turned gusty and finished with a big whirl on its home maplecourt Friday night. Result was Medford high's fifth straight Southern Oregon Conference basketball triumph and assurance of lone occupancy in first place at the halfway pause of the conference campaign.

Klamath Falls was the Black Tornado victim by a count of 64 to 51. But before the Pelicans succumbed they gave the high-powered Medfordites the toughest opposition they've had so far in the circuit.

Medford's offensive lacked sharpness and misfired in streaks—the Tornado has seen better nights—but it was up against a club which matched it in height, fought it on about even terms under the backboards succeeded in toning down its highly regarded fast break and frequently broke up its more deliberate attack.

Score In Close

Yet, it was the element of slickness in the Tornado attack, its ability to get shots in close in and the ability to sink them which won the victory. The Medfordites were not too effective at long range. But they didn't have to be. They took the big share of their shots at close range and made most of them to continue hitting at the 50 per cent pace they have maintained in recent games.

Klamath hit at close range too but not so often or effective as the home club.

The Tornado came through despite injury handicaps unreported prior to the tussle. Bud Kastner, who fouled out early in the second half, has recurring trouble with a cord behind his knee. It slipped in practice Thursday and Kastner played with his leg bound up. Glenn Peterson turned his ankle on Thursday and couldn't spring from the floor on it. Bob Tisdel was unable to play Friday because of an ankle sprain.

Led Whole Distance

Medford held front position on the scoreboard throughout the Friday tangle but not until well into the fourth and concluding quarter did the Tornado have its triumph tucked away.

Foust with all his seven points and Larry Copple and Jerry Kalapus with two field goals apiece spurred the Tornado's surge away. Medford went into the wind-up canto with a 45 to 38 advantage. Guy Munsell hit his third long shot in about five minutes for Klamath to make it 45 to 40.

Then a half-minute into the quarter Foust found the range. Copple next plunked in a rebound shot and followed at the 2-minute mark with a fast break bucket. With 3¼ minutes up and Medford turning to ball control, playing for the sure shot, Foust tallied from the key. That made it 53 to 41.

Medford then widened to 17-point margins of 60 to 43 and 62 to 45. Reserves filtered into the Tornado line-up after the clock read 2½ minutes to play and a complete team of Medford non-starters finished the conflict. Klamath reserves were also predominate in the final moments and saw more duty than Medfords in the game.

Spurty Pattern

Another Tornado runaway seemed likely at the start but Klamath came back to give the Medfordites a rugged battle by spurts. Pattern of the combat saw Medford pick up fairly comfortable margins only to have the Pelicans spurt up and tighten the tussle.

The Tornado had a 7 to 0 lead in the first three minutes of play. It was ahead by 15 to 4 by the 6-minute mark. Klamath on a hook shot by Dave D'Olivo, a steal by Jack Sunitsch, a fielder by Marlin Causey and a fast break shot and two free tosses by D'Olivo, while Copple got a goal and a gifter for Medford, hacked the difference to 18 to 14. Frank Rector's jump shot for Medford made it 20 to 14 at the quarter.

Medford worked to 24 to 17 advantage in the second period and the Pels cut it to 24 to 21 all on free shots. A 28 to 21 bulge slipped to 28 to 25. But Copple fieldered from the corner and got a pair of free heaves along with two by Rector and one by Kalapus for a 35 to 25 halftime standing.

Dominate Quarter

The Pelicans, outhustling and and outscrapping Medford, pretty well dominated the third quarter. Medford was outscored 13 to 10 in the panel and once saw its margin slip to 42 to 33. Guy Munsell with two long shots and D'Olivo with two tip-ins after missed free shots were chiefly responsible for scoring damage.

D'Olivo's success at the free shot line where he got seven in eight tries helped him to high scoring honors with 19. Copple outdid D'Olivo from the field seven to six, and with three free shots had 17 counters. Kalapus got 15 points and Munsell 14.

