Tornado Drubs Klamath 70-43 To End First Half of League Play Unbeaten

Talk of a Medford high jaunt to the state basketball tournament at Eugene—it has been going on ever since the start of the season—could buzz louder and stronger today in the wake of the 70 to 43 victory here Saturday night over the Klamath Falls Pelicans.

And the Black Tornado, as it paused to renew vigor for the remainder of the chase, could look forward with confidence. The same success that marked the Tornado's progress through the first half of the conference race, if repeated in the second half and in the district playoffs, will get the Medford cagers to the big tourney in a breeze.

The Southern Oregon conference championship isn't clinched but the Black Tornado is well out in front of the pack with its record of six wins and no setbacks. It will take mammoth effort on the part of conference members to calm the blistering breeze.

Three Game Lead

Medford took a full three game lead in the circuit as the Pelicans dropped their third decision. Grants Pass Saturday retained a ray of hope in the loop with its second win, 42 to 32, over Ashland, all but eliminating Ashland from contention.

"We'll beat you the first time and lick you worse the second" seems to be a silent motto in the league for Medford. It was that way over the week end as the Tornado added the Saturday triumph to a 64 to 51 Friday win, running its victory string to 12 and season record to 13-1 for the season.

Saturday night's impressive verdict was a tribute and credit to the versatility and fine balance of power in Coach Frank Roelandt's 1955 hoop edition. It showed that height, while mighty necessary, isn't all that is important.

Klamath Falls, which more than matched the Tornado in over-all altitude, was "in" the game for the first half Saturday night but couldn't keep pace for the whole route with the blistering, fast-breaking gait and the slick, sharp passing and shooting of the Tornado.

Both Keyed Up

Both clubs turned in keyed up high spirited good performances in the first half. Both fought all-out for the ball. And offensive failures were due more to fired up aggressive defensive play than to flaws in the respective attacks.

Medford went ahead to stay in the last minute of the first quarter but the lead switched four times and the count was deadlocked on three occasions before the Tornado could get permanent upperhand.

Larry Copple dribbled-in off the tip off for the first field goal of the game. Dave D'Olivio whirled in a shot for the Pels to even it at 2-all. Bud Kastner came through with a long jumper for Medford. But D'Olivio got a gift point and Jack Sunitsch a bucket from far out for a Klamath edge of 5 to 4. Kastner's jumper next made it 6 to 5 for Medford.

Guy Munsell tied the fracas at the free line. Jerry Kalapus scored in close for Medford but Sunitsch hit again to make it 8-all. Copple connected on a fast break. Then D'Olivio netted a free marker and tallied from the field on a rebounder for 11 to 10 Pelican advantage.

Tornado Goes Ahead

Kalapus came back with a rebound shot for 12 to 11 and the Tornado was in front for good. Lanky Jerry made the first of two free attempts. On his miss of the second, Kastner intercepted the Pelican tip out and flicked in a basket from the side. Medford lead at the quarter close was 15 to 11.

Klamath never again got nearer. The Medford margin through the second quarter varied from six to 12 points. It was 31 to 19 with 50 seconds left in the period. D'Olivio made the first of two free shots. Munsell tipped in the rebound on the missed second attempt and the halftime situation was 31 to 22.

D'Olivio swished a corner heave as the third chukker began but Frank Rector retaliated in kind for Medford. Copple drove in after a steal and popped in another drive in shot and the Tornado was on its way. The score was 37 to 24. Points from two free shots by Johnny Foust and a field goal by Rector were matched from the field by Larry Yarnell and D'Olivio but Medford made five free shots to get an 18-point bulge of 46 to 28.

20 Point Lead

Goals by Kastner and Glenn Peterson and two gifters by Kastner while Danny Lowe and D'Olivio fielded for Klamath gave Medford 52 to 32 command. Medford outscored the Pels 21 to 10 in the panel.

The Tornado added 18 to Klamath's 11 in the last quarter. Widest Medford spread before the final buzzer was 31 points, 70 to 39.

Frank Rector, with five field goals and two free shots for 12 in the last quarter, led Medford scoring with 20 points. Good balance in the point making department for Medford was evident in the scoring as Kastner got 18, his tops for the season, and Larry Copple 16. Kastner made all six of his free shot tries, Rector all four of his and Copple four out of five.

D'Olivio with 22 points on seven field goals and eight gifters, was high man for the game. Following him for KF were Lowe and Sunitsch with six tallies each.

Medford with 48.1 per cent didn't keep up to its usual 50 per cent on field goals. It put in 13 goals in each half, shooting 33 times in the first portion and seeing its percentage build up as only 21 tries were made in the second half. Medford got the ball down the court fast and worked it in well in the first half just the same. The bulk of Medford's successful shots were in close and were collected on fast breaks, drive-ins, feeds, jumps, hooks and rebounds.

