Committee Members Announced For Annual Braille Tournament

"If a large ticket committee makes a successful affair, the Braille tournament to be held at Camp White Feb. 5 should be highly successful," Mrs. Al Gilhousen said today.

The Braille tournament is an annual event, with all proceeds being turned over to the Red Cross Grey Ladies for the benefit of the visually handicapped of Jackson county. It is sponsored by the three duplicate bridge clubs of Jackson county. Besides bridge, there will be canasta, pinocle, gin-rummy, chess and checkers, with prizes awarded in all divisions and refreshments served after the games.

Mrs. Gilhousen, chairman of the ticket committee, announced the names of the salesmen on the committee as follows: Mesdames L. S. Johnson, Fred Rehling, William Miller, B. L. Sanderson, George Dean, and Josephine Clark. Also selling tickets are Howard J. Boyd, Paul McDuffee, George Choate, T. J. Fuson and Mr. and Mrs. William F. Kennedy.

The special gift committee is headed by Mrs. Howard J. Boyd, chairman, with mesdames Richard Milestone, Ben Todd and Alto Pruitt as co-workers.

William Isaacs is the financial chairman of the tournament and the director of the duplicate bridge games will be Roy Pruitt.

Refreshments are in charge of Mrs. Yvonne Dalen, with Miss Isobel Stuart and Mesdames Arthur Schoenberg, Jack Love, M. M. Herman, Roy Pruitt and Fred Purdin helping.

Mrs. Frank Baker will be in charge of all the games with the exception of the bridge games.

The telephone committee chairman is Mrs. W. W. Stevenson, with Mr. and Mrs. George W. Rode in charge of publicity, newspaper, radio and television.

Tickets for the tournament, set for Saturday, February 5, at 8 o'clock, and may be purchased from Mrs. Gilhousen, 3-2825 or by contacting any member of the duplicate bridge clubs.

Eagle Point Man Honored at Dinner

Eagle Point — Carl von der Hellen was honored Saturday night at a dinner which observed his 75th birthday anniversary. Hosts were his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert von der Hellen, and guests were invited to their home for the event.

Guests were Mr. von der Hellen and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Allen Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Berthold Barnum and Dr. and Mrs. James C. Luce; son-in-law and daughter of the honored guest.

Bermuda shorts are popular for bedtime, too! This trim cotton pajama outfit combines Bermuda shorts with a man-tailored shirt. They are both made of soft Sanforized cotton flannelette in pastel stripes, the National Cotton Council says.

Richard Graham Directs, Acts In Comic Opera

Ashland — "Falstaff" of Oregon Shakespearean festival fame is to take a trip to Japan under a new disguise, as Pooh-Bah in the court of "The Mikado."

Richard Graham, who entertained Festival audiences last August with his portrayal of Sir John Falstaff, plays a leading part in the Southern Oregon College and community presentation of the Gilbert and Sullivan Light Opera, set for the evenings of March 3, 4 and 5.

Not only does Graham have a leading part, but he also is directing the rehearsals of the production in the absence of Miss Helene Robinson.

Playing leading roles in the production are Don Lewis, SOC business manager, as The Mikado; Beverly Bennett, assistant professor of physical education, as the state umbrella bearer; Gene Brown, Ashland, Nanki Poo; Stafford Thomas, Ashland, Ko Ko; Bill Hansen, Ashland, Pish-Tush; Ina Ferro, Dillard Pitti-Sing; Helen Brown, Ashland, Peep-Bo; Graham, Pooh-Bah; Tresa Matlack, Medford, Yum-Yum; and Frances Thrun, Medford, as Katisha.

PTA Congress Names Nominees For Top Offices

Chicago, Ill.—Nominees for four top offices of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers for election at the organization's 59th annual convention May 23-25 in Chicago, have been announced by the nominating committee.

The committee's nominees for the following offices are:
President: Mrs. Rollin Brown, Los Angeles, Calif., now first vice-president, nominated to succeed Mrs. Newton P. Leonard of Rhode Island.

First vice-president: Mrs. James C. Parker, Grand Rapids, Mich., presently chairman of the national committee on congress publications and a past president of the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers, nominated to succeed Mrs. Rollin Brown.

Treasurer: James H. Snowden, Wilmington, Del., now president of the Delaware Congress of Parents and Teachers and a member of the national budget committee, nominated to succeed John W. Headley of South Dakota.

Secretary: Mrs. L. W. Alston of Hattiesburg, Miss., now chairman of the national committee on high school service and past president of the Mississippi Congress of Parents and Teachers, nominated to succeed Mrs. Russell C. Bickel of Ohio.

These nominees, if elected, will each serve 3-year terms. The four offices are the only ones to be filled this year, since elections in the National Congress of Parents and Teachers are staggered.

PEO Chapters Mark Founding

The founding of the PEO sisterhood was observed at a luncheon at Rogue Valley Country club Saturday, January 22. Members of Chapter CP were hostesses for the event.

During the program hour Mrs. D. G. MacDougal sang, accompanied by Mrs. G. R. Polski. Mrs. V. H. Wilson, president of the hostess chapter, narrated a skit which she had written and which was based on the lives of the seven founders. Members of Chapter CP modeled dresses of that period while Mrs. H. Chandler Drew provided background music.

Tables for the luncheon were decorated with yellow and white early spring flowers.

The sisterhood was founded at Iowa Wesleyan college in 1869.

To Leave

Mr. and Mrs. John Mahaffey and daughter, Susan, 503 West Jackson street, will leave Thursday by car for Montclair, W. Va., where they will visit Mr. Mahaffey's relatives. Later they will spend some time in Daytona Beach, Fla.

Couple Home

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Trowbridge have returned to Medford after spending two weeks in California on vacation. They were in San Francisco for several days, and in Carmel for the annual Bing Crosby golf tournament.

Association Elects Assistant Secretary

Paul G. Antony, 1537 Grand ave., has been elected by the board of directors of Jackson County Federal Savings and Loan association to serve as third assistant secretary of the organization, it was announced today.

Antony will be in charge of the association's accounting department. He has been associated with Jackson County Federal since February, 1954. Prior to that time he was in the general contracting and development business in this area.

Antony, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Antony, 1511 East Main st., has been a resident of the Rogue valley for 10 years. He was graduated from Medford high school in 1945, and after serving in the Army, attended Southern Oregon and Oregon State colleges.

Examinations Slated For Federal Positions

Examinations have been scheduled by the United States Civil Service commission for job openings with the Department of Agriculture and the Social Security administration, according to Chester W. Silliman, local civil service representative.

Openings with the Agricultural department include positions as engineer (agricultural or civil), engineering aid (agricultural or civil), soil scientist GS-5, farm management supervisor, soil scientist GS-7, forestry aid and fire control aid, smoke jumper, and student trainee.

Claims examiners are needed by the San Francisco area office of the Social Security administration. Salaries range from $4,205 to $5,060 a year.

Further details and application forms are available at Silliman's office in the Medford post office building.