Rebounding figures gave Medford 31 to 27 edge. The Tornado under its offensive board got 16 to the Pels 15. Under the Pelican basket the Medford margin was 15 to 12.

The work was evenly divided among the big men. Kalapus got nine and Peterson seven for Medford. Foust, who replaced Kastner in the second quarter and then in the third when the the starter left for good, got five boards.

Munsell topped Klamath with seven, Causey got six and D'Olivo five.

Medford is idle next week end, drawing a well-earned rest. The Tornado plays Marshfield at Coos Bay on February 4 and 5.

Foust got the casaba but a jump ball was called. Standing over the two players is Jerry Kalapus, Medford. Babe Leads Tampa Golf

Tampa, Fla. — (U.P.) — Veteran Babe Zaharias shot a brilliant three-under par 34 on the front nine in the $5,000 Tampa women's open golf tournament Saturday and then fought off a back nine letdown to take a one-stroke lead at the end of 54 holes.

At one point the Babe held a seven-stroke advantage over the field but ran into trouble on the final holes to card a 34-41—75 for a total of 221.

Tied one stroke back were professionals Louise Suggs of Cincinnati who shot a 39-37—76 Saturday and Beverly Hanson of Indio, Calif., who turned in a 35-36—71.

Mrs. Zaharias scored three birdies in her blazing front nine 34. But she added four bogies of the back side as she appeared to tire. On the five-par 18th hole, the Babe pushed her first drive out of bounds and ended the day with a two-over-par seven for the hole.

Chico State Raps Raiders

By UNITED PRESS

Eastern Oregon's high scoring Mountaineers still were in the driver's seat in the Oregon College Conference basketball chase Friday with Southern Oregon hot on their heels.

EOCE racked up Oregon college of education 112-78 at La Grande Friday night for its fourth win against one loss. Larry Pryse topped the scoring for EOCE with 28 while Larry Chamberlain hit 17 for OCE.

Southern Oregon, which has a 5-2 mark, played a non-conference game against Chico State last night and was walloped 81-54.

Portlnd State moved into third place in the OCC last night by downing Oregon Tech 78-69 at Klamath Falls as Jim Perkins hit 24 points.

Crater, Phoenix Lick Foes In Rogue League Struggles

ROGUE LEAGUE STANDINGS (Friday Night)

	W.	L.	Pct.
Crater	3	0	1.000
Phoenix	2	1	.667
Illinois Valley	1	2	.333
Eagle Point	0	3	.000

Crater high stuck to its winning pace and Phoenix came through with a victory in Friday night basketball contention in the Rogue League.

The Comets of Crater rambled to an easy 70 to 45 decision over Illinois Valley at Cave Junction and Phoenix came from behind as time was running out to nudge Eagle Point 41 to 39 at Eagle Point.

A field goal by Bill Madden in the final moments gave the Pirates a 40 to 39 edge at Eagle Point. Madden added a free shot after the final buzzer to establish the victory margin. Eagle Point led 35 to 30 as the teams entered the fourth quarter. Phoenix cut the gap to 37 to 34 midway through the panel then hacked it to 39 to 38 to set the stage for Madden's goal.

Phoenix was in front 14 to 10 at the quarter and the crews were tied at 20-all at halftime.

Eagles Couldn't Hit

Eagle Point, with Frank Reich back in the line-up, looked better than it has all year. Reich and Greb worked well on the fast break, the Eagles passed the ball like a hot potato and they controlled the backboards. But they just couldn't find the scoring range althoguh taking many and good shots. After Madden had put Phoenix ahead in the closing portion, Eagle Point missed four lay-up chances.

Eagle average from the field was .233 on 17 for 73. Phoenix had 16 out of 51 tries for .314. At the free line, where in the final analysis Phoenix won, the Pirates shot nine for 16 and Eagle Point five for 15. The Eagle rebound advantage was 60 to 36.

Phoenix played without Ron Bean, victim of a shoulder separation last week end, and missing from the Eagle quint was Harvey Nelson, who has a broken hand. The Pirates will suffer another loss next week when Ron Vreeken moves to southern California.