13 Out of 14

Medford's appearances at the free throw line evidenced Klamath sag in the second half. The Tornado got 14 gift attempts in that 16 minutes and made all but one of them. Eighteen of 23 free chances were canned by Medford for the distance. Medford plunked in nine gifters in the third quarter, all but offsetting five Klamath field goals.

Higher Medford percentage from the field helped give it backboard control in the second half and gave Medford a rebound edge of 34 to 25. Jerry Kalapus, despite sitting out more than a quarter because of four fouls and not finishing the final stanza, got seven boards. His third quarter replacement, Johnny Foust, and Kastner each got seven. But Peterson topped the list with eight. D'Olivio paced Klamath with six.

Coach Roelandt said the Tornado will work out only twice this week, probably Tuesday and Thursday. When there is drill, the concentration will be on the reserves.

St. Mary's Tips Trojans

Laval Meunier's long push shot with 4½ seconds to play got St. Mary's high of Medford a 45 to 43 basketball victory over the Sacred Heart Trojans in a tight see-saw skirmish yesterday at Klamath Falls.

With 1 minute and 40 seconds left in the mix and the score knotted at 43-all, the Crusaders elected to stall with the ball to make a last second goal try. The strategy paid off as Meunier came through from about 30 feet out.

Lead in the conflict switched hands often and never more than six points separated the clubs. Sacred Heart headed 16 to 12 at the quarters and St. Mary's 26 to 22 at halftime and 35 to 33 at the third quarter.

St. Mary's won the jayvee game 33 to 32.

Crater and Ashland high schools, which have developed spirited sports rivalry, engage in a basketball ruckus Tuesday night. Ashland will be scene of the brush. It will be a non-league affair. A return scrap will be at Central Point on February 8.

Crater and Phoenix high schools are getting ready this week for showdown battles over the leadership in the Rogue Basketball League. Props for the showdown drama were put in place Saturday night as Crater smeared Illinois Valley 72 to 31 and Phoenix sneaked by Eagle Point 34 to 33.

The victories completed week end sweeps for both the Comets and Pirates. Crater is still unmarred in the loop while Phoenix is in second place with one loss in four games.

Phoenix will be host to the Comets this Friday and the clubs clash again at Central Point on Saturday. Illinois Valley will play at Eagle Point on Friday and the Eagles and Cougars have Saturday action at Cave Junction.

Crater played exceptionally good ball to breeze by Illinois Valley last Saturday. Comet first stringers were used for only about half the game. They didn't see duty in the third period at all. Every Comet player who saw action got into the scoring column.

The Comets put in their first nine field goal tries as they rolled up a 23 to 4 first quarter spread. Scores at the end of the other quarters were 38 to 14 and 49 to 22. Crater hit a .390 average on field goals and .500 on free shots. Harvey Tonn, Crater, was high scorer with 20.

Phoenix came from behind in stirring fashion after trailing until the fourth quarter. Eagle Point had period leads of 10 to 6, 23 to 15 and 29 to 23.

Two free heaves by Bill Madden gave the Pirates the lead at 30 to 29. The count stretched to 32 to 29 on Charles Wall's fielder. Frank Reich of the Eagles closed the gap to 32 to 31. Wall and Ron Vreeken got free buckets for a 34 to 31 count. Then Reich dribbled in for a field goal. The Pirates stalled out the final seconds.

Crater won from the Cougars easily Friday also with a 70 to 45 score while the Pirate's Friday win over the Eagles was almost as whisker thin as on Saturday. The final was 41 to 39.

Medford JV Five Victor In Thriller

For a tense, heated, rough thriller finish the Medford and Klamath Falls prep junior varsities outdid the varsities on the hoop floor here Saturday night.

Medford's jayvees overcame Klamath 48 to 44 after lagging for the biggest portion of the game. It was the junior Tornado's 14th victory of the season. The team is unbeaten.

Klamath's jayvees, spurred by big Earl Tichenor, held the upper hand 15 to 10 at the quarter and 23 to 15 at the half. Two free shots by Larry Gober with 3½ minutes gone by in the third quarter, gave Medford it's first lead of the game, 26 to 25. The Tornado expanded to 30 to 25 and 32 to 27 but was on top only 32 to 31 at the end of the quarter.

Field goals were even at four apiece in the last period. Medford won out on the basis of eight free shots to five.

Pels Lead Again

Tichenor hit for a 33 to 32 Klamath lead as the stanza opened. Charles Inskeep's long shot gave the edge back to Medford 34 to 33 but Tichenor got a gifter for a deadlock. Gober of Medford and McGill of Klamath traded free shots for 35-all and John Hawley got two charity throws and Larry Perkins one for a 38 to 35 Medford advantage. Perkins swished a shot from behind the key for 40 to 35.

