

WEARING BRAND-NEW engineer's suit, Tommy Woodward, 4, victim of polio, has dream come true when he rides in cab of B&O diesel locomotive with engineer C. E. Lowery. Tommy is poster boy for 1955 March of Dimes Campaign. (International)

March of Dimes Mystery Man Remains Unidentified

Identity of the March of Dimes Mystery Man continued to stump contestants last night when he went unidentified on the seventh telephone call. Another clue and another prize have been added and tonight's telephone call will be made over station KMED at 9:30 p.m. Wednesday's call comes from station KYJC at 5:30 p.m.

Each day a name is drawn from the entries and a call made. Those desiring to enter the contest must send their name, address and telephone number to March of Dimes Mystery Man Contest, P.O. Box 531, Medford, Ore. A contribution to the polio fund may be included. Contest entrants are reminded it does not qualify one for the prizes if they include their Mystery Man guess on their entry blank. A coupon for convenience of those desiring to enter the contest appears on this page.

The new clue follows: I'm a resident president. The added prize is a scale model Allis Chalmers H-D 4 tractor from Industrial Machine and Pump Co.

Other clues follow: He was born in California in 1904 and became a Beaver in 1941. He came to the Rogue valley in 1946. He is a father. Some officials conceal evidence. Other officials disclose facts and reason. My first name is the same as one of the saints. There are two other men in Oregon holding positions identical to mine. I might be considered a Southern gentleman. My last name is closely related to a Swiss fantasy. The saint in clue number three is the sailor saint.

Other prizes include a pair of men's pajamas from The Hub; a free radio or TV service call from Emerson's Radio and TV Service; a $10 gift certificate from Johnson and Stewart Shoe store; a $5 gift certificate from Mann's Department store; a case of Pepsi Cola and a case of Mission orange from Pepsi Cola Bottling Co.; 10 pounds of coffee from the Communication Workers of America, Local 9208; a $5 grocery order and a $5 meat order from the Hawthorne Market and a girl's sweater from Burelson's.

Damaged Freighters Return To Coos Bay

Coos Bay, Ore.—(U.P.)—Two Liberty-type freighters which collided in thick fog off Coos Bay Bar yesterday managed to creep back to North Bend inside the harbor with no further incident.

The vessels, the SS Lewis Emery Jr., and the SS George E. Long, radioed distress signals but returned to port without assistance. Neither reported injuries.

The Emery, fogbound for two days here, attempted to sail out of the harbor despite the low visibility. She was hit broadside by the Long, which was also outbound.

Coast Guard officials said there was a hole in the Long's port bow as a result of the collision and the Emery received damage to her hull above the water line.

Passaic, N. J.—(U.P.)—The Butler Volunteer Hose Company scraped the side of its new fire truck on a pole on the way to a fire. The fire turned out to be a smoldering pie in a stove.

Bills In Legislature

Salem—(U.P.)—The State Legislature has been asked to appropriate $25,000 for Governor Paul L. Patterson for expenses connected with the observance of the sesquicentennial of the Lewis and Clark expedition to Oregon. A bill calling for the appropriation was introduced in the House yesterday by Rep. Orval Eaton of Astoria.

Salem—(U.P.)—The state would no longer be permitted to sell lists of registered voters to political parties if a bill introduced in House by Rep. Alfred Corbett (D-Portland) is approved. The bill would make it a misdemeanor to permit public use of the lists.

Salem—(U.P.)—Rep. F. H. Damnasch of Portland introduced a bill yesterday to establish state regulation over sanitary conditions for selling and distributing shellfish, oysters, mussels, and clams. The bill would appropriate $10,000 from the general fund.

Salem—(U.P.)—No person convicted of a crime of moral turpitude would be issued a teaching certificate in Oregon if a bill introduced in the House yesterday is approved by the Legislature.

Salem—(U.P.)—Opposition to a state Senate bill to redistrict Multnomah, Marion and Lane counties for the election of state representatives was indicated at a public hearing on the proposal here yesterday.

Sen. Rudie Wilhelm Jr., Portland Republican, introduced the measure. Opposition to it was voiced by the lawmakers from all three counties.

Lane county legislative dele-

Woodland, Conn.—(U.P.)—Rancher Jacob Dieteker had just loaded 52 bags of walnuts on his truck when a boy appeared at his door offering four bags for sale. Dieteker paid the youth $4.50 for the walnuts and loaded them on his truck. Then he counted the load again. It added up to 52 bags.

gates spoke in favor of removing that county from the bill. However, the county Democratic party and League of Women Voters said they wanted redistricting.