Comets Break Well

Reich of the Eagles has been sidelined by an operation on a hand injured in football.

Reserves played all of the third period and parts of the second and fourth cantos for Crater's Comets. Crater held quarterly spreads of 22 to 10, 39 to 14 and 45 to 29 as its fast break worked better than it has in quite a spell and as it controlled the backboards 40 to 25.

Jim Higinbotham, Crater, connecting from all angles, paced scoremakers with 24 points. He and Bob Gray each hauled in 10 rebounds for the Comets. Crater hit at a .449 clip from the field.

Illinois Valley beat Crater 39 to 38 and Eagle Point was victor over Phoenix in junior varsity action.

The Comet varsity, through Friday, had won all of its three league games and Phoenix had won two of three encounters.

Bolt Leads San Diego Golf Open

By HAL WOOD

San Diego, Calif. — (U.P.) — Tommy Bolt, the wirey Texan, faded to an even-par 72 in the third round of the $15,000 San Diego Open Saturday, but that was good enough to keep a three-stroke lead over Fire-Horse Jackie Burke of Kiamesha Lake, N. Y., who moved up to second place with a four-under-par 68.

With the final 18 holes slated for today, Bolt has a 203 total and Burke, the nation's second leading money winner last year without capturing a single tournament, had 206.

Meanwhile, the men who were on Bolt's heels Friday, Game Littler and Stan Leonard, failed to gain. Littler had a big 73 Saturday and now has 208. Leonard was even-par 72 and has 207, the same total as that posted by Johnny Palmer, who had a fine 68 Saturday.

Bolt was in the process of making a run-away of the tournament as late as the 15th hole Saturday. But he ran into a pair of bogies on 16 and 17 and ended up the back side with a 37 after going out in 35.

Ski Conditions

Skiing at Crater Lake National park yesterday was poor to fair, the park ranger's office reported. There was a breakable crust in the morning with wet surface snow in the afternoon.

Conditions were expected to be the same today if the weather is the same. Weather was warm at the lake yesterday with thin overcast. Weather forecast via United Press was for light snow tonight and heavier fall today.

The ranger's office reported 72 inches of snow at the lake compared to 108 at this time last year.

Highway 62 was open yesterday and chains were advised. Chains or snow tires were necessary from Annie Spring to the lake rim.

MOD Casaba Benefit Slated on Wednesday; Miller Challenges Duff

Plans for an entertaining March of Dimes basketball card next Wednesday night at the Medford senior high gym are virtually complete, it was announced yesterday.

Latest addition to the attraction is a free throw contest. Mayor Earl Miller has challenge City Manager Robert Duff with the loser to give $5 to the March of Dimes.

Andy's Jewelers will oppose Yellow Cab in the feature engagement at 8:30 p. m. Medford firemen and policemen will be rivals in the 7:15 p. m. opener. Ping pong playing firemen are looking for some opposition to round out the evening's events.

Medford Independent Basketball League is presenting its best teams for the polio benefit engagement. Both clubs are undefeated in the league and the Cabbies have claim to top ranking in southern Oregon.

Firemen and policemen are whipping some long retired talent into shape for their fracas. A number of the squad members for both teams have been nursing aching muscles. Firemen report that they have been practicing in their spare time and the police are charging that the Smoke Eaters apparently have more time to spare.

Andy's has some capable talent with experienced gained elsewhere but the majority of the squad is made up of former Medford high athletes. On the list are Willard Lilly, freshest out of high school, Jack Boardman, LaRue Smith, Bill Kramer, pro-baseballer Derald Wooten, Loren Soderlund, Bob Shores and Bob Fasel. All were Tornado varsity cagers.

Bill Neely saw his athletic experience at Medford high and St. Mary's and Chuck Chitwood was a Medford footballer. Rounding out the Jewelers roster are Roger Clark, ex-North Bend, Dean Norman, ex-Iowa State, Herb Trautman, Central Point, and Jim Moore, Butte Falls.