Buckets by Tichenor and McGill, however, cut it to 40 to 39. Inskeep got a free one and a field shot for 43 to 39 Tornado lead. Gober flipped in two free chances and Perkins scored from afield while Tichenor got a gift shot. That made it 47 to 40 for Medford. McGill shot twice from the bonus line and Hawley once for 48 to 42 and Tichenor ended the scoring with a field goal.

Tichenor, who stands well over the six-foot level, had 25 points for the evening. Medford lost some matching height in the fourth quarter when Mike Stearns fouled out but his replacement, Perkins, made up for the disadvantage in scoring and floor play. Hawley and Inskeep tallied 13 each for Medford.

Corvallis — (U.P.)—The Oregon State basketball squad swept its two-game "civil war" series with the University of Oregon here Saturday night by beating the Webfoots 56-54 in a hard fought overtime game.

Oregon State's giant center Wade Swede Halbrook played for the first time since being suspended by coach Slats Gill last Tuesday for disciplinary reasons. But he got in less than five minutes in the first half and collected only one free throw.

Friday night the Beavers edged by Oregon without Halbrook's help, 56-53.

In the first half, Oregon took the lead for the first five minutes, but the Beavers caught up with them at 14 all. The Beavers piled up an eight point lead, but the Ducks came back to edge them at the half, 34 to 33.

The second half was a tense see-saw battle with the score all tied up three times. The game went into overtime at 52-52 after Oregon's Bill Toole missed two free throws with only 56 seconds left.

Oregon's Jim Loscutoff tied up the game again at 54 all, but Oregon State got control of the ball and a push shot by Ron Robins put the Beavers out in front and gave them their sixth Northern Division win of the season.

Oregon State took a firmer grip on the Northern Division lead in the Pacific Coast Conference basketball race.

In the weekend's only other PCC action, Washington State split with Washington to put the Cougars and the Huskies in a tie for third behind the Beavers and the Ducks.

The Huskies walked away with the Friday affair, 69-38, but fell, 74-73, the next night as Doug King, Cougar substitute forward, calmly sank a free throw after the final buzzer for the margin of victory.

This week the conference fight goes on without a break. Washington State and Idaho meet in a weekend home-and-home series and Oregon State goes to Washington for two.

Tommy Bolt Triumphant At San Diego

By HAL WOOD

San Diego, Calif.—(U.P.)—His putting was off and his tee-shots were bad, but Terrible Tommy Bolt, the thunder-man of the fairways, picked up a check for $2,400 today after winning the $15,000 San Diego Open golf tournament for the second time in three years.

Despite the fact that he clipped 14 strokes from par as he fired a 274 for 72 holes, Bolt was dissatisfied with his game as he headed for the $15,000 Palm Springs, Calif., Invitational starting on Thursday.

"I couldn't hit a good wood all during the tournament," he said after he had accomplished the victory by a two-stroke margin over Johnny Palmer of Charlotte, N. C.

But the main thing was that Tommy's famed explosive temperament was in complete control. Not once did he throw a club or indicate in any way that he was irked—except for a few words with some overzealous cameramen the first day.

Same Count

Bolt, who says he is 36, although the official books list him as only 34 won this tournament in 1953 with the same 274 score.

This time he had rounds of 64-67-72-71. In that crop of sharp-shooting were two eagles. Besides the $2,400 first prize money, Bolt picked up $100 for low round the first day and $25 each for the eagles. Sunday he went out in 33 with an eagle and two birdies and a bogey on the front nine and then played it careful coming in for a 38.

Ted Kroll, Bethesda, Md., and Fred Haas, New Orleans, each had 67s on the final day and that got them a tie for third and $1,300 each for their 277s.

Jackie Burke, Kiamesha Lake, N. Y., who started the final round only three strokes behind Bolt, had a 72 in the last round and finished in a tie for fifth with Bo Wininger, who had a 67 with a 278, good for $900 each.

Tied with Leonard at 280 were Bud Holscher, Santa Monica, Calif., and E. J. Dutch Harrison, St. Louis.

Chico Blasts Red Raiders

Chico, Calif. — (U.P.) — Chico State college broke its own school scoring record Saturday night, walloping Southern Oregon college 106-54.

The Chico second string played about 20 minutes of the game and continued to pile up the score. It was Chico 44, Southern Oregon 29 at intermission.

Chico scored 102 points against the same team two years ago at Ashland, Ore. Darrell Tyberg, a guard, was high scorer for the visitors with 15 markers. Center George Maderos of Chico tallied 22.

BEAVERS GET CATCHER

Calderone played out last season with Toledo in the American association. He is a former New York Giant who last year appeared in 29 games for Milwaukee, hitting .319.