The Yellow Cab balances out more cosmopolitan and is dotted with a number of ex-all-staters. Ed Hummel hails from Billings, Mont., by way of Portland university and has played for the Portland Jewish Community center. Johnny Foster all-stated at Central Catholic in Portland, was a JCC mate of Hummel's last year and has played for the University of Oregon Frosh. Chuck Stacy counts numerous seasons in the Medford Independent league and has played ball in California.

Don Wendt, Don Harris were B all-staters at Jacksonville and Max Hite made second team B all-state at Phoenix. Bill Werner is an ex-Medford high varsity performer.

Medford JV's Top KF, 60-50

Medford high's jayvee basketball contingent kept an unblemished record intact Friday night after a close call. It turned back the Klamath Falls junior varsity 60 to 50 after the Pels almost caught up in the closing minutes.

The scrap ended with a flurry of roughness and with bickering with remarks that resulted in technical fouls being called on the Pel Jayvee Coach Ray Coley and a Klamath player.

Medford, leading at the half 34 to 23 and by 13 points once in the third quarter, was in command only 45 to 40 at the end of the third period. The junior Tornado expanded to 50 to 42 but Klamath closed in to 50 to 48.

Field goals by Larry Perkins, Charles Inskeep and John Hawley enabled Medford to shake off the threat, and gift throws rounded out the Tornado tally.

Inskeep was high scorer with 16. For Klamath, Butch Kimpton had 15 and Earl Tichenor 14.

Ashland to Play A-1 Baseball; KF, Mat Site

Ashland high will play Class A-1 baseball this spring and this district will accept the invitation of Oregon Technical institute to hold the March 25-26 wrestling eliminations at Klamath Falls.

Those were announcements following a Southern Oregon Conference meeting here yesterday.

Main purpose of the meeting was to arrange spring sports.

Lester Harris, Medford high principal, is president, and Lee Ragsdale, Medford school physical education supervisor, is secretary of the conference.

Sports Bulletins

Little Mo Preps For Comeback in Net Competition

By HAL WOOD

San Diego, Calif. — (U.P.) — Salute and salaam, girls, the queen is coming back.

Maureen (Little Mo) Connolly, acknowledged boss of the world's tennis courts, has completely recovered from the accident that sidelined her a year ago and forced her to relinquish most of the important tennis crowns.

Miss Connolly, only 20 years old, admits that the competition will be rugged—but she is confident that her old game will be good enough to win and that she can regain her old form.

Will Be In Shape

"I've been practicing three hours a day and I'm going to be in shape for the summer campaign," says Little Mo, who wears a diamond ring on the third finger, left hand these days, indicating she is engaged to a young athlete named Norman Brinker.

"I'm going to enter my first tournament in March at the La Jolla Beach and Tennis Club. Then I'm going to Europe."

Her first stop in Europe may be to play in the Italian championships. She hopes to wind up a triumphant tour there by taking the coveted Wimbledon crown.

Basilio Clips P. Mueller

Syracuse, N. Y. —(U.P.)—Fiery Carmen Basilio set his sights today on two world titles, welterweight and middleweight, as a result of his convincing victory over 157-pound Pete Mueller of Germany.

"I'm sure Friday night's win clinched a shot at Johnny Saxton's welterweight title, said the raw-boned, hatchet-faced onion farmer from nearby Canastota, N. Y., "and after I beat Saxton, I want Bobo Olson." Olson is the middleweight ruler.

Middleweight Mueller attributed his defeat on a lop-sided decision to his being off form because of too much fighting since he came to the United States in November.

Pete suffered a technical knockdown, several spells of grogginess, a badly gashed left brow and a rude shattering of his hopes for a middleweight title shot when he became the target of Basilio's left hooks in the Syracuse Memorial Auditorium.

Because of consecutive American victories over Ralph (Tiger) Jones, Joe Miceli and Ernie Durando, he could have earned consideration as contender had he beaten Basilio, the 3-1 favorite.
